The shooting for the small miscellaneous prizes, chiefly raised by private subscription, commenced on Monday at 11 o'clock, and ended on Wednesday about noon. The competition was confined to the Island Volunteers, who made very excellent shooting, according to the score just published. Indeed, one of the country shots scored, from the same ranges, a higher number of points than the winner of the Intercolonial Cup obtained—the latter having made 21 points, while the Island Volunteer—a Mr. D. McGregor, of Lot 49, scored 22 points; and three other Island shots made 21 points each—that being the number scored by the New Brunswick shot who won the Cup. The following is the result of the shooting for the small prizes:—

"The following is a list of the successful competitors, after the firing off by the ties:—

1st Prize	D. McGregor, Lot 49 Company, 22 points,	£16	0	0
2nd "	P. Stewart, New Perth Rifles, 21 points,	14	0	0
3rd "	James Bearisto, "Queen's Own," 20 points,	12	0	0
4th "	D. Harper, Thistle Company,	10	0	0
5th "	Major Pollard, Artillery, [Major Casswell's,]	7	10	0
6th "	James McLaren, New Perth Rifles,	6	0	0
7th "	Daniel McKinnon, Prince of Wales Rifles, Major Pollard's Cup,	4	10	0
8th "	John McLeod, Scotia Rifles,	3	0	0
9th "	George Dogherty, Artillery,	2	0	0
10th "	W. Howat, Tryon Rifles,	1	0	0"

Wednesday being the day appointed for the trial of skill between the Islanders and their brother Volunteers from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, the concourse of visitors was considerably larger than on the two preceding days. In this competition, Nova Scotia was represented by fifteen marksmen, and New Brunswick by only two. The reason for the smallness of the latter number is attributable to the fact, that the rifles were very properly called in, some months ago, as we hope to see done here by and bye, and the New Brunswick Volunteers have since devoted themselves to more useful pursuits than target practice. The highest number of points made by the Nova Scotians was 18—the highest by the Islanders was 20—(several Island Volunteers made 19)—and a Mr. Marks, of New Brunswick, scored 21, which secured him the covetted bauble. It must be confessed that the Islanders had some advantage, in this contest, of their Colonial competitors, inasmuch as that they were better acquainted with the ground, and had two and a half days' previous practice upon it. Although Mr. Marks's shooting, so far as the number of points indicates his skill, was nothing to boast of, still it must be allowed that he won his prize in the most honourable manner. We understand that he fired every shot, standing up, from the shoulder; while the other competitors assumed any attitude which could secure them a good shot—some sprawling on their stomachs, and taking aim while their noses were not six inches from the ground—others on their knees, and others, again, stretched on their backs, the marksman steadying his rifle on the joint of his big toe. 'Tis true these postures were allowed by the "articles" of "the service," but they looked uncommonly ridiculous, and contrasted rather unfavorably with the bearing of Mr. Marks.

It was pitiable to note the countenances of some of our great military geniuses, who are immersed in fuss and feathers, when, (on Thursday,) Marks was declared the winner of the Cup Noah Harper, of the Thistle Rifle Company, was tie with Marks—20 each,—when the former pointed his rifle to give the last shot, mouths were open and Caps were raised to honour him with a cheer, but blank countenances took the place of eager and joyfully expectant ones, when it was announced that his fire missed, while Marks was declared to have scored one point.

We were not present at the grand scene of the presentation of the Cup to the Champion Shot on Thursday. The Commander-in-Chief "did" the honours, we are informed, in his usually brilliant and eloquent style, and shortly after, the victor was trotted into town in a Livery Stable Wagon—not very flashy in its appointments—one of the great military officials riding in front, while a few of the Island Volunteers trotted on Shank's mare behind, evidently very reluctant in their bestowal of honours to the victor.

If the object of the late expensive Shooting Match was to excite a general love for military exercises, we think every one will admit that it resulted in a most signal failure. Three fourths of the people who visited the ground seemed to find far more attraction about the drinking booths, whose owners appeared to do a rattling business, especially when the shades of evening began to fall, and for a long time after. We never once saw anything that could be dignified with the name of a crowd about the shooting lines.—the general muster of Volunteers was very small, considering that, according to the accounts given by members of the Government, sixteen hundred have been enrolled,—every person who owned a uniform, whether he was of the Volunteers or of the Militia, was ordered to put it on, and by this means there was a little display of scarlet, and pipe clay, and virgin blades, to the admiration of a few people of both sexes, in plain clothes, who regard themselves as distinguished members of the great Stuck-up Family.

