NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Special Dispatch to the Examiner.

OTTAWA, April 10.

Mr. Tilley, in concluding the debate on the budget, said Mr. Galt was not in England when he floated the loan, and that when in New York and Washington he did not see Mr. Galt, nor had the latter anything to do with framing the Tariff.

Mr. Burpee, St. John, called attention to the fact that duties in 1878 were only 13 1/2 per cent., while the return laid before the House for six months of the current year was over 19 1/2 per cent., making an addition of taxation of imports had they been the same as 1878, of $6,500,000.

Mr. Mackenzie made a brief reply to some of Mr. Tilley's points. The House went into Committee, and adjourned at 3.20.

LONDON, April 10.

John Somerset Pakington, Lord Hampton, is dead. He was in his 82nd year.

The Times says the Queen is expected to arrive in England by the end of next week. We may therefore expect that a very few days will see the formal close of Lord Beaconsfield's administration.

The Daily News says the results already achieved insure a Liberal majority in the next Parliament of at least 80, independent of Home Rulers.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Times telegraphs that the elections in England have produced on all classes a profound impression, and at the Palace almost a panic.

The Income Tax.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—A writer in Thursday's EXAMINER, over the signature of "Prudentia," takes objection to my remarks on the income tax. I said that in England it was regarded as a war tax, and was levied only in cases of great national emergency.

From the long experience of Mr. Maynard in one of the leading establishments in Halifax, they have no hesitation, at the commencement of their Spring Work, in promising to their customers entire satisfaction.
