PHILHARMONIC CONCERT this evening.

A MUSICAL EVENT.—The Philharmonic concert this evening.

THE GRIP is prevalent at the Magdalen islands, and assistance is asked for.

THE "GOLDEN LEGEND" at the Philharmonic Hall this evening.

SILSBY HOSE CO.—Regular monthly meeting this evening, at 8 o'clock.

EVERYONE should go to the Philharmonic concert this evening.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—The meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of Canada will be held in Kingston, Ont., June 10th.

THE STEAMER FASTNETleft Souris for Charlottetown this morning about 7 o'clock with a full cargo. She is due early this afternoon.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT seem determined to carry the principle of non-resident representation into every department. They have seen, so it is said, appointed some supporters in the city as Hog Reeves for country districts.

APPLE BLOSSOMS.—Mrs. D. A. McLean, of Argyle Shore, has forwarded the Farmer a blossom from one of her apple trees, which was picked on the 26th May. She says that at that date the trees were in full bloom.

RELEASED ON BAIL.—The lads Taylor and McLean, sent up for trial for housebreaking, have been released on bail—each in two sureties of $100 each. The other young fellow, Joseph Steele, has not yet obtained bail.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—The balance of the McGill property, comprising two acres of land with dwelling house and outbuildings, will be sold at a bargain. For price and terms apply on the premises to Miss McGill, or to R. Bourke, Auctioneer.

ALL DOUBT REMOVED.—The Executive Council was in session all yesterday afternoon and well into the night. Several appointments were made, amongst them being that of a Hog Reeve, which was conferred on one of the Premier's lieutenants, who received due notice of his promotion through the mail last night.

FOOTBALL.—The match game of football between a team from the Crescents and the first team of St. Dunstan's College, will take place this evening at 7 o'clock. As there are three men on each team who played in the New Glasgow vs. Abegweits match on May 25, the game should be an exciting one.

FISH AND GAME.—There will be a meeting of the P. E. Island Fish and Game Protection Association on Friday, 5th inst., at 4 o'clock p. m., at the office of R. R. Fitzgerald, Cameron Block. As there will be matters of special importance to be discussed in reference to some alterations in the existing game laws, a very full meeting is requested.—W. W. Beer, Sec'y.

LEG BROKEN.—We are sorry to hear that Mr. Walter Lowe, carpenter, of this city, had one of his legs broken at the ankle yesterday afternoon, while at work in the store lately occupied by Mr. A. L. Brown. While engaged raising one of the beams of an upper floor he fell through to the floor below. Dr. Kelly is in attendance, and Mr. Lowe is doing well.

LECTURE.—We are pleased to learn that Prof. Robertson, Dominion Dairy Commissioner, has kindly consented to deliver his lecture on "Twice Across Canada" on Monday evening next in Philharmonic Hall, under the auspices of the Prince of Wales College Y. M. C. A. The admission fee will be 15 cents. The Professor has delivered this lecture in Toronto and other large cities, and as might be expected, it has been spoken of as a great treat.

DEDICATION.—On Monday, the 29th inst., the Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul, His Lordship Bishop Macdonald will dedicate St. Mark's, Lot 7, of which Father Burke, of Alberton, is pastor, and consecrate the parish cemetery and give confirmation. The Rev. Dr. Doyle, of Vernon River, will preach the dedication sermon. St. Mark's, which is one of the few of our churches finished interiorally in wood, is a gem, we are told, of the first water. The plans were from Mr. Harris' office.

A VALUABLE CARGO.—The schooner Turban, Captain Hill, sails for Hamilton, Bermuda, this evening with a cargo made up as follows:—1,632 sacks oats, 25 tons coal, 24 cords hardwood, 44 bales hay, 1500 palings, 2000 feet scantling, 19,000 feet rough boards, 30,000 laths, 1400 feet plank, 6 cases canned fish, and 2 cases canned lobsters. The cargo, which is valued at $3,200, was shipped by Mr. C. H. Schurman.

LEFT THE CITY.—Several young lads wanted by the police for corner loafing and annoying persons in their dwellings, have suddenly discovered that they had pressing business outside the city limits—business which will likely keep them there for some time. The police are on the track of several other young fellows who have been making themselves obnoxious in the same way. Perhaps they, too, will take a few holidays.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—The Evangelist, Rev. Mr. Wallace, who is helping Rev. Mr. Gordon in the series of meetings in connection with the Baptist Church, preaches a short sermon every evening at 8 o'clock. These meetings are well attended and are intensely interesting. Last evening at the monthly conference a number of applicants for baptism and church membership were received, and others will likely come forward during the week. The baptism will take place at the close of the morning service Sunday.

ATHLETICS.—The Charlottetown Athletic Association have rented the Rink for the summer, and have engaged the services of Mr. M. L. King (late instructor at Sackville) as instructor in calisthenics. The building is now being put in order, and the apparatus arranged under the direction of Mr. A. F. Ings; and Mr. King will be ready to form classes next Monday evening. Messrs Mark Wright & Co. and A. Duchemin & Co. have made all the required apparatus. It is now in order to join the Association, and both assist a good cause, and improve your own health.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

SIR JOHN'S CONDITION

PROBABLY MORE HOPEFUL

OTTAWA, June 4.

