OWING to the late hour in the afternoon at which the Abbott-Gray marriage took place our report thereof was necessarily not as complete as we would have liked it to have been. In order to remedy this defect, we to-day give place to a detailed account of the ceremony, which will be found in another column.

BOSTON MARKETS.—Advices of the 8th say: The Potato Market maintains a firm tone with a good demand for best stock; Island stock is worth from 75 to 80 cents per bushel. BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

THE CRIMES BILL.

SMITH'S RESOLUTION.

GLADSTONE SPEAKS.

LONDON, June 10.

W. H. Smith moved in the Commons this evening the resolution previously announced, requesting at 10 p. m., on the 17th, the chair to forthwith put the question on any motion, amendment or proposal touching a clause of the Crimes' Bill, then under discussion, then on the clause itself, and finally on each remaining clause. He urged that the step was forced upon the Government by continued obstruction. It was impossible for the Government, representing the majority, to yield to the obstruction of the minority, although the Government desired that due consideration be given to the rights of the minority.

The debate on the Crimes' Bill had become a travesty, bringing ridicule, disgrace and contempt upon Parliament.

Gladstone said longer notice should have been given. The present state of business and entire paralysis of Parliament caused intense dissatisfaction throughout the country, but the position had been brought about by the Government themselves. (Cries of "Hear, hear.") They had been pursuing a false, evil policy, that of coercion, without the justification pleaded on former occasions, and had disregarded all usages and traditions of Parliament in the conduct of the measure which they had, under the name of a Crimes Bill, introduced. The measure was directed against a combination apart from crime. (Hear, hear.) He did not wish to create a difficulty by offering opposition which he knew would be ineffectual and would therefore content himself with protesting against the course proposed. Parnell said he could not understand the fatuity of the Government in rushing blindfolded along the road which it was already seen would lead to the greatest disorder in Ireland. He moved in amendment that the house decline to sanction the resolution limiting the freedom of debate and assailing the rights of ministers.

Sir William Harcourt, Goschen and several Parnellites continued the debate, when Smith moved the cloture which was carried 284 to 167, and Parnell's amendment was rejected 301 to 181.

After further discussion Smith's complete motion was carried under cloture amid cheers and counter cheers.

Smith moved discussion of the bill in committee till Monday, which was carried 203 to 72.

IRISH EVICTIONS.

Some Exciting Scenes.

DUBLIN, June 10.

Bailiffs made an attack on a house with crowbars and were received with scalding water. The inspector of police, with a drawn sword, mounted a ladder and was beaten down. Finally, after several unsuccessful attempts to gain admittance had been made, a constable entered with a rifle and fixed bayonet, the rifle was wrestled from him, and when Father Hannon entered O'Halleran had the constable raised aloft in the act of throwing him out of the window, while a sister of O'Halleran was charging another constable with the rifle and bayonet. A crowd of peasants sneered at the evictors, whereupon they were charged by the police and brutally beaten.

Smith Assailed.

LONDON, June 10.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in a rampant article on the action of W. H. Smith, Government leader, in giving notice that he would to-day move the committee in name the time when it would report the Irish crimes amendment bill to the house, and urges every English and Irish member who opposes Smith proposal, from Gladstone down, to get themselves suspended rather than tamely acquiesce in Smith's monstrous encroachment on the liberties of parliament.

SUPERINTENDENT BRENNAN has chartered the steamer Cyclone for the lake service in transporting passengers to the Islands. Her tonnage is for 150 passengers and it is claimed that her speed is sixteen to eighteen miles per hour. Capt. Patrick Smith will command her. Mr. Maurice Doucette will be the purser. The Cyclone will connect with steamers from Detroit and Cleveland for Lakeside, at Kelley's Island.—Lakeside, O., News.

The Superintendent Brennan above referred to is Mr. E. H. Brennan, (brother of Mr. W. A. Brennan, of the Journal,) for some time a Conductor on the Island railway, and who now occupies the lucrative position of President and Manager of the Lakeside and Marblehead Railroad. Mr. Doucette was for several years employed as a painter in the carriage shop of Mr. John McPhail. He left the Island last fall determined to be one of the many "successful Islanders abroad." Last winter he attended College and this spring was appointed to the position above referred to. We congratulate both gentlemen on their success.

WE were yesterday shown some very handsome carriages, imported from the United States by Mr. W. J. Fraser, north side of Queen Square. Among the collection was a neat and durable barouche and a handsome carryall, both of which have been purchased by Mr. Holden Kennedy for livery purposes. Several of the other carriages have also been sold, and another barouche is being made ready.
