The Banquet Trail

SOME athletes are making a handsome salary following the 'banquet trail' during the off-season. We aren't by any means referring to fellows like Maurice Richad or Frank Mahovlich who made appearances here in Prince Edward Island for Morell and St. Dunstan's. These hockey notables are doing a service for absolutely no return, other than the enjoyment they receive in making other folks happy. Their hockey clubs charge this to public relations.

We are talking about the big stars in the United States. Fellows, such as Sandy Koufax, have been going from banquet to banquet almost continually these past several months. Sandy gets richer each evening he appears and the estimate is that he will have received upwards of $50,000 since he threw his last baseball to beat the New York Yankees in the 1963 fall classic.

It's figured that Sandy will get in the vicinity of $65,000 for his Dodgers' services in 1964. This should make him a wealthy young man indeed. We aren't for a moment blaming fellows like Sandy for picking up the extra loot. If we were in their position, we'd do the same thing. Their hour of glory is a brief one and soon they'll be all but forgotten.

So they're making hay while the sun shines. That's a fairly sound business practice.

A Great Comeback

THIS Junior Hockey League is surely giving the Forum patrons some exciting moments.

Every game has been bitterly fought and only the Legionaires have managed to stay clear of defeats. Prince of Wales Welshmen are winless in two starts but with a stroke of luck the city collegians could easily be tied with Buck Whitlock's boys at the top of the ladder. They lost 10-9 to St. Dunstan's Junior Varsity in a game that they apparently had 'in the bag.' A late surge by the Red and Whiters pulled the affair out for the Malpeque Road lads in the final two minutes.

Last Tuesday the Prince of Wales students were even more certain of a triumph. They owned a 9-4 spread over Norm Larter's North River outfit early in the third period. It was just a formality playing out the rest of the contest.

But everybody forgot they were dealing with a bunch of boys who love to play hockey. These lads from the rural areas surrounding Charlottetown make many sacrifices to get in their hockey. Getting to practice is a much more difficult chore than it is for the city lads. Folks were forgetting about that North River coach Norm 'The Hawk' Larter who puts more into hockey than any person we know on Prince Edward Island. Norm apparently reminded his boys that the time was ripe for a great comeback. He issued them the challenge and away they went on a wild scoring spree.

Hard To Believe

THE Welshmen couldn't believe what was happening. By the 10-minute mark, that 9-4 spread was reduced to 9-6. Still there was no need for panic. Three goals seemed a quite comfortable margin, big enough to insure the Welshmen of their first triumph in league competition.

But Norm's boys weren't finished. Not by any means. Before the 15-minute mark arrived they had fired three more goals and tied the skirmish at 9-9. By this time it was evident that the gallant comeback was not going to be in vain. At 16.45 Gord Vessey made the light glow behind the Welshmen netminder and that was the goal that gave the North River outfit their dramatic triumph.

It was another heartbreaker for the city collegians to lose. After all when you scored 18 goals in two games and fail to garner a point in the standings, it does make you scratch your head in amazement. And that's exactly the way things have worked out for the Welshmen.

Royals And Hawks Tonight

SANDY'S ROYALS and Johnny's Flying Hawks provide the hockey entertainment tonight at The Forum.

The Hawks are out of this best-of-seven series if they lose tonight because the Royals own a 3-1 advantage. Sandy can grab The Stead Pharmacy Trophy with another victory.

Game time is 8:15.

Richard Is Guest Speaker At Sportsmen's Dinner

Maurice (Rocket) Richard, who gained national prominence in his brilliant, 18-year Hockey League career with Montreal Canadiens, left on indelible mark on the village of Morell yesterday.

The 42-year-old Richard thrilled more than 300 adults at last night's third annual Morell Sportsmen's Dinner, and earlier in the day he was a dream come true for more than 800 star-eyed youngsters from Morell and surrounding districts, who assembled at the regional high school auditorium to greet the former NHL great.

