CUSO in the Faculty Lounge
8:00 pm Dr. Cantwell Smith, Chairman of the Department of Religious Studies at Dalhousie will deliver a lecture in the University Lecture Series.

Topic: Is Believing What Religious People Do?. In the Duffy Amphitheatre.

Thursday

8:00 - 10:00 pm Final auditions for Campus Cabaret will be held in the Recital Hall, Steel Building. All parts are still open.

9:30 - 1:00 am Pig 'N' Whistle in the Barn. As this is to be the annual computer dance, only those with computer-dates will be allowed. Sorry.

Friday

2:00 - 4:00 Back House Coffee Shop in the Panther Lounge. The Back makes a great way to start the weekend; relax and meet your neighbour while listening to some great talent and sipping a cup of coffee. Admission free... and so's the coffee.

8:00 pm Men's basketball in the gym versus U.N.B. Red Bombers.

Saturday

9:30 - 12:30 am Disco Barn in the gym rocking to the music of Dave GAREAU. Admission only 50¢.

Sunday

2:00 Women's Basketball game in the gym versus U. de M.

4:00 Men's Basketball game in the gym versus U. de M. Moncton traditional brings a lot of fans along so let's, for a change, see more home town than away fans at these two games.

8:00 U.P.E.I. Movie Club presents another in its series of movie classics - this time "Little Big Man"
8:30 Valdy in concert at the Confed Centre with Island stars Marty Reno and Bonnie LeClair backing up. Tickets available at the Centre on a first-come-first-served basis.

Cadre Apology

The Cadre apologizes to the UPEI Panthers hockey team for possibly downgrading the team's honor and inferring a bad reputation on the team. This is in reference to last week's report of the Student Council Meeting which unintentionally referred to an individual discussed at the Council meeting as, specifically, a member of the hockey team.
