Shower For Bride-To-Be

A number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Miss Bessie Dennis on June 3 in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Marjorie Smallman of Forest View.

The bride-to-be was escorted to a decorated seat of honor to the strains of the bridal chorus, played by her aunt, Mrs. Melvina Ellis. Many and lovely gifts were opened by Miss Lorraine MacDonald and the accompanying verses and good wishes were read by Mrs. Marne Kennedy and placed by Miss Florence Gallant.

Bride - to - be Honored By Friends

An air of gaiety pervaded the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, Irishtown Rd., Kensington, on Wednesday evening, May 27, when their daughter, Mary, was honored by friends and relatives at a miscellaneous shower prior to her approaching marriage.

Pink and white streamers and potted plants had been artistically arranged by friends of the bride in the living-room where she was escorted to a daintily trimmed seat by Miss Phyllis McDonald while the guests sang—"Here Comes the Bride." While the ribbons were cut by Miss Helen Mullaly and Miss Patricia McDonald,

Boswall-Walker
Wedding

The North Bedeque United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon when Margaret Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Walker, New Annan, was united in marriage to Irving Jay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Boswall, Marshfield. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. K. Campbell.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Charles Hurry, aunt of the bride. During the signing of the register Mr. Thomas Hall sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractively gowned in a floor length dress of white net over satin with matching bolero. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a net crown and she carried a shower bouquet of Better Time roses.

The bride's attendants were Miss Beth Boswall, sister of the groom, as maid of honour, wearing a floor length dress of mauve net over taffeta and bolero with matching head band of net and flowers. Miss Joan Walker, sister of the bride as bridesmaid, wore a yellow floor length dress of net over taffeta and bolero with matching head band of net and flowers. Both carried dainty nosegays of spring flowers. Little Marsha Ballem, cousin of the bride, as flower girl, wore a floor length dress of blue net over taffeta with matching headpiece and carried a basket of yellow roses.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Roy Boswall, and ushers were Messrs. Keir Boswall, brother of the groom, and David Walker, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Walker chose a dress of baby blue taffeta with yellow accessories, and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a navy suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 70 guests. The tables were artistically arranged with spring flowers and lighted tapers, one table centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom under an arch of orange blossoms, the other table with the bride's cake. Mrs. Samuel and Mrs. Francis Drake, aunt and cousin of the bride's mother, decorated the cakes for the occasion. Rev. Mr. Campbell proposed the toast to the bride which was fittingly responded to by the groom.

Amid showers of confetti the happy young couple left by car for a trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a navy suit with navy and white accessories and lilac top coat. Her corsage was of pink roses. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Boswall will reside in Marshfield.

sister to Mary, Mrs. Desmond Callaghan and Mrs. Harold Palmer read the accompanying names and good wishes, and Mrs. Harry Brown placed the gifts on the table. Betty Palmer and Joyce Mann wheeled in the parcels in a baby carriage charmingly trimmed in rose shades, which was re-filled several times and returned by the little girls. Mary gracefully expressed her thanks for the gifts and good wishes.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Pauline MacKinnon and Mrs. Harold Mullaly, aunts of the bride-to-be. Mrs. Desmond Callaghan, Mrs. Harold Palmer, Miss Helen Mullaly and Miss Patricia McDonald.

Included among the many lovely and useful gifts were table linens, bed linens, an electric clock, a chest of silver, dishes, kitchenware, a pair of end tables, and a neat sum in cash.—BUR
