

Dissection of the human beard...

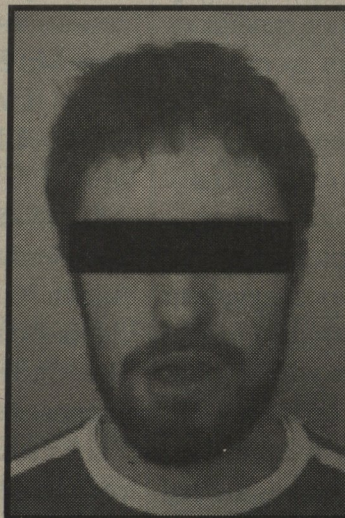

The Castro - Want to look like everyone's favorite Cuban baseball player/dictator? Now you can! (Note: the Camo hat is essential)

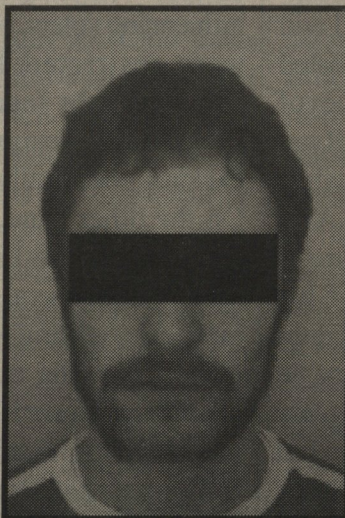

The Goté - A new favorite for men of all ages. good for keeping you lips and chin warm but the cheek kissable. popular with serial killers.

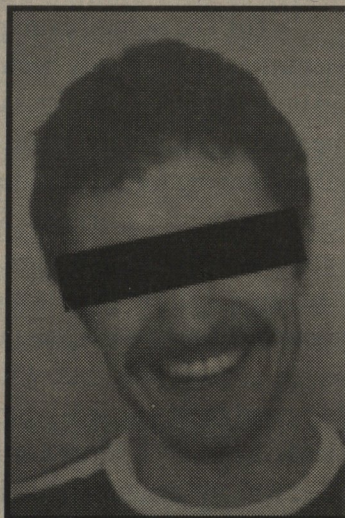

The "I try to grow facial hair to be cool like all the other guys but this is all I got." - Enough said.

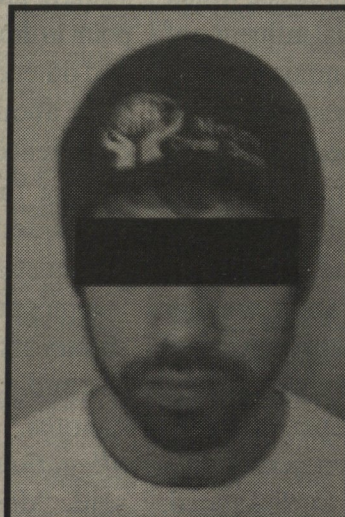

The "I don't give a shit." - Much like "The Castro", only with two hours sleep and no hat. Generally found on the homeless and University professors.

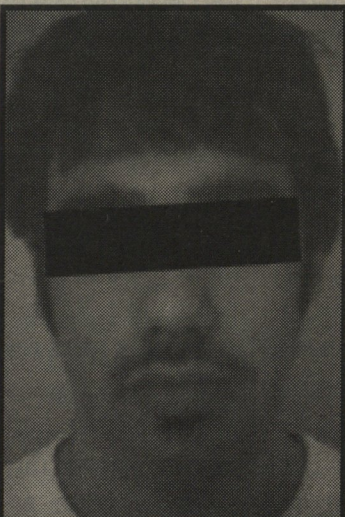

The Round-About - This bad boy deserves a double take. Not quite a full beard... a step up from the "Theory of a Deadman." Not very common, but often envied.

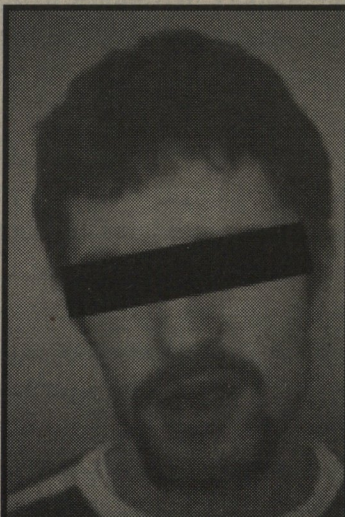

The Tom Selleck - Also known as "The State Trooper." Works best with a red sports car and a hairy chest."

The Playoffs - He shoots, he scores! Pretty much the same as the "I Don't Give a Shit" and "The Castro," only during hockey playoffs. (Touque and sweatpants required.)

The Sassy Frenchman - C'est beau! Probably the grossest thing you can voluntarily put on your face. Oui oui!

The Theory of a Deadman - Inspired by what is possibly the greatest-ever Canadian band. This stash will drive all the ladies wild.
