Beautiful Churches.

When God has array'd the forests and groves With splendor and beauty untold,

Why, then, should His Church be the only place Where this beauty we may not behold?

And why should our homes be adorned with art, With frescoes and ornaments fair,

But the House where we meet to worship Him, Be crude, and unsightly and bare?

And why should the lowliest walks be strewn With flowers of fragrance so sweet;

But His holy House be the only resort Where we must not consider them meet?

Since God, then, has made all nature so fair— Bright sunshine and cool shady bowers;

The glistening sea with its treasures unknown; Rich plumage, rare plants, and sweet flowers.

Why, then, should only His holy House, Which should be our joy and our pride, Receive less care, and be less adorned, Than the buildings wherein we reside?

'Tis dreary to enter the doors of a Church Where no beauty appeals to the eye,

For how can such place symbolical be Of those glorious mansions on high?

'Tis sweet to enter a beautiful Church, Adorn'd with splendor and grace;

For there we behold, though it be through a veil, The glory of God's blessed Face.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Reply to Judge Alley.

SIR,—In the WEEKLY EXAMINER of Oct. 14th I notice a contribution headed "Letter from Judge Alley." The Judge is under a mistake when he concludes that the statement respecting Captain John MacDonald, of the 84th Regiment, being asked if he would accept, or that he was offered, the Governorship of this Island, comes from the late Rev. Dr. MacDonald's lecture of 1881, which statement brought to my memory that I had learned many years before, viz. that when England and the United States were at war, the P. E. Island

(or Island of St. John's) as it was called then) Governor and Council informed Capt

John MacDonald of the 84th Regiment that if he did not at once pay the income tax on Township 36, proceedings would be taken to enforce it. Capt. John MacDonald sent a check on the army paymaster in England, which was refused or not accepted by the Island Government, saying it was not silver and that they would take nothing but silver or gold. Capt. John Prohibition Platform.

The Amherst Press gives the following as the platform of the prohibition party, adopted at the convention held in Amherst: 1st. We acknowledge our dependence upon the righteous ruler of the universe. 2nd. It is the recognized duty of the state to protect and conserve by law, the national welfare, health and morals of the people.

It is equally acknowledged that the liquor traffic works the greatest injury to all these interests of the individual, home and community. It is, therefore, a most evident right and duty of the state to prohibit this traffic, which is the greatest foe to those interests which the state is pledged to protect and conserve. 3rd.—With the great organized influence of the liquor interests in the old political parties we have no ground to hope that either will make prohibition a platform in the near future if at all. 4th. We fail to distinguish any distinct issue in principle between the existing political parties at all comparable with that of prohibition.

5th. We therefore declare the total suppression of the liquor traffic to be the chief splank of the platform on which we stand and believe it to form a political issue which claims the sympathy and political support of all good citizens, who have the highest welfare of the country at heart. 6th. We also affirm that as women now enjoy the franchise in municipal affairs, it is their right to have it extended to local and domain affairs also. 7th. We also recognize the fact that when the prohibition party shall have to assume the responsibilities of power, other issues affecting the welfare of the country will be considered. Until, however, this time has nearly come we do not consider it best to risk a division of prohibitionists by introducing these issues before they require immediate consideration. 7th. In the meantime our representatives in parliament are expected to give an independent support to all measures they consider for the best interests of the country.

Aztecs Massacred.

THIRTY EIGHT OF THEM, HOWEVER, FIRST KILLED 368 MEXICAN SOLDIERS.

An El Paso, Tex., despatch of the 27th ult. says: On Monday the inhabitants of the village of Temochie, in the mountains of Southeastern Chihuahua, Mexico, who are nearly pure Aztecs, were massacred by government troops. For more than a year they had been in open rebellion against the State and federal governments on account of excessive taxation, extortion by government officials and government interference in their religious belief.

CLIFTON WEST. "People said I would die!" A TERRIBLE CASE OF Blood Poisoning!

SKODA VICTORIOUS! THE FOLLOWING CASE WILL BE FOUND FOR BY MANY OF THE BEST CITIZENS OF BRITAIN, AND THE CURE THAT FOLLOWED IS TRUTHFULLY RECORDED.

"For months I had been a great sufferer from supposed Blood Poisoning, and its attendant results. My legs would swell to twice their ordinary size, and from my feet to my hips both legs were one solid mass of great purple BETTER sores. My arms came affected in like manner. Ceaseless itching and burning tormented me day and night. I lost my appetite. My bowels became constipated. I was much reduced in flesh. People said I would die, and I believed there was no help for me. This was my condition when I began taking SKODA'S DISCOVERY and SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS.

After using SKODA'S DISCOVERY and SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS for a few weeks I had gained fifteen pounds in flesh, and improved in every way.

Less than one course of the DISCOVERY, with SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and SKODA'S OINTMENT, has completely cured me.

My appetite is excellent. Swelling all gone. Food digests well. Bowels in good condition. And my skin is free from sores and blotches, and only the ugly scars upon my legs tell of my previous trouble.
