YORK POINT W. I.

The March meeting of the York Point W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Joan Sanderson with thirteen members and one visitor present.

The meeting opened by singing "School Days" followed by the credo in unison. A solo was answered with an Irish Joke. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Reports were read from the various committees.

It was decided that the proceeds from the next card party be given towards Cornwall hall. Secretary and Treasurer were asked to get remittances.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Wilfred MacKinley. Roll call to be answered with an article new or used for Red Cross. Lunch committee, Mrs. Collin MacPhail and Mrs. Wendell Dockendorf.

ST. CHARLES C.W.L.

The St. Charles Parish Council of the Catholic Women's League held their regular monthly meeting on March 28th, at 2 p.m. Mrs. William Cahill presided.

Meeting opened with prayer led by the director, Rev. Charles Gallant. Mrs. Rossiter from Morell, organizer for Kings County was present at the meeting.

Rev. Charles Gallant spoke to the women and welcomed Mrs. Rossiter. She then gave an address. She asked to approach all women in the Parish to become members. She also clearly outlined how to elect new officers for the coming year, and gave many other helpful ideas.

It was then moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be extended to Mrs. Rossiter. The Press and Radio convenor was asked to write to the Sacred Heart program asking to have the program on again at nine instead of seven. It seems that seven doesn't seem to be a suitable time.

The treasurer reported two dollars had been given for school prizes during education week, and fifteen dollars, made at the last card party. It was decided to send for a treasurer's book.

Three girls from the parish attended the retreat at Notre Dame convent in Charlottetown, and the C.W.L. agreed to pay part of their expenses.

Janie came by then from her house across the lane. "An evening like this makes one think of the frogs' tunes," she smiled. "Not that we want to hear them yet, do we? In any event not in April," she said.

"Lunch?" James queries sleepily from the couch, his hand dropping from a clasped position on his chest to rest on old Blackie's head on the rug below. "Oh, I don't know, Ellen. A bite of anything. A glass of milk perhaps and a Hot Cross Bun. I guess" he says rising "The night is no longer young, is it?"

Until tomorrow — — — Diary Good-night.
