

Hymn to a Plumber. Sweet man, so cool, so calm, so bright, Owner of earth and sky!

A Terrible Experience. The steamer Crystal, built at Newcastle not long ago, started from Dundas for America, on the 31st December last.

Newfoundland was the nearest point, just 1,000 miles away. The mates wanted to make that land with all possible speed, but Captain Standard knew that to take his vessel to Newfoundland would be to sacrifice it, since the start which the fire would have on reaching there would put the fire beyond the control of the primitive assistance to be obtained there.

When all these arrangements had been concluded it occurred to some one that the mate, John Stewart, was missing. His room was just forward of the burning compartment, and it was remembered that the signal wire between the two wheelhouses ran through his room through a little round hole into the compartment that was burning.

The contents of the burning compartment were 200 sacks of potatoes, hundred of bales of paper and jute, hemp, hurlaps, bagging, rags and towelling. The smoke produced by this combination weakened even those who breathed little of it.

At midnight of Tuesday the Crystal ploughed up to Quarantine, New York, and word was sent ashore that she was on fire. No thing could be done at that hour, and their was, nothing for it but to spend another night in weary watching.

When the hatches were first taken off the fire burst into sudden fury sending the flames high up into the air, and setting fire to the ropes and rigging. Out in mid-ocean that would have been all very fine for the fire fiend, but the fire fiend happened just then to be in the midst of a very energetic civilization, and he got very little satisfaction.

NOTES. Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character.

MANHOOD. How Lost, How Restored. We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts or two postage stamps. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Address: THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO. 41 Ann St. New York. Post Office Box 450.
