

Bristol and Vicinity

Mr. Coyle, post office inspector, was here on Tuesday on a regular inspection trip.

The work of widening the south end of Byrnes road was started on Tuesday when two monster machines and crews arrived here. The north section was done two years ago.

New barns have been built on many of the farm places here for the last five years and several lovely new ones have been erected. Right now Mr. George McKenzie has most of the frame of his new and much-needed barn up and is building in the right way on a solid cement foundation. Being a carpenter he will boss the job himself and along with the boys will do most of the work building.

Rev. P. P. Aylward, S. D. U., celebrated Mass at both churches here on Sunday in the absence of Father Sinnott, who was called away during the week. Father Sinnott came here to replace the regular pastor who has been ill for two months. Father Sinnott has returned to his lecture tour where he will be around again during the summer vacation season.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Aylward were here from the city on Tuesday to get things in order around their home. They have been in the city all winter but plan to come back soon.

One big farmer here who has kept a yard full of hens informs us he has cut his flock to a dozen owing to the extreme low price for eggs that won't pay for the feed they eat.

A monster muskrat was killed on the highway near the post office here last week and the mystery is what caused the big water rat to leave his quarters in the brook and marsh 50 yards away. It must have been the smell of fish on the highway dropped from a truck.

Mr. Vincent Coffin has resumed his duties on one of the dredges for the season after the winter lay-off period.

Mr. George Barry, who served for some time on one of the car ferries at Borden last year, has been recalled and returned to work. His wife and family remain here.

My Mother's Shadow

Last night
When lamps were lit
I saw
A shadow flit
Across the room.

And when,
At last, it fell
Across
My book,—a well
Of joy sprang up

And made
My heart rejoice,—
For then
My ears drank gold—
My Mother's
Low, sweet voice

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Sudden Heart Attack Cripples Young Father

Gets $150 a Month And Free Insurance!

In 1949, a young Montreal sales manager suffered a severe heart attack. He has been totally disabled ever since. He has a $15,000 Confederation Life policy that carries a Total Disability Benefit. As a result, he receives a regular monthly cheque for $150 while totally disabled, until he reaches age 65—his $15,000 life insurance policy continues in full force and Confederation pays the premiums! If he is still disabled at age 65 he will receive $15,000 in cash or as income.

At any age, for any number of causes, you may suddenly find yourself totally disabled. That's why you would be wise to include a Total Disability Benefit in your life insurance, wherever possible. Ask your Confederation Man about it today!