The 'Islander' of Friday last speaks of the shooting competition as "very exciting." We saw more excitement evinced half dozen times each day in drunken squabbles about the drinking booths than the very best marksmen could produce if they were blazing away for a month. If any blackguard gave another a box in the eye—(and why should'nt blackguards practise fighting in their own way, when fighting is taught on scientific principles by gentlemen?)—and one or two ragged urchins cried out—"Holloa, boys, here's a fight," there would be a crowd ten times larger in less than five minutes than witnessed on any day out of the five the best shooting that was exhibited. If even Noah Harper had won the prize Cup, and his name was made famous on the ground by the stentorian lungs of his brother Volunteers, the cry of "Harper is the champion shot!" would not create half the sensation which followed the yell, "Holloa boys, here's another row!" In fact, people seemed to go in for something that was real and practical; and a bloody nose, or a swollen eye was an object that excited much greater attention than a bullet in the inanimate bull's eye of the painted board. Of course the "amusement" attending such practical fighting was voted decidedly vulgar by the high dignitaries in fuss and feathers; but the vulgarity of the thing must be laid at their own doors, for they brought it about—first, by having the Shooting Match at all, and secondly, by allowing drinking booths to be erected. If it were really desirable to have a Shooting Match, surely some cheap and rational amusements might have been provided for the people who took no interest in the rifle practice, and who were forced either to saunter listlessly about the ground, or employ their time to worse purpose in the tents. When, a few years ago, Sir Dominick Daly visited a race course near Charlottetown, there was a tremendous outcry made by certain "sanctified" people who were present at the late shooting contests, about the immorality practised and witnessed at Races. The "immorality," of course, meant fighting, drinking, and, perhaps, something worse. If the crowds at the Shooting Ground during the five mortal days of last week were more refined in their tastes, and more virtuous in their daily and nightly walks and conversation, than those who have frequented Race Courses, we have yet to learn the fact; and we hope our "sanctified" friends have not failed to make a note of things that might have been as easily seen as the shooting at the targets.

We are heartily glad the Shooting Folly is at an end. Thousands of our fellow Colonists will join with us in the hope that such a folly will never be repeated in this Island—at least, at the public expense.

The 'Islander' furnishes the following as the result of the shooting on Thursday afternoon and Friday, for some small prizes raised by private subscription:—

FRIDAY, Aug. 15.—The shooting for the "All Comers' Prizes," was decided this morning. The following is a list of the names of the successful competitors for the different prizes, and the number of points made at two ranges, 200 and 300 yards:—

[WE have been requested to copy from a South Australian paper, received by the last Mail, the following complimentary address to His Excellency Governor Daly. It is interesting, as shewing that a more tolerant spirit pervades the breasts of Presbyterian Ministers at the antipodes than that which characterises most of their brethren in this part of the world.]

THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief received a deputation of ministers and members of the Established Church of Scotland at the Government Offices. The deputation presented the subjoined address:—

"To His Excellency Sir Dominic Daly, K. B., Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Province of South Australia, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

"In the absence of the proper ecclesiastical authority, we, the Minister, Elders, and Congregation of St. Andrew's Church, Adelaide, in connection with the Established Church of Scotland would, in the name of the members generally of that Church in this province and for ourselves, offer you our most sincere congratulations on your appointment to the Government of South Australia, and on the safe arrival of yourself, Lady Daly, and family in this country

"In a colony like this, which has been marked all along by its loyalty to our gracious Queen, by the quiet and orderly conduct of its people, by the absence of everything like religious strife and discord, and which is so abundantly possessed of all the elements of temporal prosperity, we trust and we believe you will find your residence agreeable and the administration of your high office a duty pleasant and easy.

"While offering our congratulations and good wishes to your Excellency, we would avail ourselves of the opportunity at the same time of expressing to you, as Her Majesty's representative, our deep sympathy with our beloved Sovereign in the sudden and sad bereavement she has experienced in the death of her royal Consort Prince Albert, and would earnestly pray that the Almighty may continue to grant her all needful consolation and support under her heavy affliction.

