

A Journalist Koko's Song

As sometime it may happen that a victim must be found, I've got a little list, I've got a little list, Of newspaper offenders who might well be underground...

How to make Umbrellas Last.

"People don't generally know," said a New York umbrella retailer to a reporter for the Mail and Express recently, "that umbrellas will last much longer if, when they are wet, they are placed handle downward to dry..."

A Splendid View.

A poor crofter who had scant pasture for his pet cow one day tethered her on his bit of land, where sand and stones were far more plentiful than vegetation...

A Woman's Patience.

Husband (mildly)—"You must remember, my dear, that the most patient person that lived was a man." Wife (impatiently)—"Oh, don't talk to me about the patience of Job. Think of Mrs. Job? the patience that poor woman must have had, to put up with such a man!"

Taken Back.

Lover—Ah, dearest, dost thou know what of all outward things is nearest my heart? Practical young lady—If you have proper regard for your health in this changeable weather, it must be a good, warm flannel under-vest. He went out into the cold, cold world.

She Didn't Know.

In the hallway—"Say, Mr. Gogglesop, what do you come to our house so often for?" Gogglesop (patronizing)—"Now, Tommy, you must ask your sister Clara that, when she comes into the parlor—just ask her." "Well, I did, and she said she'd be blest if she knew."

NOTES.

Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character...

NEUROUS DEBILITATED MEN.

You are allowed a free trial of this drug of the use of Dr. Brewster's 'Vitaline' will give relief and permanent cure of all cases of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts or two postage stamps

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
