"THE ASPHALT JUNGLE"
YEAR'S HIT THRILLER

—Seven men meet their fate in M-G-M's gripping new drama, "The Asphalt Jungle," outstanding attraction on the Capitol screen today.

Directed by John Huston, winner of two 1949 Academy Awards, this realistic, pulse-pounding story of crime and punishment holds a relentless grip on the spectator. It is told in brilliantly conceived camera terms and offers an unforgettable group of underworld characterizations in depicting the seven men who hold life and freedom cheap in their desperate quest for easy money.

Sam Jaffe enacts the notorious jewel thief who interests slick criminal lawyer Louis Calhern in a master-mind million-dollar robbery to take place in a large Midwestern City. Jaffe and his accomplices, small-time stick-up artist Sterling Hayden and wily, hunchbacked James Whitmore, together with a sniveling bookie and an underworld genius at safe-cracking, plan and execute the daring robbery.
