Local and Other Items.

CROWDED OUT.—Varia, correspondence, local news, etc., crowded out of to-day's issue.

I. O. O. F.—There is a prospect of a canon (the military branch of the order) being instituted in Charlottetown the coming summer.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—On Thursday evening next St. Lawrence Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F., will pay a fraternal visit to Wilsey Lodge. An enjoyable time is anticipated.

Y. M. C. A.—Gospel meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Address by Rev. S. Weston Jones. Subject: "The Jordan Crossed," Joshua 3.

HOOK AND LADDER.—A special meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company will be held to-night at half-past seven. A full attendance is requested.—William H. Boyle, Secy.

CURLING.—There will be a curling match this evening—Lawyers vs. All-comers. The Lawyers will be to the fore and hope the All-comers will be present in force to meet them at 7.30 p. m.

TREES BUDDING.—There was cut at the Junction, this morning, a limb from a willow tree, on which the buds were sprouting out. How is that for Prince Edward Island on the 19th day of January!

ABILITY RECOGNIZED.—The latest issue of The Canterbury Post, entitled "Poems of Wild Life," publishes extracts from "De Roberval," by Col. J. Hunter Duvar, Inspector of Fisheries for this Province.

METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. J. Read will preach in Summerside to-morrow, and the pulpit of the Methodist Brick Church in this city will be occupied by Rev. Mr. Harrison at 11 a. m., and Rev. Mr. Palmer, of Summerside, at 7 p. m.

ICEBOATS.—Eight boats, for winter service at the Capes, have been put in order, newly painted, and made ready for use. Mr. John Gaffney returned to town this forenoon, having put upon them the finishing touches. Three new boats are being built at Crapaud.

RAILWAY GOSPEL MEETING.—Don't forget this meeting, held in McLeod's Hall every Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Open to all. Strangers always welcome. Lesson for to-morrow:—1st John, 2:1: "If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous"

FIRE.—About half-past ten this forenoon the alarm sounded for a slight blaze in a bedroom of the "Farmers' Home," Great George Street, a mattress having taken fire. There was a general turnout of the firemen, but their services were not required owing to the prompt action of those early on the scene.

"I once had the pleasure—if pleasure you may call it—of reading my own obituary," said Harvey McKenna, the great billiardist. "I was in Florida in bad health, to be sure, and George Burbridge wrote to the Sporting Life saying he never expected to see me alive again. Some papers took it up and soon had me dead and buried. Of course they all said something good of me, but here I am, about as lively as ever.—Atlanta Constitution.

SCOTT ACT STATISTICS.—From the 1st January to the 31st December, 1888, there were 79 convictions for violation of the Canada Temperance Act, against 60 for the same period in the previous year. In 1887, 161 cases were adjudicated upon, and in 1888, 190. In 1887, the amount collected in fines was $1,950, in 1888, $1,389.30. In 1888, there were 26 offenders committed to jail, against 16 in 1887. There were 262 convictions for drunkenness, in 1888, and 224 in 1887—an increase of 38.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—Judge Wattle of Montreal, recently dismissed the case of Bordreau vs. the city of Montreal for $1,000 damages. The plaintiff's daughter was vaccinated by Doctor Bessey, corporation vaccinator, in May, 1885, and it was alleged that the vaccine was bad and that the girl's health was injured in consequence. The Judge held that the authorities were justified in entering the house and vaccinating the inmates when the public interest and public health required it. Dr. Bessey had acted according to the rules of the act, and the vaccine had been shown to be good.

ALL ABOUT LIQUOR.—Two men at Hunter River had a row over some liquor on New Year's night. The dispute ended in one of the men being beaten with a sleigh stake, and so badly injured that he was laid up for about a fortnight. So soon as the injured man recovered, he set about "getting square" with his assailant. Last night the two men met again, and this time the winner of the first battle was vanquished, coming out of the encounter with a badly broken nose.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Civic Matters.

SIR,—Among other statements of more than ordinary importance, we find in the Mayor's report the fact, That the Finance Committee were authorized to sell at public auction City properties valued as follows: Engine House, Grafton Street, valued at $2,000; Four building lots, head Queen Street, valued at $1,103.75. Total valuation, $3,103.75. The sale took place accordingly, and the above properties only realized the total sum of $1,635, showing a loss to the city of $1,468.75, to which might be added expenses connected with the sale, such as "auctioneer's commission," $25, etc. The valuation of this property must have been a huge farce, or the sale a terrible failure.

This transaction, like that of the sale of two valuable city horses for the small sum of $225, reflects no credit on the "careful management" of the Finance Committee.

Yours, TAXPAYER.

Irish News Notes.

Archbishop Croke has donated £50 to the fund for the relief of evicted tenants. In his letter, accompanying the donation, the Archbishop says: "There is no other land, savage or civilized, where such scandalous and unchristianlike scenes could be enacted without a fierce contest and even bloodshed. The sending of crown forces to demolish the dwellings of the poor for the benefit of the pampered few, is a crime that cries to Heaven for vengeance."

During the charge of police at Waterford, upon the crowd which was accompanying the persons who had been sentenced for participating in the Manchester Martyrs' demonstrations, a police inspector and fourteen constables were injured.

John O'Connor, M. P. for South Tipperary, against whom a warrant was issued for offences under the Crimes Act, has been arrested at Charleston. Upon the resumption of the session of the Parnell Commission, on the 16th inst., President Justice Hannan said William O'Brien's article in the United Ireland, for which he was summoned to appear before the court, exceeded a fair discussion of the case under investigation, but admitted that there was some force in O'Brien's argument regarding the continued circulation of the Times pamphlet, and said he believed no disrespect was intended to be shown towards the court by the article. Therefore he would not punish O'Brien. He added, however, "that in future cases of a similar nature would be more severely treated."

Personal.

Col. Worsely, D.A.G., who has been in the city for some days past on business connected with the transferring of the militia stores from the acting keeper to Major Doherty, recently appointed store-keeper, left en route for Halifax last night.

James J. DeWolfe, Baptist clergyman at Hampton Village, N. B., died on the 15th, after a months illness. He was a native of Wolfville, Nova Scotia, and has labored chiefly in that province and Prince Edward Island, arriving at Hampton last June. He leaves a widow and one child. Rev. E. Whitman, the popular pastor of the Baptist Church in this city for the past seven years, leaves here next week for his new field of labor near Chicago, Ill. We are sorry to lose such an estimable citizen and eloquent preacher, and heartily wish him prosperity in the neighboring Republic.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. (April 1 '88)

Gentlemen Electors of Ward Four.

As it was unexpected, until Mr. Riggs nominated yesterday, that there would be an election in your Ward, I did not deem it necessary to make a personal canvass, which the time at my disposal now prevents. I now respectfully ask your support on election day, and assure you that if elected I shall do my utmost to forward your interests and that of the City generally. I am, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant, HENRY DAVISON. Jan17-11 23rd pd
