Mary Marlene Gallant Weds James D. Currie

St. Paul's Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding recently, when Mary Marlene Gallant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gallant, became the bride of James D. Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Currie of Sydney, N.S. Rev. Justin MacDonald performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Irene Peters was organist and accompanied Miss Eleanor Peters, who sang appropriate hymns during the Nuptial Mass and the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her floor length wedding gown of white net over satin, worn over crinoline, featuring long sleeves forming little points over the hands, a fitted bodice and round neckline. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a crown with sequin and pearl trim. She carried a lace covered Missal

Following the ceremony a reception for fifty guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallant, uncle and aunt of the bride. The bride's table with its attractive decorations of daffodils and tulips, was centred with a three tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Gallant chose for her daughter's wedding a blue and grey print dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. For the honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia, the bride changed to a blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. They will reside in Summerside where the groom is at the R.C.A.F. Station.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gosbee, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McMullin, Mr. James MacNeill, John Currie, Francis Currie, Catherine Currie and Christine MacLean of Sydney, N.S.
