Girls, Don't Marry in a Hurry.

Young girls, wait until you are at least twenty-five before you think of marrying. All tastes change between the ages of sixteen and thirty. The books you read, the games you enjoy, the milliners' skill you trust to, the friendship you cultivate, all are changing; why should not the tastes and fancies of the soul? The age that feeds upon Mrs. Southworth and Mrs. Holmes is vastly unlike the age that demands stronger mental food. The hero you are ready to worship at eighteen will not be a hero to you, ten chances to one, at twenty-eight.

Wait until your tastes settle and the possibilities within you have found their level before you fix upon an unalterable destiny. For I tell you, whether it brings sorrow or joy, the choice you make is an irrevocable one. The moon may go back and be a crescent ere the first quarter is reached, the rose re-enfold itself within the calyx of the bud, or the sultry moon renew the freshness of the dawn before the circle of the day is spanned, with greater ease than a woman can resume the lightness of her maiden fancies after the die of her wedded lot is cast.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Bound to bring trade if low prices will do it. Think of it. Prowse Bros. will for 15 days give a special disct. of 20 per cent of their wonderful low prices on children's clothing. Now is the time to buy when you can buy less than manufacturers' prices.

M. P. P.—The M. P. P. Co., of Truro, have issued a compact little circular of testimonials received by them in praise of Malto Peptonized Porter. There can be no doubt now of the success of this wonderful medicine and as success is never achieved unless by sterling worth our readers may be certain that M. P. P. is a first class thing.

To the Public.—We have not been in business long enough to advertise a discount sale, nor have we any necessity to do so, as our goods are all new and have been bought low for cash, and we have marked them at prices that do not require large discounts to make them sell. We wish further to state that we will not be undersold by any house in the trade,—Fennell & Chandler.

The Telephone Company
—OF—
P. E. ISLAND.

Parties using the Telephones would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:—

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear, just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

If is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you shout loud enough, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a useless waste of wind and lungs, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
