

Put New Curbs On Pros Raising Maritime League

TORONTO, May 26 — (CP) — Professional hockey leagues may not raid clubs from the Major Series (Alexander Trophy) after Jan. 15 unless an emergency arises, it was decided today at a meeting of the pros and the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association.

Until today it was possible for pro clubs to call up players from the major series at any time. Now, the deadline may go beyond Jan. 15 only if pro teams fall below the strength of one goalkeeper, five defencemen and 10 forwards through injuries.

Negotiation committees of the C.A.H.A. and the National and American Leagues made the decision at a closed session.

The deadline was set because all players in the major series are under contract and professionals could play in the leagues without being reinstated as amateurs and some were called up shortly before the Alexander Trophy final series started.

At today's meeting were: Doug Grimston, New Westminster, B.C., president of the C.A.H.A.; Al Pickard, Regina, immediate past president; W. B. (Baldy) George, Kempenfelt, first vice-president;

Jimmy Dunn, Winnipeg, second vice-president; Frank Sargent, Fort Arthur, past president; Dr. George Hardy, Edmonton, past president; W. A. (Billy) Hewitt, Toronto, registrar - general, and George Dudley, Midland, Ont., secretary-manager.

Clarence Campbell of Montreal, president of the N.H.L., headed the professional group which included Frank Selke, general manager of Montreal Canadiens; Jack Adams, general manager of Detroit Red Wings; Clarence (Happy) Day, Toronto Maple Leafs; Lou Pini, president of Providence Reds of the A.H.L.; and Eddie Shore, president of Syracuse Indians, A. H. L.

It was reported that the seven-team Quebec Major Series had a "satisfactory season" with attendance eclipsing the million mark. The six-club Maritime group had a so-so year with most of the teams finishing in the red, mainly because of the 90-game schedule and low attendance figures due to inclement weather conditions.

The C.A.H.A. was told that the Maritime group plans to operate again next season, but with only four clubs. Names of the teams dropping out were not divulged.

Washington Senators In 5-3 Win Over Athletics

By The Canadian Press
Sid Hudson held the Athletics to nine hits and batted across two runs as Washington Senators defeated Philadelphia 5-3 Monday in an American League game on a 7-inning barrage against Sam Zoldak and Johnny Kucab.

Bob Rush hurled his fifth straight victory with a six-hitter as Chicago Cubs beat St. Louis Cardinals and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizel 3-0 to maintain their briar third-place in the National League.

Hudson and Archie Wilson drove across all Washington's runs. Wilson slammed over three with a triple and two singles.

Rush, who now has a 6-2 record, was backed by a seven-hit Chicago attack which included a homer and a two-bagger by third baseman Bill Serena, and a two-run single in the seventh by Bob Samazott.

Serena's home run, his first of the season, came in the fifth inning for the first Cub run to hang the loss on Mizel, who left for a pinch-hitter after working six innings.

It was the fifth setback against one victory for Mizel, who was relieved in the seventh by A. Brazie. Mizel struck out seven and allowed three hits in his six innings.

Rain halted a National League night game between Boston and Philadelphia.

Two night games remained scheduled in the American League and two in the National League.

Charles Uses Movie As Part Of Training

By Murray Rose

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J., May 26 — (AP) — In a darkened little room in a small home in this town near Atlantic City, a movie is being run over and over again. It's become a "must" routine in the training of Ezzard Charles for his return crack at heavyweight champion Jersey Joe Walcott.

The film is entitled "Ezzard Charles Versus Jersey Joe Walcott for the Heavyweight Championship."

Every day until he leaves this camp for his title bout with Walcott in Philadelphia June 5, Charles will go through the mental torture of watching himself get knocked out July 19, 1951, by a left hook.

The former champion says it doesn't bother him.

"I've watched that movie in a lot of cities when it was playing," said Ezy.

Did you learn something from it, someone asked.

"Yes, that it ends the same," said Charles.

Charles has been working on his own hook in camp. Sunday he reached his peak condition to date when he dropped veteran Al Smith and punished other spartrates. His hook was his most effective weapon. He whammed it to the body and head with every ounce of his power behind the blows.

