RCMP Working On Break Into Store

In the Police Court yesterday Chief of Police McCarthur requested that the case of an accused charged with breaking and entry be further adjourned for one week, as the evidence to be presented depended a great deal on results of work being done by the R.C.M.P. the case being heard by Magistrate K.M. Martin arose out of a break and entry of the store of T.L. Smith, Cumberland Street, July 1st. The chief explained to the magistrate that the Mounted Police were not yet prepared to go ahead and that a week would be sufficient for their needs. Also on the docket, two motorcyclists charged with failing to stop at a red light were each fined five dollars and costs or two days. In dealing with the foregoing Magistrate Martin said the motorcyclists of the City were behaving a great deal better than in previous years. In an action for summary ejection, judgement was given in favour of the plaintiff.

MR. J. J. ENMAN
VETERAN NEWSMAN

Visiting Charlottetown for a few days is Mr. J. J. Enman, former editor of the Summerside Journal and still a regular contributor to its columns. Mr. Enman is the oldest practicing journalist in the Province, having worked on several papers in Charlottetown in the early years of the century before removing to the Prince County Capital. Still hale and hearty, he was a welcome visitor yesterday to The Guardian office, where he expressed warm appreciation of the new plant facilities.

LEGION EXECUTIVE HONORS DEPARTING MEMBER

The executive members of the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion accompanied by their wives and girl friends met in the Clover Club on Tuesday evening to do honor to one of their members, namely Jack Leightizer and his wife, Eva, who are soon to leave the Province to take up residence in Halifax where Jack has accepted a position with Williams Stairs and Morrow Limited.

After the guests had assembled the President, Comrade V.J. Bowman, arose to read the following address to Mr. and Mrs. Leightizer, signed by all the members of the executive. He also presented a suitable token of remembrance to Jack and to Mrs. Leightizer a lovely bouquet of roses.

Dear Jack:
We are gathered here this evening to say farewell to a fellow executive member and our second vice president who is leaving our branch and our city to take up residence in Halifax. Myself for one will be sorry to see him leave as will the rest of the members of this organization. Jack, as we have known him: has done outstanding work for the Legion and this branch during the years he has been a member, and our loss in the Charlottetown Branch will certainly be a gain to any branch which he may join in Halifax.

This small token which I am going to present to him now will in some way show our thanks for a job well done.

To your lovely wife, Jack these flowers which I now give her will in some small way show our appreciation for the years we have known her.

To you both and your family

We wish you long life and good fortune in your new venture. Sincerely Yours, Victor J. Bowman, President, Vernon Larier, 1st Vice-President, Elric Campbell, Tony Gallant, Phil Hughes, Joe Hughes, Harry Mortimer, Pius Smith, Ivan Connors, Stan Bryant, George Barter, Frank Rush, Ewen Keefe, Loyola Murnaghan, Charles Sinclair, Leo, A. Doyle, Secretary, George Tule Jr.

Jack, though taken somewhat by surprise, made a fitting reply. He said he had always enjoyed his mark for the Legion and even though he was leaving this branch he would always remember it and would still be glad to be of whatever service he could.

A dainty lunch was served and a very enjoyable dance and social evening followed. The Legionaire's provided the music for the dance, with several of the local members—notably Comrade "Bill" Whelan—rendering several vocal selections which added greatly to the entertainment of all present.

Bulganin Promises Improved Conditions For Soviet Women

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Parliament cheered Wednesday a promise by Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin that the use of women for heavy labor in the Soviet Union will be abolished "in the near future."

The 1,300 deputies in the Supreme Soviet heard this pledge during a speech on a new pension bill recently announced by the council of ministers. Bulganin said heavy labor by women already had been greatly reduced.

Foreign tourists invariably remark with astonishment on the sight of Soviet women carrying bricks, paving streets, running steamrollers, manning cranes and doing much of the country's heavy unskilled work.

The promised emancipation of the women from this sort of work will arouse much comment intrigued by a campaign to downgrade Stalin. But in this respect Premier Bulganin voiced a note of caution. Without mentioning the late dictator by name, Bulganin denounced those who might seek to take advantage of the campaign against the "cult of personality," adding that "the working masses of the Soviet Union and all progressive humanity know the correctness of our policy."

Funeral Yesterday Of Former City Councillor

The funeral of the late George W. Macleod was held from Zion Presbyterian Church on Wednesday.

Mr. Macleod was born March 5th, 1876, in Milton, P.E.I., son of the late Murdoch Macleod and Jane Finney. He was educated at Springvale School and Prince of Wales College, and taught school for several years in Hampshire and Spring Park. He moved to Charlottetown in 1901, and was employed with the Portland Packing Co. as accountant and then later as manager, until 1943, when he retired.

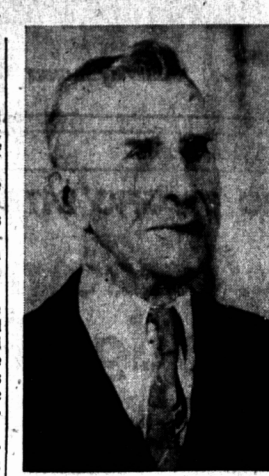

Mr. Macleod was very active in all civic affairs, having served several terms on the City Council as Chairman of Finance, Police and Fire Departments. He was also a member of the Masonic Order, Independent Order of Odd-fellows, and Orange Association.

He was one of the oldest members of Zion Church. Ordained an Elder in 1926, at the time of his passing he was senior elder. He was a valued Trustee for years, and served as Treasurer for the past ten years.

Mr. Macleod leaves to mourn his widow, Mary S. Johnston, and the following sons and daughters: Adele (Mrs. J.W. Webster) Saskatoon; Leith, retired Postal Inspector; Clarence in Portland, Maine; Harold, Saskatoon; Fred, Manitow, Ont., and Doris at home. Also two sisters, Florence, Charlottetown, and Nancy of Boston, and a brother Fred of Cranston, Rhode Island.

Rev. W.H. Brown conducted the funeral service, assisted by Rev. T.H.B. Somers. Mr. Brown took as his text, the last verse of the book of Daniel "But go thou thy way till the end be; for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days." Mrs. Barbara Roper sang very acceptably. "The equal to $2.40 a person.

THE LATE MR. MACLEOD

Old Rugged Cross," one of Mr. Macleod's favorite hymns. The Mayor, City Clerk and Councillors, Police and members of the Fire Department attended the service in a body.

The Session and members of the board of Trustees of Zion Church acted as honorary pall bearers. Active pall bearers were Messrs. E.A. Cudmore, George H. Douglas, William Hill and G. Reginald MacNutt. Interment was at the family plot in Brookfield Cemetery.

LOTTERY PROFIT
Profit from New South Wales state lotteries in Australia in the 955 fiscal year was $8,320,000, equal to $2.40 a person.
