INFORMATION BULLETIN - UNIVERSITY MEDIA

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MEDIATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Network: Interaction for Dispute Resolution is requesting the assistance of university media to inform professors and students of its 5th biennial conference, Interaction 98 which is being held at Bishop's University in Lennoxville from May 26 to 30, 1998. The theme of the conference is Dispute Resolution: Building the Road to Peace. Over one hundred leading authorities will act as presenters, moderators, facilitators and guest speakers. Canada's top policy-makers will share their views on the future development of the field.

1998 will showcase efforts in resolving conflict at the community level, among our youth, within business and government.

Sector tracks include

Civil and Commercial
 Health Care
 Youth and Schools
 Community Justice
 Governance and Public Policy
 International
 First Nations
 New Areas of Practice
 Professional Development

Conflict resolution and academe will be featured throughout the conference, and in particular on May 28.

Among the featured presenters at the conference are: Marie-France Chabot and Lucille Guilbert (Laval University), Martha Hansen McManus (University of Calgary), Vern Neufeld Redekop and Peter Monette (St-Paul University), Cheryl Picard and Rena Ramkay (Carleton University), John Andrew (University of Toronto), Cynthia J. Chataway (York University), Paul Redekop (Menlo Simons College - University of Winnipeg), Kimberly Kovach (University of Texas), Etsianat Ondongh-Essalt (University of Paris), Joëlle Thibault (University of Paris II) and Juan Tausk (University of Buenos Aires).