"Trusting that your Excellency, Lady Daly, and family may continue to enjoy uninterrupted health, and every other blessing in this distant land, we beg to subscribe ourselves your Excellency's humble and obedient servants,

"ROBERT HAINING, Minister.
"WILLIAM MILNE, Elder.
"JOHN JOHNSTONE, Elder.
"SAMUEL MILLS, Elder
"JOHN KNOX Jun., Elder.
"WILLIAM LOGAN, Elder.
"J. W. BUCHAN.
"ALLAN MACFARLANE, S M.
"A. CHALMERS, D D.
"GEORGE HALL, M.L.C.
"JOHN CLARK
"THOMAS MONTEITH.
"WILLIAM ISBISTER.
"JAMES SCOTT YOUNG."

"Gentlemen—I heartily thank you for your congratulations on my assumption of the government of this colony, but more especially for the spirit of loyalty and sympathy in the deep affliction that has fallen upon our beloved Queen which is manifested in this address.

"I assure you that I very fully appreciate the great advantages I derive (in the position which I have the honor of holding in this noble province) from the tone of Christian toleration which so happily distinguishes its inhabitants, and that it shall ever be my anxious endeavor, zealously and impartially, to promote their social and material well being.

"I am deeply sensible of the very kind feelings which have dictated your good wishes in regard to my family, who fully participate in all the pleasing anticipations in which I myself indulge from our residence in South Australia.'

'Times' in commenting on Confiscation Bill says, happily it is certain that no ruler will ever dare put in force this scandalous law. It will only remain a monument of infamy to those who pressed and passed it, and be ranked hereafter with the attempted destruction of Charleston Harbour, and strange vagaries of Gen. Butler.

Various rumors current, especially on continent, as to intended mediation. 'Independence Belge' asserts France, Russia and England, are negotiating. Two former made propositions to England, but received no final answer.

Another rumor is that England sent special Envoy to Washington to urge Lincoln to take initiative towards peace, if he wishes to avoid offers of mediation.

It is semi-officially notified that the Queen and younger members of Royal Family will, on the 1st September, proceed to Belgium for a short visit to the King, then they proceed to Castle Reinhardtsbrunn, near Gotha, the property of Grand Duke of Saxe Coburg Gotha, the Queen's brother-in-law, where they will remain some time in strict seclusion, and be joined by Prince of Wales. The Queen will travel incognito as Duchess of Lancaster.

QUEEN'S SQUARE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We have to congratulate the congregation of this Church in the success which has attended their efforts to obtain the services of a settled Pastor in the person of the Rev. A. Falconer. The Rev. gentleman, we are informed, is a very young man, an eloquent and effective preacher. He is a native of Nova Scotia, and completed his studies in one of the Scottish Universities, from which he retired last autumn. His settlement is a most harmonious one—the call being signed by all the adherents of the Church. We understand the Rev. gentleman had also a call from West St. Peter's, and we regret the disappointment of the people of that locality, among whom we have many warm personal friends.

ARRIVAL OF THE ADMIRAL.—H. M. S. Nile, bearing the flag of His Excellency Vice Admiral Sir Alexander Milne, arrived at this port on Saturday last. She was accompanied by H. M. S. Medea. The Montreal 'Gazette' of Thursday states that the Provincial Government are now engaged in organizing an Active Volunteer Militia Force of 30,000 men, to be paid, armed and clothed; also, that it is their intention, when this is completed to endeavor to organize another force of 30,000 volunteers, to be armed and clothed only.

TEMPTING BRITISH SOLDIERS TO DESERT.

TORONTO, Canada, Aug. 6.—The captain and the crew of the steamer Madison were arrested to-day, charged with inducing British soldiers to enlist in the American service.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

HIS LATE VISIT TO AMERICA.

The visit of the eldest son of Queen Victoria, Albert Edward (Busichi) Prince of Wales, to Canada and the United States, forms an epoch, not only in the history of this country and Great Britain, but is an event long to be remembered by all who witnessed it, and which will have a lasting and salutary influence in the affairs of all the nations of the Globe. That he should have been loyally and enthusiastically received and greeted, as he truly was, in the provinces of his own future dominions, is no mystery. But, in a Republican Government, like the United States, where a degree of backwardness and reserve from political considerations might reasonably have been expected, that his reception everywhere should have been one of the most cordial and enthusiastic on the records of this, or any other country, is a most wonderful and interesting event, and, to many, a problem which they cannot understand.

