CITY COUNCIL to-night. SALE of remnants all this week at Beer Bros. jy10 11

A BIG TIME.—The tea at Bloomfield tomorrow.

I. O. O. F.—St. Lawrence Lodge meets to-night, at 8 o'clock.

DRILL.—No. 1 Battery, G. A., will meet for drill this evening, at 8 o'clock.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks were disposed of this morning. Each was fined two dollars and costs.

THE PULPIT.—Sermons having reference to the recent libel suit were preached last evening, in both Methodist churches.

THE RIFLE.—There will be a meeting of the Council of the Provincial Rifle Association, in the Law Library, this evening at 8.30. By order of President.

We have thrown 1000 more hats in the window, two for five cents, and 500 women's and misses, two for ten cents.—Beer Bros. jy10 11

A FINE SUM.—The snug sum of about $800 was realized at the Kinkora Tea on Tuesday last. The amount will go towards the erection of a new church at Kinkora.

FOOTBALL will be resumed at the Park, this evening. Any young men in the city wishing to enjoy a friendly game should make it a point to attend. Game called at 7, sharp, each evening.

MILITARY.—Nos. 1 and 2 Batteries of Garrison Artillery and the Engineer Corps, headed by the Artillery Band, will parade at Victoria Park on Wednesday evening next, at 7.30 o'clock, for battalion drill.

THE LYCEUM.—Edith Ellis and her Wizard will open an engagement at the Lyceum on Wednesday evening, July 16th, continuing for two weeks. Miss Ellis has delighted the people of the Maritime Provinces, and her dresses are superb.

HOME FOR INTERMENT.—The body of Eliza M., wife of John Kerr, who died at Summerside, Mass., on the 6th, arrived here in the steamer Worcester from Boston, on Saturday evening last. Mrs. Kerr was a daughter of Mrs. Gillespie, of this city.

CHALLENGE.—The Summerside Agriculturist contains a challenge from Messrs. W. A. Noonan and R. D. Waite to Mr. H. C. Connelly, of this city, offering to match Maud E. to try Harry C., for $100 or $50 a side, race to take place either on Charlottetown or Summerside tracks.

DON'T FORGET IT.—The Grand Western Tea will be held at Bloomfield, to-morrow. A special train will leave here at 5 a. m., and will arrive at Bloomfield at 9.46. The managers of the tea have been hard at work for some time past making arrangements for a good time, and guarantee that all those who attend will be well pleased with their trip. Don't fail to attend.

THE MISSION.—The men's mission in St. Dunstan's Cathedral closed last evening with the Papal benediction. During the renewal 3,473 persons received Holy Communion—1,491 men and 2,012 women. The retreat for the clergy will begin at St. Dunstan's College this evening at six o'clock, and will continue during the week. It will be conducted by Rev. Father Strubbe. Fathers Flynn and Rioux left for home this morning.

FROM MONTREAL.—The passengers for this port by the Miramichi, which called here on Friday evening, are as follows: Mrs W W Sullivan, Misses Adele Sullivan, May Sullivan, Maud Ball, Mr and Mrs Geo Bell and child, Miss McLennan, Mr and Mrs Arnold and child, Mr and Mrs Kirkland, Miss Thornton, Mr and Mrs Birks, nurse and child, Master Birks, Miss Sprout, Dr and Mrs Bell, Mr Johnston, Miss Johnston, Miss A Johnston, Miss Edith Boton.

SABBATH SCHOOL PICNIC.—The annual picnic of the Upper Prince Street Sabbath School is going on at Westville, West River to-day. The picnic is being held on the grounds of Mr. Stewart. Besides the children of the School, there is a large number of visitors present. The steamer left Ferry Wharf at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., taking the Artillery Band on the last trip. To-night there will be an excursion on the harbor.

