

was, therefore, to underpin the old cable—re-... in the Princess to Shimio, if Captain Evans would kindly allow him to go on board the Mohavee—now close at hand—in Temple, to make his final arrangements with Mr. Temple, a leading Engineer of the Expedition. Capt. Evans, with his usual courtesy, at once acceded to Mr. Field's request, and one of the Terrible's boats was prepared to convey Mr. Field to the Mohavee. His Excellency and the other gentlemen from Charlottetown accompanied Mr. Field to that vessel, and had there an opportunity of examining the machinery so recently used for picking up the Atlantic Cable of 1865, as also that for paying out the Cable. It will be remembered that the Mohavee took a prominent part, during the late expedition, both in laying the Cable of 1866 and recovering that of 1865; specimens of both these cables were presented by Mr. Field to His Excellency. Mr. Field left the Mohavee a little before six o'clock, and hearty cheers from the crew, and went on board the Princess of Wales, which conveyed him in two hours to Summerside; thence a little after midnight the Princess sailed for Shelburne—arriving there in time for the morning train to Saint John. Mr. Field hoped to be in New York early this week.

His Excellency having accompanied Mr. Field to Summerside, returned thence at once to Charlottetown, reaching Government House about 5 o'clock on Saturday morning. It is believed that Mr. Field will recommend a large reduction in the present scale of transmitting messages by the Atlantic Cable, and that before long the traffic will be lowered 50 per cent. High though the charge is, the facility of instant communication with another Continent would appear to be very generally taken advantage of. Telegrams are not confined to Merchants, Diplomats, Newspaper correspondents, or Governments. The Emperor of Mexico lately addressed the Empress at Paris in a telegram, the length of which extended to a letter. There were upwards of 100 words and being in cypher, each word was charged two guineas. It thus became a very costly private communication.

VOICE FROM HEAVEN.

In the light of God,
His likeness stamps my brow,
Thro' the shadow of death my feet have trod,
And I reign in glory now.
No heaving heart is here,
No keen and thrilling pain,
No wasted cheek, and the frequent tear,
No shuddering and left its stain.
I have found the joy of heaven,
I am one of the angel band,
To my head a crown of gold is given,
And a harp is in my hand!
I have learned the song they sing
When Jesus hath set free;
And the glorious words of heaven still ring
With my new-born melody!
No sin, no grief, no pain,
Safe in my happy home,
My fears all fled, my doubts all slain,
My hour of triumph come!
O friends of mortal years,
The trusted and the true!
Ye are walking still in the vale of tears,
But I wait to welcome you.
Do you mourn when another star
Shines out from the glittering sky?
Do you weep when the raging voice of war
And the storms of conflict die?
Then your hearts be so very true,
For another gem in the Saviour's crown,
And another soul in heaven!
