

SINGAPORE, Jan. 28 — (AP)—C. A. F. search planes Saturday identified the wreckage of a twin-engine Dakota in the Thailand jungle as a plane owned by Chinese millionaire publisher Aw Boon Haw. The plane crews reported there was no sign of life around the wreck of the craft, which was carrying 10 persons when it disappeared Jan. 13.

WELLING, England, Jan. 28 — (Reuters) — Thieves Saturday deprived everyone in this little village of their last week-end joint before the new meat ration cut becomes effective Monday. They broke into the butcher's shop and made off with 15 whole lamb carcasses and 360 pounds of tinned meat.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

Two Elected To Baseball's Hall of Fame

By Joe Reichler
NEW YORK, Jan. 27 — (AP) — Mel Ott, former New York Giants player and manager and all-time home run king of the National League, and Jimmy Foxx, mighty slugging first baseman of Philadelphia Athletics and Boston Red Sox for nearly 20 years, today were elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame by the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

Ott, 41 and Foxx, 43, are the 59th and 60th players to have their names enshrined in Cooperstown, N. Y., home of the Hall of Fame. The last player thus honored was Charley Gehring, former Detroit Tiger star second baseman who gained it in 1949.

Ott was named on 197 of the 226 ballots cast. Foxx received 179 votes.

Oddy enough, both came up to the major leagues the same year, 1925, and both began as catchers. Foxx went back to the minors for a year of seasoning but came back in 1926.

He pounded big league fences for the next 20 years. When he called it a career at the end of the 1945 season, he had accumulated 534 home runs to finish second only to the immortal Babe Ruth.

Ott spent 22 consecutive seasons with the Giants. Switched to the outfield by John McGraw, the little Gretna, La., larriper, developed into one of the finest all-around outfielders the National League ever knew. He also spent parts of several seasons at second and third base.

Ott was manager of the Giants from 1942 until the middle of the 1948 season when he was replaced by Leo Durocher. In addition to his 511 homers, most ever hit by a National League player, he holds the league record for most runs scored, most runs batted in, most bases on balls, most long hits, most total bases and a flock of others.

The poll selections were restricted only to those who performed during the years 1924 through 1949.

Habs, Leafs And Bruins N.H.L. Winners Saturday

TORONTO 2, NEW YORK 1
TORONTO, Jan. 28 — (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs edged New York Rangers 2-1 here Saturday night in a close-checking National Hockey League game before 13,165 fans.

The second-place Leafs jumped to a 1-0 lead early in the first period, the second was scoreless and both teams tallied in the third.

Fleming MacKell and Sid Smith were the Toronto marksmen. Ed Kullman got the goal for the fifth-place Rangers.

The shots-on-goal records bore out the tight checking. Rangers got away only 13 at Al Rollins, Leaf netminder, who had a shutout until the last six minutes.

Chuck Rayner turned aside 18 shots.

Referee Bill Knott handed out eight penalties, four apiece. Included in the total were five-minute majors to defenseman Fern Flaman of Leafs and Kullman for fighting in the second period.

All three goals came with the teams at full strength.

Rangers, who had beaten Leafs in their three previous meetings, were short two men through injuries.

Edgar Laprade, clever centre, has been out for a number of games with a broken leg and probably won't see action again this season. Also on the sidelines was Nick Mikoski, another centre, who has a dislocated shoulder.

Leafs played without rookie defenceman, Hugh Bolton, out with swollen neck glands.

tionals, each scored a goal. Robert, a farmhand from the American League's Cincinnati Mohawks, missed making it a triple for the line by blowing a goal-crease tip-in with goalie Harry Lumley three feet out of position.

Norm Dussault and Elmer Lach scored Canadiens' other goals, and Jim and Roy Conacher counted for the Hawks.

The Olmstead-Brown scrap began with a tussle in the second period, Olmstead wading in when Brown chopped at goalie Gerry McNeil's hands. Brown swung a left. The affair quickly died down, Olmstead getting a minor for roughing and a major for high-sticking. Brown was assessed a major for fighting.

With the two in the penalty box just before the third period started, Brown started swinging again and the 30-second battle was on in earnest. It ended with Brown on the floor, Olmstead on top still swinging lefts and rights and linesman George Hayes finally getting an armlock on the top man. Referee Bill Chadwick gave the batters 10-minute misconduct penalties.

BOSTON 3, DETROIT 0

BOSTON, Jan. 28 — (AP) — Boston Bruins rewarded 12,887 supporters, largest National Hockey League gathering of the season here, with a 3-0 shutout over the first-place Detroit Red Wings Saturday night. Goalie Jack Gelineau kicked out 30 Detroit shots while accomplishing this third whitewashing job of the campaign.

During the 14th minute of fast action, captain Milt Schmidt laced home a 50-foot shot that defenceman Clare Raglan deflected into his own net with his leg.

Early in the third period, Lorne Ferguson batted in Eddie Sandford's rebound and, with less than six minutes left, Murray Henderson rifled in a 65-foot shot between goalie Terry Sawchuk's legs.

Gelineau's performance in the Boston cage was exceptionally brilliant and he was given outstanding assistance by his defencemen, especially the Quackenbush brothers, Bill and Max.

Neither Boston's Bill Ezinicki nor Wings' Ted Lindsay was allowed to dress for the game. Each was fined $300 and suspended for three Detroit-Boston games for engaging in a wild, stick-and-fist duel in Detroit last Thursday.

MONTREAL 4, CHICAGO 2

MONTREAL, Jan. 28 — (CP) — Montreal Canadiens came up with an all-French-Canadian kid line Saturday night and the youngsters just about stole the show in a 4-2 victory over the luckless Chicago Black Hawks.

As an added attraction for the 14,175 fans, the game produced a two-round slugfest between Bert Olmstead of Canadiens and Adam Brown of Hawks, bringing major and misconduct penalties to both and an additional minor penalty to Olmstead.

The Hawks, whose winless streak now extends to 20 straight games, lost centre Doug Bentley who left the game in the second period suffering from a charley horse. Billy Reay was absent because of his father's death.

Canadians' win was sparked by the line of Jean Beliveau, Bernie Geoffrion and Claude Robert. Beliveau and Geoffrion, juniors borrowed on lend-lease from Quebec Citadels and Montreal Na-
