Baptist Minister And Family Remembered

The above picture was taken last night during a function at which a presentation was made to Rev. J. D. Davison, Mrs. Davison and family. Left to right are: Mrs. Garnet Godfrey, Col. D. N. Bell, the Davison family, Judith, Fred, Rev. and Mrs. Davison, Jonathan, Mr. R. J. Rupert and Mrs. Ben Stentiford.

Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Davison and family were honored last night by members of the Baptist Church and congregation in the church's lower hall which was filled to capacity at a social evening, for them before their departure from the city at the end of the month.

A large representation from every department of the church was on hand as Mr. R. J. Rupert, the chairman, spoke of the high esteem which Mr. Davison and his family enjoyed as evidenced by the many tokens of good will. After a program of entertainment by members of the congregation, Mr. Rupert addressed the guests of honour and with Mrs. Garnet Godfrey, Mrs. Benjamin Stentiford, and Col. D. N. Bell, presented the family with the following gifts—to Mrs. Davison, a silver candelabra and a beautiful travelling case, a larger companion piece to one which she received earlier from members of the Victoria Group of the Auxiliary; to Rev. J. D. Davison, a generously filled wallet and to each of the children, Judith, Frederic, Jonathan and Patricia a gift of money.

The pastor and his wife replied in turn, thanking all for their generosity, telling of many pleasures they experienced in their ministry here, and speaking with high hopes for the future growth of the church.

The program opened with a sing song led by Mr. W. S. McMurry and continued as follows—Guitar solos, Keith Robinson; Barry Bugden, solo. Mr. Bugden was also heard in a duet with Mrs. Bugden, Misses Christine and Madge Mugford, duet; Mrs. Ray Hennessey, solo; Mr. Royston Mugford, who was accompanist throughout, gave his piano impression of a student pianist in various stages and Misses Barbara and Marilyn Rupert, duets.

The beautiful floral display and decoration of the hall was arranged by Mrs. Herbert Yeo, Mrs. Edward MacPhail, Mrs. S. H. Burke and Mrs. J. W. Bailen.

After the presentation of the gifts refreshments were served by a committee of ladies under the direction of Mrs. D. N. Bell. The evening came to a close with the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" and a benediction pronounced by the pastor.

Following is the text of the address to the guests of honour, by a representative number of the leading workers of the church — To: Rev. James D. and Mrs. Davison:

As the time draws near for your departure from Charlottetown and from the fellowship of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, we your many friends, representative of every Committee, Board and Organization of the Church—gather to pay tribute and wish you and your family Godspeed.

Mr. Davison—Since your coming to us over seven years ago, our Church, under your leadership, has grown and prospered in every department. From the new-born infants to the aged and infirm, all have been privileged to come under your loving care and watchful eye. Some of us who came as strangers from other towns and provinces have found in you a friend and received a warm welcome—and you have done your utmost to interest us in various activities of the Church life.

To our families who have experienced sickness, trouble or death, you have been a true shepherd; ministering, advising and comforting, and so through such experiences our load has been lightened.

We regret that circumstances beyond your control, caused you to decide to terminate your Pastorate with us. We would wish it otherwise but accept it as God's will—remembering that, "All things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose." Our Church has made important progress under your able and consecrated leadership, and we believe that we are all better Christians for having been privileged to be associated with you.

Mrs. Davison—you have been an ideal "Minister's Wife"—kind, friendly and courteous to all, maintaining in the parsonage at all times a homelike atmosphere where visitors were always welcome, and your pleasing personality and musical talents have contributed greatly to the social and musical life of the Church. For these, along with your many other Christian qualities—you will be missed.

Your children, Judith, Fred, Jonathan and little Patricia, have also found their way into our hearts—and so you have together shown us a perfect example of Christian family life.

As a token of our love, esteem and goodwill, we ask you to accept these gifts from your many friends of the Church and Congregation. May God bless you and yours wherever He may lead you. You may be sure that our thoughts and prayers will be with you always.

Exports of Canadian Coarse Grains Up. OTTAWA — (CP) — Exports of Canadian coarse grains climbed to an all-time high of 143,200,000 bushels in the first nine months of the current crop year.

Shipments exceeded by eight per cent of the previous high of 132,800,000 bushels in the similar period last year, the bureau of statistics reported Monday.

of substances capable of stopping tubercle bacilli growth." But the vast majority of such substances are far too toxic to use in treatment of humans. Another stumbling block is the apparent ability of TB infection to develop immunity to counteracting agents like terramycin and streptomycin.

"Our best hope for a really successful chemotherapeutic treatment of tuberculosis is firstly the discovery of a practicable method for the very early detection of the first infection, and secondly the discovery of a substance, or combination of substances, of great power against the tubercle bacilli but with relatively little toxicity to the animal body," he said.

Sir Howard, a native of Australia was chosen to present the Lister address in recognition of his outstanding work in developing uses for penicillin several years after the antibiotic was discovered by Sir Alexander Fleming of Britain.

The address, sponsored by the CMA, honors the memory of the late Lord Lister, British surgeon and discoverer of the antiseptic system of treatment which revolutionized modern surgery.

OUTLINES ANTI-TB FIGHT. Sir Howard, a co-winner of the 1945 Nobel Prize in physiology and medicine, outlined experiments which he and other British medical scientists have carried out in a continuing search for agents to combat tuberculosis.

Using colored slides, he showed how experiments with substances derived from synthetic chemical and micro-organisms such as fungi had revealed "literally thousands

Window Display Tells Story Of A Diamond Ring

An unusual and very interesting window display at Taylors Jewellers shows the various steps in the manufacture of a diamond ring. The "Story of a Diamond Ring" shows each step in the centrifugal gold casting process starting with the designer's sketch as it is created on paper then given to the model maker, then the process of vulcanizing the rubber mould is described. There are displayed the various waxes, flask, investment compound as well as the types of gold used. The latter are 24k pure gold, 18k white gold and 14k yellow gold.

This display will give the viewer some idea of the time and effort that the craftsman gives to produce a diamond ring which is truly "Beauty Everlasting." Make it a point to see this fine display in Taylors Jewellers show window soon.

NO COMMENT, JUST TOURISTS. TORONTO (CP)—A group of seven Russian psychologists is visiting Toronto before returning home from the 14th world international congress of psychology at Montreal. "We are just tourists," said leader professor Alexander Leontiev when they arrived here today. "We want to see Niagara Falls. We don't want to comment on international matters."

LUMBER OPERATOR FINED. HEARST, Ont. (CP)—A Hearst lumber operator and one of his sons were convicted Tuesday on five charges each of dismissing men from their employ for the sole reason that they belonged to a union. Henry Selin was fined $20 and costs on each of the five charges. His son, Clifford, jointly charged with his father, was also convicted of the offences and was placed on suspended sentence for one year.

Seek Preservation Of Woodlots

MONTREAL (CP)—Eight Canadian pulp and paper companies are contributing a total of $58,000 toward a joint effort with Macdonald College to preserve Canada's dwindling woodlots. President F. Cyril James of McGill University announced Wednesday. The companies, together with private individuals, have made possible the establishment of an instructorship in woodlot management. There will be a field research centre at Macdonald College, in nearby Ste. Anne's Bay, where a part of the college's 2,000 acres will be given over to a great outdoor laboratory.

All students in the agriculture diploma courses will be given instruction in woodlot management, and the subject will be optional for degree students.