CARS OVERBOARD.—Wholesale cars in the railway yard or wharf at Pictou during the fog on Saturday morning, the engineer in charge could not see the signals clearly, and instead of stopping short at the proper time and place, kept up speed with the result that three of the cars were forced over the wharf into the river. Two of the cars were loaded with oats and one with kerosene oil. The after wheels of the latter car caught on the end of the wharf and in that way kept the car from wholly going over. The contents of the first two cars were destroyed, but it is thought that the oil will likely not be damaged. In connection with the disaster it may be explained that there is quite a down grade from the station to the head of the wharf, which runs parallel with the river, and at the head of the wharf we understand there was nothing but a sleeper to keep the cars from going over.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Nickerson, arrived from Boston on Saturday about midnight, with a general cargo and the following passengers: Master V McLeod, W McKay, N W Loring, Miss N McKeena, Rev J C Carson, T P Hall and wife, Miss M B McLeod, Mrs Douglas, H J Kittell, Mary Melish, Miss Bruce, Peter Gills, Rev F O Gadsby, Miss A McLean, E Ashon, Mrs Brothay, F A Bg-dow, C F Hutchins, W L Hutchins, Annie McKeene, W M Leary, Lily M Kibbe, Clara J Dewar, Annie A Dewar, Sarah McKay, Mary M Manning, Mrs Wilson, Isabel Waite, Maggie Turner, Jennie Munro, Albert Munro, Mrs McWilliams, Mary Jenkins, Katie McKa, Annie McRae, Annie McCormack, Monie Hollister, Miss Connor, Annie Johnson, Flossie McPherson, Minnie Kerr, Maud McDonald, Archie Tucker, Mrs Fletcher, Mrs McQuinn, Bridget Sheu, Grace Child, Fossie McLeod, Mrs Melcher, Mrs E. L. Johnson, Mrs J. D. ... (text continues with names)

The Break-up.

Not a word was heard, nor a murmuring sound. For a great deal of work lay before us; Our tents were uprooted, and laid on the ground. And the natives were left to deplore us. We gathered together at close of day, Johannes was anxious and flurried; For the train was in waiting to bear us away, And he greatly dislikes to be hurried. His Severs and Dresden was gently laid down At the feet of his comrades in glory; It was packed in our trunks, and was carried to town, And now it is famous in story. W. E. C. Camp Fortune, July 14th, 1890.

GRAND WESTERN TEA.

THE GRAND WESTERN EXCURSION and TEA, in aid of St. Mark's Church, Lot 7, takes place on the beautiful Saunders' property, which borders on the Railway, at

BLOOMFIELD STATION

TUESDAY, JULY the 15th.

No effort is being spared to make this the grandest of the series of grand teas for which the Far West is now celebrated. To the regular line of refreshments and amusements will be added several novelties. Music of the highest order will lend its charms. Excursions from the East and West will arrive by special and regular trains. The following list of LOW RAILWAY FARES has been arranged:

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Suggestion.

SIR,—Permit me to suggest that at the meeting of the City Council to be held this evening a sum of money be voted towards the payment of the amount due on Queen Square fountain, in order that it may be put in operation again. I think that citizens generally would approve of the expenditure, and trust that action will be taken without delay.

IMPROVEMENT.

Queen Square Fountain.

SIR,—I am a poor boy getting as my weekly wages two dollars, and have to contribute to the support of a widowed mother, yet I am willing to give one dollar toward the cost of the necessary repairs to the fountain on Queen Square. May I suggest, Mr. Editor, that you open a list at the EXAMINER'S OFFICE and invite donations for this object. Speaking for myself, I may say that the brightest hours of my young life were spent on the Square last summer listening to the delicious music of the band, and viewing the happy faces of the boys and girls.

A PHILOSOPHIC OUTLOOK.

Martin Butler who advertised for a wife some months since, writes in this wise to the Fredericton Gleamer:—But I have now arrived at the stage when I look upon life from a philosophic standpoint. I can endure poverty and hard labor with equanimity and, without the cynicism of past days, can make the most of the small chances I have left. At peace with the world and striving to see good in everybody; without the hope of a home or children, I can enjoy those of others, and without a sister I can love somebody else's.

BANKED IN A BUCKET.

One thousand one hundred dollars in gold was stolen from Mr. Diemiller, of Lockport, Ill., on Sunday night week. Diemiller was afraid to trust his money to banks, and was also afraid to invest it for fear of losing it. He kept his gold concealed in a bucket hung in the cistern, the opening of which was inside the house. When Diemiller took a peep on Monday morning to see if the bucket of gold hung in its place he saw that it was gone. The burglar left no trace.

LOTTERY ADVERTISERS FINED.

A Toronto despatch says that the charges against C. W. Bunting, manager of the Mail, and George Darby, manager of the News, of publishing advertisements of the Louisiana lottery in their respective newspapers, have been finally settled, the magistrate imposing a fine of twenty dollars.