The Premier is in about the same condition. He recognized his daughter and grand-son yesterday. Dr. Powell issued a bulletin last night displaying a very bad temper and complaining that the public were wanting to know too much, and saying he was not going to manufacture news. The general opinion is that the Doctor is irritated because his predictions five days ago of immediate fatal termination are unfulfilled. Sir John's present condition is probably more hopeful.

OTTAWA, June 4—9 a. m.

Sir John Macdonald passed a good night. He slept well and took nourishment at proper intervals. Respiration thirty; pulse one hundred and six.

MONTREAL, June 2.—The Star has the following cable from London: The press generally endorses W. H. Smith's graceful tribute in the House of Commons last night. "Sir John Macdonald," said the first lord of the treasury, "is a man who, however his party conduct may be viewed, has earned the respect and admiration of all the who know the services he has rendered to dominion and the empire. There can be but one feeling of deep sorrow that a life so valuable seems about to end." Sir Vernon Harcourt, Staveley Hill, and Joseph Chamberlain joined in the tribute to Sir John Macdonald, whose death they all said would be an international loss. The House generally showed keen sympathy with Canada.

The Daily Chronicle to-day devotes the first leader to Sir John, and speaks highly of his services to the empire. It thinks that Sir John Macdonald's programme will suffice to keep the present parliament at Ottawa active for some years, and says that the choice of leader lies between Sir Charles Tupper and Sir John Thompson.

Sir Charles Tupper is still in Vienna, and gives no sign of an early return.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

WASHINGTON NEGOTIATIONS

OTTAWA, June 4.

Papers of negotiations between Canada and the United States in reference to the Washington negotiations were talked of in the House yesterday. They include all papers relating to the invitation and visit to Washington of the Canadian delegates.

Macdonald, the new member for Algoma, has taken his seat.

The prohibition debate has been indefinitely postponed, owing to Sir John's critical state.

Private members during the day session were chiefly occupied with the subject of copyright.

Hon. Mr. Foster said that should no unfortunate occurrence take place, the budget speech will be delivered on Friday.

THE STATE OF IRELAND.

What Balfour Says.

LONDON, June 4.

In a speech yesterday Balfour said that the conditions now prevailing in Ireland show the benefits which have accrued to that country through the enforcement of the Crimes Act. It had so well fulfilled expectations that crime had ceased so largely that it is justifiable to suspend operations of the Act everywhere in Ireland, except in a few places where the ashes of the campaign still smouldered, and proclamations to that effect would soon be issued. Balfour said Ireland urgently needed imperial laws and imperial credits.

The Tarte-McGreevy Case

OTTAWA, June 4.

In the Tarte-McGreevy investigation yesterday, Michael Connolly produced the firm's books, but refused to hand them over to the custody of committee. The Committee ordered their clerk to take charge of the books. Connolly refused to allow the clerk to lay hands on them. Connolly is sustained by Chapleau, Dr. Weldon and Ezekial McLeod. The Committee is at a standstill, and have so reported to the House.

A Sanctimonious Sinner.

LONDON, June 4.

Decobain, the member of Parliament, who fled from jurisdiction in the English Courts to avoid prosecution for numerous crimes, refuses to meet his accusers. He says the Lord does not point out to him as his duty to imperil his life and liberty. The Lord does not require any such sacrifice.

Thunder Storm at Vienna.

LONDON, June 3.

During a severe storm which occurred at Vienna yesterday, 36 buildings were struck by lightning, two children killed and many persons badly injured. The suburbs of the city were flooded.

Rainstorms in the States

NEW YORK, June 4.

GOT THREE MONTHS.—On Tuesday evening last two men—James McIsaac and A. G. Brackett—slept in the one bed at Thorp's boarding house on Great George Street. Next morning when Brackett arose, he missed two sovereigns from his clothes. He suspected that his bed-fellow, who had arisen earlier than he, had stolen the money, and called in the services of Police Sergeant Bradley, who soon succeeded in arresting McIsaac, from whom he recovered one sovereign, $4 in paper money and 75 cents in silver. The two sovereigns lost by Brackett, one of which was an Australian coin, he valued at $9. In court this morning, McIsaac denied that he had stolen the money, but said he picked up two sovereigns on the bedroom floor yesterday morning. The marshal swore that after his arrest McIsaac admitted taking the money from Brackett. Brackett, Sergeant Bradley, and a lad named Doyle, gave evidence which His Honor thought established the guilt of the prisoner, and sentenced him to three months imprisonment with hard labor. McIsaac hails from St. Peter's Bay; Brackett came out as cook on the Northumberland.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY CONCERT.—Before the formation of the Philharmonic Society no complete oratorios or cantatas had ever been performed in Charlottetown. The concert to-night will be the fourth of a series of classical cantatas and oratorios performed by the above society during its two years of existence. This may fairly be called a record of hard work; and as hard preparatory work generally guarantees success, we feel safe in asking the citizens to be present at the concert to-night.

DISMISSED.—The case of "Doctor" Rossin for practicing medicine without a license from the Medical Board, was up before the police court on court here on Tuesday last, but the evidence that he was doing so for "gain or hope of reward" was held by the Stipendiary to be insufficient to convict and the case was dismissed.—Farmer.
