Browns Trip Eagles; St. Louis Still Alive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cleveland whipped Philadelphia 38-24 Sunday and moved to within one game of clinching the National Football League's Eastern Conference title.

A Cleveland victory of a St. Louis loss nextweek would give the Browns their first sectional crown since 1957. The Cardinals remained alive in the race by edging Pittsburgh 21-20.

In the West, Baltimore, which sewed up the title last week, won its 11th straight game 14-3 over San Francisco.

The Browns' defense won the game for them, scoring three touchdowns in the first half

Roger Shoals recovered a Philadelphia fumble of the opening kickoff in the end zone, Sid Williams blocked an Eagle punt and recovered the ball for a touchdown and Jim Houston raced 42 yards with an intercepted pass for a score.

RYAN ADDS TDS

Frank Ryan added two touchdown passes for Cleveland while Norm Snead threw two for Philadelphia.

The Cardinals came from behind with two fourth-quarter touchdowns after the Steelers had built a 20-7 lead. After Charley Johnson hit Jackie Smith with a 42-yard scoring pass, Pat Fischer scooped up a Steeler fumble and dashed 49 yards for the tying touchdown. Jim Bakken booted the winning extra point.

Lenny Moore scored a touchdown for the 15th consecutive game in Baltimore's triumph. Moore smashed across from the two-yard line where Lou Michaels had recovered John Brodie's fumble the play before.

Johnny Unitas hit Ray Berry with a 35-yard pass for the Colts' other score. The 49ers Tommy Davis kicked a 19-yard field goal.

Minnesota crushed Los Angeles 34-13 in five - degree weather. The Vikings actually won the game in the first half as Fran Tarkenton flipped two touchdown passes and Fred Cox added two extra points and a field goal.

Sonny Jurgensen fired four scoring aerials, leading Washington to a 36-21 triumph over hapless New York. Bobby Mitcell caught two of the passes while rookie Paul Krause intercepted two more passes, giving him a league record of intercepting passes in seven straight games.

Green Bay swamped Dallas 45-21 behind Bart Starr's passing and an alert defence. Starr tossed three scoring passes Henry Jordan raced 60 yards with a fumble and Lionel Aldridge ran 29 with a Cowboy bobble, both for touchdowns.

In the American League, Boston downed Houston 34-17; Oakland and Denver tied 20-20 and New York whipped Kansas City 27-14.

Tracadie Tops Vernon River

In a game played in the CYO Hockey League Tracadie dumped Vernon River to the tune of 11-4.

The scoring star of the game was MacQuaid of Tracadie who spoted six goals. Also scoring for Tracadie were Walsh and Kelly with two and Powell. Scoring for the Vernon River team was lead by Hines with two markers while Gill and Doyle added a goal each.

Unbeaten Eagles Trip Juniors

SUMMERSIDE — The Summerside Junior Legionnaires almost knocked off the RCAF Eagles at the Air Base yesterday.

The hard skating Legionnaires stayed with the unbeaten Eagles for the first period at 3-3 but eventually yielded 8-3. The high flying Eagles now have a 5-0 Prince County Hockey League record, six points ahead of second place Borden. The Juniors are 1-4.

Once again it was the veteran Tony Licari who powered the Eagles, scoring the hat trick. Licari playing defence this game, bagged a goal in each period. Teammates 'Marty' Martin and Ray Prang each scored a pair.

Alan Gaudet, the fast Legionnaire forward and league leading goal scorer represented the entire Legionnaire output scoring three first period goals.

Held to the first period tie, the Airmen added three more goals in a fast second, on markers by Licari, Martin and Prang.

Licari and Prank completed the scoring in the penalty infested third period with goals at 1:20 and 3:05 respectively.

Clair Returns To Ottawa; Accepts 3 Year Contract

TORONTO (CP)—Frank Clair turned down the head coaching job with Toronto Argonauts and the most lucrative contract in Canadian football history. He decided Saturday to stick with Ottawa Rough Riders.

The 48-year-old Clair accepted a new three-year Ottawa contract after the Toronto Eastern Football Conference club refused to meet his conditions for complete authority over players.

The Argos' offer was reported to be at least $25,000 a year plus bonuses in a four-year deal.

Clair's new pact with the Riders he has coached since 1956 calls for an estimated $20,000 a year, plus bonuses that could earn him up to $25,000.

Clair came to terms after a meeting with general manager Red O'Quinn and several club directors. Although the coach had one year to go on his old five-year contract, they gave him permission to negotiate with Argos but set a 10 a.m. Saturday deadline for him to agree to Ottawa's terms.

DIRECTORS SPLIT

There was a split among the directors to retain Clair. Club president Barry O'Brien said one director disapproved and there was speculation it was the veteran Jim McCaffrey, a former president and general manager, who left the meeting early.

Cliar and O'Brien apparently tried to dispel reports over the amount of authority Clair has in running the Riders. Clair's negotiations with managing director Lew Hayman of Argos zroke down Friday over this issue with Clair demanding complete control.

O'Brien said it was not correct that Clair has complete autonomy over the signing or releasing of players and Clair agreed.

"I always consult with the owners or manager," Clair told reporters. "We've never had a problem."

Clair, however, said Friday in discussing the reasons why he turned down the Toronto offer said that Argos refused to give him the same control he had in Ottawa.