Although the government of Great Britain is the freest and best constitutional monarchy on the face of the earth, the Prince's welcome and cordial greeting among us is no criterion by which to judge of the love of the American people for that form of government. It was a free ovation, rising spontaneously from the hearts of the people, and the universal sentiment of the nation for the unexampled virtues and moral excellence of his illustrious mother, the noblest, best, and most estimable female sovereign that ever filled a throne in this or any other age. England has produced many great and good men (as well as women) not only of royal and noble blood, but in the more humble, yet equally useful walks of life—many whose scientific attainments and professional skill place them in the first ranks as benefactors of their race. These reflections vividly remind us of an article which lately appeared in the "Ohio Prescriptionist" in which the writer speaks in the most exalted and glowing terms of the celebrated English Professor, Dr. Thomas Holloway, whose praise is on the lips of every one in that region for the unexampled benefit he has bestowed not only on them but the entire human family, in the production of his matchless Pills and unrivalled Ointment, for the cure not only of the diseases peculiar to that bilious and enervating climate, but those engendered in more elevated regions, and which often partake of a more malignant and obstinate character.

He informs us that they have been found wonderfully successful even in cases of paralysis, apoplexy and rush of blood to the head as well as in cases of stagnation and obstruction of the circulation.

The Pills purify and remove all bilious affections and other deleterious agencies from the blood, render its circulation free and natural, and, in a very short time, restore the whole system to its wonted vigor and healthfulness. Such is the estimation in which they are held in that region that all those who have once experienced their beneficial effects, are sure to keep a supply of them on hand for immediate use, whenever required —Angelica News.

"Tell me, angelic host, ye messengers of love, shall swindled printers here below have no redress above?" The shining angel band replied, "To us is knowledge given; delinquents of the printers' books can never enter heaven."

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Holloway's Pills.—Vitiated bile. The present weather is productive of constant bilious derangement, which, when neglected, induces Fever. Holloway's Pills are the best regulators of the liver, and their cheapness places them within the easy reach of all. They exercise the most absolute purifying power over the blood, and all the secretions, and wonderfully improve the appetite. They likewise strenghten the stomach and ensure the full and natural action to all the digestive organs without fretting and weakening the system. They effectually prevent all flatulency and griping. Nothing ever equalled Holloway's Pills for warding off, or curing, the many maladies so prevalent and dangerous during the change of seasons. They always impart health to the body and mind.

His mortal remains were interred at Fort Augustus on Saturday last amidst a large concourse of relations and friends, among whom were several Clergymen, who had assembled from the neighbouring districts to assist at the last sad ceremonies performed in honor of one whom all regarded as a youthful levite of extraordinary piety, excellence and worth. BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

BRITISH REVIEWS.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:—

1
THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative).

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig).

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church).
4
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal).
5
BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these Periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

J. S. CARVELL.
Charlottetown, Feb. 10. tf

[EXTRACTS FROM NEWSPAPERS.]

On reference to a return made to Parliament, and ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, 7th June, 1861, it will be seen that the increase of Duty for the year, paid by the "QUEEN," was £2567, being upwards of £1000 more than paid by any other office ever yet established in this City.

[From Gore's General Advertiser, Oct. 24, 1861.]

"Indeed, we believe that we are perfectly justified in saying that no other Company, within the same period, ever attained so large an income in either the Fire or Life Departments as the Queen Insurance Company. In making this statement, we make no exception even in favor of our older local companies, namely, the Liverpool and London, the Royal, and the Lancashire Insurance Companies."

[From the Civil Service Gazette, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"Among these important institutions stands eminent for its solidity, as well as for its success, 'the Queen Insurance Company,' which last week held its annual meeting of proprietors in Liverpool. A reference to the ample report in another page will fully satisfy every reader of the signal progress made by this association since its foundation. Such success is, indeed, rarely attained; and it attests at once the excellence of its management, and the public confidence in its constitution."

[From the Liverpool Mercury, Nov. 2, 1861.]

"It must be gratifying to the public generally, and especially to the proprietors, to find that its income during the past three years has increased at the rate of £20,000 per annum. We believe that no other Company, within the same short period, ever attained so large an increase either in the Fire or Life Department. This speaks highly for the activity and zeal of the management, while the promptness with which all the claims, arising out of the late disastrous fire in London were met, testifies to their financial ability and the care and prudence which marked the investment of these funds."
