

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 16, 1890.

Notes and Comments.

The Moncton Transcript has called up some mythical "buyer" to make its Crit readers feel joyful with the news that "Prince Edward Island is sorely afflicted by the McKinley tariff bill," and that "the Island was strongly Liberal before but today reports declare it is overwhelmingly so."

The Empire reports that Canadian cheese is steadily forging ahead in the British market. According to the official figures, Canada supplied in August more cheese to the United States than all other countries combined.

We publish on the last page of THE EXAMINER of to-day some illustrations of the St. Clair Tunnel. These, with the article accompanying them, ought to be interesting to the people of Prince Edward Island, who want, most of all, means of "continuous communication" with the mainland.

The Governor-General's Visit.

The vice-regal party will arrive here in H. M. S. Canada at noon on the 23rd inst. The party will consist of His Excellency, Lady Stanley, and Captain Walsh, aide-de-camp.

As far as we have learned, the programme during the Governor-General's stay will be as follows: His Excellency will land on Pownall Wharf at 2 p. m. on the 23rd, where he will be received by the Mayor of the city with the reception committee of the City Council.

On the evening of second day the firemen of the city will form in procession, and accompany His Excellency from Pownall Wharf to Government House.

By the Mayor's circular, published in to-day's issue, it will be seen that the citizens are invited to show their loyalty; and we have no doubt as in the past, so now in the present, they will gladly give a warm welcome to the Queen's representatives.

Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court at Summerside was adjourned last evening. The prisoner Curtis, who was found guilty of breaking into the Presbyterian Church at Alberton and stealing hymn books, was sent to Dorchester for two years, and Kinch and McAlduff, for common assault, take six months in the common jail in Prince Co.

The Presbytery.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island met in St. John's Church, Moncton, by permission of the Synod, on Friday the 3rd inst., and was duly constituted by Rev. W. P. Archibald, Moderator pro tem, with whom were present Messrs. Alex. Stirling, J. M. Sinclair, Alex. Raulston, Jas. Caruthers, Geo. McMillan, Allen McLean, A. B. McLeod, Evan Gillis, W. H. Spencer, Thos. Corbett, J. M. McLeod, W. M. Tufts, Henry Dickie, and J. M. McLennan ministers, with Messrs. R. Carr, J. McLeod, John Murchison, Wm. Laird, D. Beaton, J. McLeod, Wm. G. McKay, John M. McDonald and James Linkletter ruling elders.

Elders commissions were received from the sessions of Cove Head, Tryon and Bonshaw, Princetown, West Cape, New London, Clifton and Granville, West River, and Summerside, in favor of Messrs. Ralph Carr, James Gordon, John McLeod, Arch. Ramsay, Alex. Morrison, Thomas Lowther, Wm. G. McKay and James Linkletter.

Rev. Thomas Corbett reported that he had on the 10th day of September proceeded to Richmond Bay East, and moderated in a call which came out unanimously in favor of Rev. E. Bayne; that the call was signed by 111 communicants, and fifty-three adherents; that the congregation guaranteed $500 and also assured the presbytery that although there was no mention of a house, yet, should the call be accepted, he was assured that a house would be provided for the minister.

Rev. Alexander Sterling reported that on Monday the 29th, he had proceeded to the congregation of Strathalbane, preached in both churches, and moderated in a call which came out unanimously in favor of Rev. M. Campbell; that the call was signed by ninety-two communicants and two-hundred and thirty-four adherents; and that a subscription list was signed to the amount of $780.

JAMES CARUTHERS, Clerk of Presbytery.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

An Employe Complains.

SIR,—It is well known that during the early part of the summer an arrangement was made between the four hardware firms of this city by which each establishment was to close its doors at six p. m. This agreement has, up to the present, been faithfully carried out, and it therefore surprised the writer not a little to observe last evening that though three of the contracting firms still observed the agreement the fourth had thrown open its store and re-called its clerks to what we had hoped was a thing of the past, namely, late hours for the hardware clerks.

Oct. 16th, 1890.

What is Wrong?