Irvin's Ankle To Be Healed Soon

NEW YORK, May 26 — (AP) — Monte Irvin, New York Giants outfielder who broke his ankle in an exhibition game April 2, will be able to start working out with the club in "two or three weeks," says Dr. Anthony Palermo, Giants' club physician.

Dr. Palermo removed the cast from Irvin's right ankle today.

"The ankle looked in pretty good shape," said Dr. Palermo. "He should be on the field building up his muscles when the club comes home from its next road trip (June 10)."

"He'll be able to pinch hit by mid-July or the first of August. He will be able to play this year."

A Maritime Major Hockey League Request Suggested by Islanders

President Dr. F. C. Dougan at the Halifax meeting of the M.M.H.L. over a week ago was partially granted yesterday at a meeting of the professional and members of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association. It was a request that professional clubs be prevented from recalling players from the major leagues after the January 15 deadline and it was agreed to with one stipulation. This stipulation was that players in the major leagues could be recalled if the playing strength of the professional team fell below one goalkeeper, five defencemen and ten forwards on account of injuries.

Those who supported Maritime Major Hockey last season will heartily approve of this ruling.

It may yet be a case of locking the door after the horse got out but if there is major hockey in the Maritimes next season the majority of the clubs, especially the smaller ones, will benefit by the new rule. At least it will prevent a team from packing its lineup shortly before the play-offs commence, a practise not unknown in these seaside provinces.

The biggest news to come out of yesterday's meeting as far as we were concerned was contained in the last paragraph of the Canadian Press wire story. It read to the effect that the Maritime Major League would operate again next season with four teams in it. Although the story did not reveal who represented the Maritimes at the meeting, we presume it must have been Judge J. Elliott Hudson, President of the M.M.H.L. who was delegated to attend the annual meeting of the C.A.H.A. Judge Hudson must also have been delegated to carry this message to the meeting although his statements yesterday may have been misinterpreted.

Although the four clubs were not designated, we presume they included Glace Bay, Saint John, Halifax and Charlottetown. At the M.M.H.L. meeting a week ago Sunday, Glace Bay and Saint John stated they were definitely interested. Halifax wasn't sure and Charlottetown would not know until a general meeting had been held. Sydney was not interested and Moncton would operate only on a modified scale. From here it would appear that Halifax will be a definite starter. There could be a matter of conjecture over who will be the fourth entry. A general meeting of the Islanders Club may be held before June 8 or some time next week and then we may know.

A week ago Aubrey Kelzer of the Sydney Post Record had a few interesting observations to make about the fate of the Millionaires. Aubrey stated that little was known about the team's future but he wondered what Sydney would do if the Miners went ahead in the M. M. H. L. He suggested the Sydney might enter a league with New Glasgow, Pictou and Amherst but that it would be hard on Sydney's pride to be competing in a lower bracket than that of Glace Bay. The rank and file of the people might care but we doubt if it would bother the pride of those who headed the Sydney organization last year.

A factor which may help decide whether or not the Maritimes return to Allan Cup hockey will be the result of major competition with that regarding the status of players. If the Maritimes return to play the players who performed with the M. M. H. L. teams last year will be declared free agents. Judge Hudson has been asked to have this matter clarified by the C. A. H. A.

Another expression of sympathy over the death of Johnny Dutchak has been received from one of his former team-mates. Yesterday City Councillor Ekner MacDonald had a letter from Walter Pavlyshyn and in it Walter expressed his regret over Johnny's untimely death. Several days ago Phil Vitale in a telegram to Bill Brown, Forum Manager wired an expression of sympathy.

Bantam Royals Lengthen Lead With 12-6 Victory

Behind the three hit pitching of Jackie Kane the City Bantam League leading Royals defeated the Bearcats 12-6 in a six inning game on the Knights of Columbus diamond yesterday evening.

The Royals took a six-run lead in the first inning and stayed far ahead the rest of the way. The Bearcats struck for three runs in the third, their best inning.

MacKenzie sparked the Royals attack with a two-run homer in the third. MacKenzie also made two good running catches back of first base. Dolron hit a triple for the Royals while pitcher Kane came through with three hits. A triple by Roberts was the Bearcats' most damaging blow.

The next league game will be played Wednesday evening at five o'clock between the Cardinals and Bearcats.

Joe Longaphle was the umpire for yesterday's game with MacFayden and Hennessey working the bases.

