

Nobody's Song

I'm thinking just now of Nobody
And all that Nobody's done,
For I've a passion for Nobody
That nobody else would own.
I bear the name of Nobody,
For from Nobody I sprung;
And I sing the praise of Nobody,
As Nobody mine has sung.

In life's young morning Nobody
To me was tender and dear,
And my cradle was rocked by Nobody,
And Nobody ever was near.
I was petted and praised by Nobody,
And Nobody brought me up,
And when I was hungry Nobody
Gave me to dine or sup.

I went to school with Nobody,
And Nobody taught me to read;
I played in the street with Nobody,
And to Nobody ever gave heed.
I recounted my tale to Nobody,
For Nobody was willing to hear,
And my heart it clung to Nobody,
And Nobody shed a tear.

And when I grew older Nobody
Gave me a helping turn,
And by the good aid of Nobody
I began my living to earn;
And hence I courted Nobody,
And said Nobody's I'd be,
And asked to marry Nobody,
And Nobody married me.

Thus I trudged along with Nobody,
And Nobody cheers my life;
I have a love for Nobody
Which Nobody has for his wife.
So here's a health for Nobody,
For "Nobody's now in town,"
And I've a passion for Nobody
That Nobody else would own.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A little Michigan girl lost her kitten and thus advertised it: "Lost—Maltese cat; green eyes; very slender; a sweet growl; goes by the name of Lady Jane Grey, or Mussum Gay; belongs to Lilian Gold. A suitable reward will be given." Tain't every cat that has a sweet growl.

The reconstructed Manitoba Government seems likely to command, for a while at least, a majority of six in the Manitoban Legislature. As the Legislature, when full, contains only 24 members the majority is a comparatively large one. All the measures proposed by the new administration seem likely to become law. The result will be somewhat revolutionary.

The Russian army is to undergo an important transformation in pursuance of a recent Imperial edict. There are in Russia 140 regiments of infantry, each consisting of three battalions, subdivided into five companies. Now each regiment is to consist of four battalions subdivided into four companies. This measure increases the Russian army by 20,000 men in time of peace, and by a 130,000 men in time of war. The reorganization of the army is to begin at once, and must be pushed on rapidly.

It will be just eighteen hundred years next fall since Herculaneum, Pompeii and some other cities and towns were engulfed by the terribly destructive eruption of Mount Vesuvius, in which Pliny, the illustrious naturalist, lost his life. The directors of excavations at Pompeii have formed the project of celebrating the anniversary by a scientific fête in the month of November. Several distinguished archeologists of Italy have been invited, and it is probably that the invitation will be extended to the savants of other lands.

The Princess Louise has made the most of the long Canadian winter in the pursuit of art study. She has attempted bolder flights than satisfied her when she lived within the circumscribed limits of these islands, albeit they include the county of Argyll. Her Royal Highness, attracted by the manifold beauty of Canadian timber, conceived the idea of making a mantel-piece, of simple but beautiful design, inlaid with a variety of wood. This was nearly finished at the despatch of the last mail, and the Duke of Argyll expects to admire it a good deal.—London World.

Different opinions have been expressed as to the policy of removing the colored people in such large numbers from the South. On the whole, the owners of plantations, as might be expected, are opposed to it, and forebode serious disorganization of labor and loss to the country as among its consequences. The New Orleans Times says on the subject:—"We assert, upon the authority of the past history and the present situation of Louisiana, that African labor is best adapted to our crops and climate; that the present supply of field labor is insufficient for the developments of the agricultural capacities of the State; that all attempts heretofore to import free white laborers into Louisiana have failed to effect that object, and to allow the present inadequate supply of field labor to quit the State without making all proper efforts to retain it, would expose the city and State to the danger of an impaired production, which, with existing financial embarrassments, would effectually destroy the present business generation of merchants and planters."

AROMATIC MONTSERRAT QUININE CORDIAL

which is a combination of Pure Quinine, with Lime Fruit Juice, cordialised by the addition of Aromatics, but ENTIRELY FREE FROM ALCOHOL.

Upon the medicinal virtues of Lime Juice and Quinine it is unnecessary to dilate. The combination of two agents of such universally acknowledged value, in at once a palatable and innocuous form, has been a desideratum long sought, but only now successfully accomplished; for although the Tonic qualities of Quinine have been popularised in the form of QUININE WINE, it is well known these combinations have been attended with serious evils consequent upon the Alcoholic Stimulants they all contain, at once prejudicial to health and demoralising in their tendency.

Aromatic Montserrat Quinine Cordial is guaranteed to contain one grain of Quinine in each wineglassful, and to be entirely free from alcohol, being prepared solely from the Montserrat Lime Fruit Juice combined with Aromatics.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy
CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—
"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long,
I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.
A sense of duty to sufferers from that loath-some disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper.
Yours truly,
W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister.
