Adjutant General's Office,

December 29, 1866.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

THE following REGULATIONS relative to the issue of Ammunition are published for the information of the Volunteer Militia.

Ball and Blank Ammunition in such quantities as may be deemed sufficient will be issued to such Companies of Volunteer Militia as may be reported perfect in the Platoon Exercise and preliminary drill, when they will be put through a course of Target practice under regular Instructors.

Officers are requested to make themselves competent to carry on this duty.

Ball Ammunition may be issued, on payment, on the following requisition and certificate:

Company of Volunteer Militia.
Dated this                      day of                      186 .

Required for the use of the above Company, on payment, rounds of Ball Ammunition.

I certify upon honor that the above ammunition is intended solely for the use of the Company under my command, and that the whole of it will be expended under my personal superintendance, and that every precaution will be taken in the selection of ranges to guard the public from danger.

Commanding                      Captain.
Company.

Approved.                      I. F. O. Militia.

A return of all ammunition issued on payment or otherwise will be sent in monthly for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, naming the recipient Companies.

In case of payment the amount will be credited in the monthly account.

Issues will be made only on Market days, and, as the Magazine cannot be entered at all hours, requisitions must be sent in for sanction before 12 o'clock.

By Order,
(Signed)                      P. D. STEWART,
Lieut. Col. & Adj. Gen. of Militia.