SIR,—What has come over the hardware dealers? Turning up an old paper, I find an advertisement signed by all the hardware dealers, agreeing to close their respective stores at 6 o'clock p. m. from that date (viz., June 15, 1890) and here it is only the middle of October, and one of the oldest firms in the trade already opening its doors till half-past seven or eight o'clock.

It seems to me only reasonable that if the dry goods and boot and shoe dealers can close at 6 o'clock, that the hardware stores might do the same, as what little trade would be done after night would be in those lines, and not in stores.

In conclusion, I may say that I hope there has been some misunderstanding somewhere. If there has, I feel confident that Messrs. Dodd & Rogers are the men to rectify it by still conforming to the rule that has given so much satisfaction.

My Pretty Jane.

French has a parody on the old song of "My Pretty Jane," suggested by a letter in the Daily Telegraph pointing out that the rate of marriages is higher when wheat is a good price. The verses are as follows:

My pretty Jane, my dearest Jane, Ah, never look so shy, But meet me, meet me in the market, When the price of wheat rules high. The glut is waning fast, my love, And corn is getting dear; Good (Hymen) times are coming, love, Ceres our hearts shall cheer. Then pretty Jane, though poorish Jane, Ah, never pipe your eye, But meet me, meet me at the altar For the price of wheat rules high!

Yes, name the day, the happy day, I can afford the ring; For corn rules high, the marriage rate Mounts up like anything; The "quarter" stands at fifty, love, Which for Mark Lane is dear. Our wedding day is coming, love, Our married course is clear. Then pretty Jane, if poorish Jane, Ah, never look so shy, But meet me, meet me at the altar When the price of wheat rules high!

The Markets.

THE recent storms and the McKinley Bill and the rot in the early potatoes have, all coming together, somewhat disorganized the local market.

What black oats have offered in Charlottetown have sold at from 38 to 39 cents. White oats have been selling in Summerside at from 38 to 40, according to quality. The season for eggs is nearly over. Buyers have been somewhat alarmed concerning the operation of the McKinley Bill. But they are paying from 13 to 14 cents per dozen.

Only a few potatoes are offering, the weather and the rot preventing business. Quotations are nominal at from 16 to 20 cents.

Shortage of fodder has necessitated the reduction of stocks of horses and cattle. The offerings are consequently large at present, and the demand nil. Farmers who can afford to feed well through the winter will probably obtain good prices in the spring.

We clip the following quotations from the St. John Globe received this morning: Morgan's S C Pork per bbl. $16 00 to 17 00 Clear Pork..... 16 50 to 17 00 Am Mess Pork, per bbl, new... 15 50 to 16 00 P E I Mess Pork, per bbl.... 16 50 to 17 00

Eggs are quoted by the same paper at from 22 to 23 cents per dozen; Ontario oats at 55 cents per bushel; none offering from P. E. Island.

In the St. John "country market" potatoes are selling at 70 cents per bushel.

The Montreal Gazette, Oct. 13, says: Pork and lard continue to hold steady at quotations. Canadian short cut per bbl, $17 50 to $18 00 Mess pork, western, per bbl, 16 50 to 17 00 Short cut, western, per bbl, 17 00 to 17 50 Hams, city cured, per lb, 0 12 to 0 12 1/2 Hams, canvassed, per lb, 0 12 1/2 to 0 13 Lard, western, pails, per lb, 0 09 to 0 09 1/2 Lard, Canadian, in pails, 0 08 1/2 to 0 08 3/4 Lard, C O P..... 0 00 to 0 10 1/2 Bacon, per lb..... 0 09 to 0 10 Lard, com. refined, per lb, 0 08 to 0 08 1/2

The same paper reports as to eggs: "The McKinley bill has now been in operation a week, but there has been so far no noticeable change in the egg market. The receipts continue very moderate, as the statement of receipts printed above will show. This may be accounted for, however, by the fact that the country was pretty well cleaned up before the bill went into operation. Next week dealers are looking for larger supplies, in which event prices will, no doubt, take a drop. The range to-day was 16 1/2 to 17 1/4."