Later in the afternoon, after a reception at the Morell Legion Home and luncheon at the United Church Hall, and after sgning close to 1,000 autographs, the Rocket refereed a minor hockey league game at Morell rink and took time out to chat with dozens of enthusiastic young hockeyists.

In a 15-minute talk at the Sportsmen's Dinner, which drew an overflow crowd of more than 300 from all sections of the province, from Bloomfield to Souris, the Rocket gave a brief analysis of the six NHL clubs, then deftly fielded more than a dozen questions from the gathering in an informal question-answer period.

On Olympic and World competition: he suggested that each of the six NHL clubs might contribute three or four outstanding prospects in the 20-22 year age bracket to form the nucleus of a club; On the slap shot: admitting that he never like it himself, he favored a slap with a short windup — part slap and part wrist shot, which has more direction; On scouting for NHL prospects: he said skating ability is the prime requisite, followed by sze, stickhandling and shooting ability.

David Boswell, provincial physical fitness director, introducing the Rocket, paid tribute to the village of Morell for its active sports program and its initiative in holding this annual event. He noted that Maurice Richard never played hockey in an indoor rink until he reached the junior bracket, and pointed out that youth in this province must make use of outdoor facilities because there isn't enough time available on indoor surfaces to give them the amount of ice time they need to develop their talents.

Hon. Leo Rossiter thanked the Rocket for his appearance and paid tribute to the hard-working committee that organized the program, and to the women of the community who made the dinner possible.

James (Big Jim) Pendergast, recently honored by The Evening Patriot as 'Islander of the Year' spoke briefly, paying tribute to the guest speaker and the village of Morell, and Rt. Rev. J.A. Sullivan, pastor of Morell, noted that the Rocket has been a tremendous inspiration through his feats on ice. Msgr. Sullivan said the community owed a tremendous debt of gratitude to the committee and to the women who worked so hard to make the function a success.

Two baseball trophies were presented to Brian Mcguire, captain of the Morell team, which won the provincial rural intermediate championship this past season. They were presented by David Boswell, on behalf of the provincial physical fitness department, and Charlie Ryan, provincial commissioner for the Island branch of the AAU of C.

Hawks, Royals Meeting Tonight

It's do or die for Johnny's Flying Hawks tonight at The Forum.

Down 3-1 in their best-of-seven series for The Stead Pharmacy trophy the Hawks are faced with elimination unless they can conquer the Frizzellmen. It will be a most difficult assignment the Hawks are facing but coach Norm Larter feels his gang can rally for this big one.

Royals won the opening game by a single marker. They had to overcome a three-goal lead in the late stages to do it. In the second Hawks eked out the verdict to square the round. However, Sandy's boys took this and the fourth battles and looked much better than the Hawks in that game last Thursday night.

Hawks to a man wouldn't concede a thing to the Royals for tonight's game. They believe they can prolong the series and force another contest next Thursday night. Royals maintain the series will conclude tonight. They are not in any way disposed to further humiliation by Johnny's outfit.

Fans have enjoyed these games to the fullest and each time the teams clash a larger crowd is on hand for the festivities. It's likely tonight the biggest number of patrons yet will catch the action.

Both clubs are going with their strongest lineups. Action starts at 8.15 sharp.

MONTREAL 2 TORONTO 1

MONTREAL (CP) — Bobby Rousseau, back in action after a one-game layoff with a sore hip, scored the winning goal Wednesday night as Montreal Canadiens defeated Toronto Maple Leafs 2-1 and kep the Leafs from cutting down their first-place margin in the National Hockey League.

The Canadiens went into first place alone, a point ahead of Chicago Black Hawks who played to a 2-2 tie with Detroit Red Wings Wednesday night.

Rousseau's goal, his 13th of the season, was an odd one.

The right winger, sidelined Sunday night with the hip injury he suffered here Saturday night against Boston Bruins, took a shot at the Leaf net and Toronto goaltender Johnny Bower stopped it. The puck bounced high in the air to Rousseau and as he was trying to control it and dribbled off him and into the goal.