Argos offered him the routine authority every coach has—discipline, recruiting, strategy—but refused to go along with a reported demand by Clair for the right to hire, fire, trade and release players without a veto by Hayman.

Clair, who coached Argos five years from 1950 to 1954, is also believed to have asked for authority to determine salaries and bonuses within a set budget.

Boxer Williams Shot By Police

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Cleveland Williams, 31, world-ranked heavyweight boxer, was shot and critically wounded early Sunday in a scuffle with a state highway patrolman.

Attendants at Houston's city-county hospital described Williams' condition as extremely critical. The 31-year-old Negro boxer was in surgery from 1 a.m. until 7:45 a.m. He was shot in the stomach.

Patrolman Dale Witten said he arrested Williams on a highway eight miles north of Houston, on suspicion of drunk driving, and was taking him and a companion to jail at Tomball when the shooting occurred.

The patrolman said Williams was sitting, handcuffed, in the front seat of the patrol car. He said Williams threatened to jump out.

Witten said he opened the door and turned on the car's dome light and Williams lunged at him, reaching for the patrolman's pistol and a scuffle began.

Williams fell out of the car, and as the scuffle continued, the gun went off, Witten said.

Witten said the gun was still in his hands although Williams was trying to get it.

YELLED TO PAL

The patrolman said that during the scuffle, Williams yelled to his companion, Ned Warner, 33, for help, but that Warner did not get out of the car

Witten had cuts about his left eye and chin.

The patrolman said he gave chase after William's car when it passed him at an estimated speed of 80 miles an hour and almost forced the patrol car into the ditch.

Williams last week was picked by the World Boxing Association as the No. 2 contender for the world's heavyweight boxing championship. He was scheduled to enter an elimination series leading up to a heavyweight championship fight.

The WBA does not recognize Cassius Clay as world heavyweight champion.

College Player Draft Held By U.S. Pro Teams

NEW YORK (AP) — Power-running Tucker Frederickson of Auburn and pass-catching flash Larry Elkins of Baylor were the top selections as the two major U.S. professional football leagues staged their U.S. college player drafts Saturday.

Frederickson, a versatile 215-pounder, was picked No. 1 in the National Football League by New York Giants and promptly signed.

Houston Oilers named Elkins first in the American Football League draft, and the rangy flanker also was a first-round choice of Green Bay in the NFL.

Other first-round double selections, in addition to Elkins, were Gale Sayers, Kansas' fine runner; Tennessee lineman Steve de Long; quarterback Joe Namath of Alabama, and fullback Tom Nowatzke of Indiana.

Detroit Lions signed their first two choices, who also were selected in the AFL's first round. The Lions took Nowatzke and signed him away from New York Jets.

They signed their second-round choice, tackle Jerry Rush of Michigan state, two minutes after they picked him. Rush was the first-round choice of Boston Patriots

Sayers was taken in the first round by Chicago Bears of the NFL and Kansas City of the AFL; Delong by the Bears and San Diego, and Namath by St. Louis Cardinals and the Jets.

BEARS SIGN TRIO

The Bears, 1963 NFL champions but also-rans this year, had three choices in the first round through trades and came up with three sterling prospects, Sayers, Delong and Dick Butkus, Illinois' fierce linebacker.

Butkus, also named by Denver Broncos in the AFL's second round, is expected to be the object of the dollar battle shaping up between the two leagues, along with the other double draftees. The rich, 45-year-old NFL and the five-year-old AFL, backed by a bundle of televison cash, will go high for the good ones in what is a players' market.

The NFL first round went: Frederickson; fullback Ken Willard of North Carolina by San Francisco; Butkus (choice from Pittsburgh); Sayers; quarterback Craig Morton of California by Dallas Cowboys; Delong (choice from Washington); halfback Donny Anderson of Texas Tech by Green Bay (choice from Philadelphia); end Jack Snow of Notre Dame by Minnesota Vikings; halfback Clarence Williams of Washington State by Los Angeles Rams; Elkins; Nowatzke; Namath; defensive back George Donnelly of Illinois by San Francisco; and fullback-line-backer Mike Curtis of Duke,chosen and signed by Baltimore Colts.

The Rams signed Williams.

TRADE FOR RHOME

Houston, which had the first two picks in the AFL due to a trade with Denver, traded the second to New York Jets for the rights to Tulsapassing whiz Jerry Rhome, and the Jets named Namath. Rhome had been taken in last year's draft as a future.

After Elkins and Namath came, in order, Memphis State tackle Harry Schuh by Oakland Raiders, Nowatzke by New York, Savers by Kansas City, Delong by San Diego Charters, Michigan State tackle Jerry Rush by Boston Patriots and Ohio State tackle Jim Davidson by Buffalo Bills.

Davidson, visiting Buffalo with his wife, was signed by the Bills immediately.

Oakland signed its first choice, Schuh, along with fullback Gus Otto of Missouri, its fourth selection.

Among other top stars chosen were John Huarte, Notre Dame quarterback, by the Jets and Ron Caveness, Arkansas linebacker, by Kansas City in the AFL's second round; fullback Ernie Koy of Texas by Houston in the AFL's third round; and Virginia Tech quarterback Bob Schweikert by New York in the AFL's fourth round
