Christmas At St. Vincent's Orphanage

Once more the beautiful feast of Christmas was duly observed at St. Vincent's Orphanage with the celebration of Mass at midnight by Reverend George A. MacDonald, The little chapel, fittingly decorated with evergreens, and the Christmas Orib made a perfect setting for the Prince of Peace who came to give Himself to all assembled in His honor.

The Reverend Celebrant spoke most inspiringly of the exchange of gifts at this birthday feast reminding those present of the excellence of their return gift — a soul in sanctifying grace. Again on Christmas morning the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was offered by Reverend Charles MacDonald, at which, as well as at midnight Mass, the carols sung by the children in their midst.

After a sumptuous breakfast the children proceeded to open their Christmas gifts and empty their stockings. This year a new surprise, the charity and kindness of individuals, groups and societies throughout the Island. Space would scarcely permit the naming of each individual gift and giver but surely each is recorded in the Book of Life and the donors blessed for their thoughtfulness.

Outstanding monetary donations were received from many individuals and from the following groups:

The Women's Auxiliary R.C.A.F. Station, Summerside. The Charlottetown Sub-division C. W. L. The George Rogers Estate, Charlottetown.

The O'Connell Picnic Fund. The Parishioners, R. C. A. F. Station, Summerside. The Canadian Legion, Charlottetown and Summerside. The Intercolonial Club of Boston.

Generous gifts in kind were received from the Women's Institutes in almost every part of the Province and from the different subdivisions of the Catholic Women's Leagues, from the Business firms in Charlottetown and outside the city, from various Parishes and school groups.

A gift that has given many hours of merriment already and promises many more such hours in the future is the house-hockey game donated by the Life Underwriters of Prince Edward Island. The usual contribution of knitted garments from the parishioners of Egmont Bay and Mont Carmel was also deeply appreciated.

Among the events arranged for the enjoyment of the children may be mentioned the Girl Guides' Turkey Supper at Parkdale, the Notre Dame Academy concert and luncheon, the visit of Santa arranged by Holman's Ltd., the show on the life of a great hockey player, arranged by the management of Capitol Theatre, and the children's concert and turkey supper at Mount Herbert Orphanage.

A yearly event joyfully awaited is the visit of a group of St. Dunstan's students before their departure for the Christmas holidays. A most generous gesture on the part of the student body is the providing of the Christmas and New Year's dinners for the children.

May the true spirit of Christian Charity and good will remain throughout the new year with all those who have brought so much happiness to those who do not have the blessing of home and fireside.