The goal—at 16:20 of the final period — was Rousseau's 13th of the season. Montreal defenceman Terry Harper was penalized for tripping at 18:37 and Toronto pulled Bower with a minute left for a two-man advantage, but couldn't make the gamble pay off.

Left-winger Dave Balon earlier had pulled the Canadiens into a 1-1 tie after Jim Pappin, rookie Toronto right-winger, had scored the first goal.

Montreal goaltender Charlie Hodge played a steady game all night, except for one play, and that's when Pappin scored at 2:05 of the second period.

After a faceoff near centre ice, Toronto defenceman Larry Hillman shot the puck into the Canadiens' zone. Pappin raced in after it, grabbed it as it bounced off the boards, and banked it into the net off Hodge's arm from a difficult angle.

BALON TIES SCORE

The Toronto lead stood up until 18:40 of the second period when Balon—before two Leafs who had been in the penalty box could get back into the play effectively—tallied his 19th goal of the season.

The Canadiens had been making Bower dance merrily with shot after shot before Balon whacked in defenceman Jacques Laperriere's rebound from 15 feet.

Just six seconds earlier, Pappin and defenceman Carl Brewer had emerged from the penalty box where they had been sitting out minor infractions that both started at 16:34. Brewer was called for holding and, before play could be resumed again, Pappin took a swipe with his fist at Balon and was banished for roughing.

Pappin also picked up two others of the total of 10 minor penalties called by referee Frank Udvari. Leafs took six of the penalties.

Both Bower and Hodge had an equally busy night and made enough startling saves to keep their fans happy among the crowd of 13,923. Of the 31 shots each had to handle, Hodge stopped 30 and Bower 29.

First period — no scoring. Penalties—Pappin 1:47, Laperriere 3:35, Nevin 7:23, Balon, Duff 9:40.

Second period — 1. Toronto, Pappin 9 (Hillman) 2:05 2. Montreal, Balon 19 (Rousseau, Beliveau) 18:40. Penalties — Brewer, Pappin 16:34, Berenson 19:28.

Third period — 3. Montreal, Rousseau 13 (J. C. Tremblay) 16:20. Penalties — Pappin 1:55, Harper 18:37.

Rousseau Scores On Flukey Goal

By JOE DUPUIS

MONTREAL (CP) — Bobby Rousseau's fluke goal that gave Montreal a 2-1 National Hockey League victory over Toronto Maple Leafs was the big topic of discussion in both dressing rooms Wednesday night.

"Ask Rousseau about it," growled Toronto goalie Johnny Bower. "We both took a whack at it," Rousseau said. "And we both missed it."

What happened, of course, was that the puck bounced off Rousseau's stomach on a high rebound and zig-zagged into the net off Bower's left pads about knee-high.

For Rousseau, it was his 13th goal of the season but he wasn't too pleased about how he scored it. "It counted for two points and that's the important thing," Rousseau said.

The little winger credits his recent successes to a book he read early in the winter about positive thinking.

The Leafs, strangely, were not overly unhappy about the defeat. King Clancy, Leafs assistant general-manager, said the team played hard, but didn't get the breaks. "Rousseau's goal was a bit of a fluke, but those things count and there isn't much you can do about it."

McPhee, Sheperd Are Suspended

HALIFAX (CP) — Doug McPhee and Frank Shepherd of Moncton Hawks of the Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League have been placed on temporary suspension by the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association.

MAHA secretary Hanson Dowell said here Wednesday night the two players were suspended pending settlement of a dispute between Halifax Schooners and Moncton.

Both players have said they are finished with the Hawks and want to join Schooners. McPhee was with the Halifax Club Tuesday night but neither players dressed for Wednesday night's game against the Hawks at Moncton.

"They are suspended until this thing is worked out." Dowell said. The Hawks management had requested the suspension, he said.