RCAF Airwomen Win Second Softball Game

The RCAF Airwomen made it two straight victories to go to the top of the Summerside Ladies Softball League standing when they trimmed Aeneas' Cubs at the Airport diamond last night by the decisive score of 16-4. For three innings the game was close and hard-fought, producing the best softball seen here in the ladies' park for some time.

The WAAPS started to hit starting pitcher Shirley Arsenault, and they continued clubbing her relief, Lorinda Gaudet, until the final lopsided score resulted.

Chaste, on the mound for the airwomen, kept the Lippy-Gaudet-coached squad in subjection all the way, striking out twelve. Seven of these on a called third strike.

Chisholm, the WAAP catcher, led the onslaught on the Cubs with two home runs and a double. Montgomery, Golvan and Chaste each had a round-tripper, and Betty Gay hit the only circuit smash off the slants of Chaste, the W. D. hurler.

No sensational plays were pulled off in the field, but the caliber of defensive play was considerably above average for these parts.

They've got another year under their belt, and may surprise some of us, but we won't budge an inch from our prediction. If they want to talk back to us, they've got to say it with base hits.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

The ladies' softball game which opened the season in Summerside on Victoria Day was attended by a fairly large crowd which shows that the ladies are going to take a very active interest in this league. Mayor Wedge threw the first ball, after congratulating all concerned in the efforts they have made. The game was close, exciting and cleanly fought.

Mrs. Major who pitched for the R.C.A. Ramblers, didn't have much success with Aeneas' Cubs in her first appearance, but if she gets better control, and is able to get the ball over, she will be very tough to hit. As it was, she struck out six strike wielders, but offset this fine performance by issuing sixteen walks.

Mrs. Mason at second base was a star both at bat and field. Mrs. Finnegan, whose powerful bat contributed a lot to the PMQ cause last year, didn't get into her stride as yet. She seemed a bit over-anxious, and struck at some bad balls.

Aeneas' Cubs look stronger than when they played under the Curran & Briggs banner last year. The Gay sisters have added strength, particularly Betty who hit a home-run, and Louise Gallant at short field shows signs of becoming a star performer.

Lorinda Gaudet was the best of the five pitchers who worked in that first game. Their infield looks strong defensively with Rose Gaudet at first, Marcia Delaney at second, Louise Gallant at short, and Diane Gallant at third.

We've followed the "ladies before gentlemen" rule, and now we'd better say something about the C. & B. juniors who beat Maccan in their first game of the season. The juniors will be top-notch in the other pastures again this year, and strong enough in the infield. The double-play combination looked as if it needed a little oiling on the only double-killing ball that went their way, but when you consider that they have had little or no practice as yet, and that Johnny Whalen, a kid of fifteen, hasn't played many games at the keystone sack, they are playing par for the course.

Mark Delaney looked particularly sharp at the hot corner.

In the batting department, they didn't disprove or uphold what we have said about them. True, they got only six bingles off Murphy (who can throw them in from both the port and the starboard side) and the lefty (that's what he was Saturday) got into more trouble by hitting the C. & B. boys than he did by their hitting him. He smacked three of them in one inning, and this, coupled with his teammates' errors, gave the Curranites their one big inning.

Murphy was a pretty fair pitcher of the country or garden variety, but he was not a Stewart or Bernard, or Simmons either, for that matter. He seemed to have more work, and could stay the distance better than Donnie, but in the first four innings young Simmons was over him like a tent.

Giants Oust Dodgers From League's Top Spot

By The Canadian Press
New York Giants ousted Brooklyn Dodgers from first place in the sizzling National League race Monday night by whipping the Dodgers 4-2 in the season's first duel between these arch-rivals.

The result left the Brooks a half game behind.

Bobby Thomson drove in three Giants runs with a home run and a long fly and Wiley Lockman scored three times with a walk, triple and home run. Thomson's effort recalled his pennant-winning home run off Brooklyn's Ralph Branca last Oct. 1 — the last occasion he faced Dodgers pitching.

George Spencer, who relieved starter Jim Hearn with the score tied 2-2 in the second inning, turned in a brilliant three-hit performance through 7 2-3 innings to get credit for the victory. "The loser was Carl Erskine who took over in the second after starter preacher Roe bowed out for a pinch hitter in the Dodgers' half of
