VOL. 6.

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1879.

NO. 2.

Hewson, McDougall & Seaman

BE leave to acknowledge thanks to the public generally for the very liberal patronage extended to them since commencing business, and intimate that they have on hand a large and select stock of material for the manufacture of Sleighs, etc. They have recently received photos of all the latest prize sleighs of the Ottawa Exhibition. Parties requiring new sleighs would do well to call at their factory and examine before ordering elsewhere.

They keep on hand and make to order Top Buggies, Phaetons, the famous Dexter Spring Wagons, and carriages of every description. Repairing of all kinds done with neatness and despatch, and warranted to give satisfaction to those who favor them with a call, at prices to suit the times.

N. B.—Parties having their Sleighs repaired and painted would do well to leave them at once in order to have them in time for the first snow.

Wagons stored at moderate charges. Parties having their wagons repaired and painted in the spring will have them stored free of charge for the winter.

[FOR THE EXAMINER.]

The Brooch of Lorne.

Relic of the mighty dead,
Of ages that are gone,
When Scotland shook, beneath the tread,
Of marshalled hosts by Edward led,
To grasp the Scottish throne!
Old Scotia in her darkest hour,
Did foes and traitors spurn,
Her sons still battled for the right,
Led by the Chieftan Wallace wight,
And Bruce, of Bannockburn,

Heirloom of a nation's hope,
And of a nation's fears,
Witness of its greatest joy,
And of its bitterest tears,
Say: did you shield her hero's breast
On that eventful morn,
Dunolly's vengeful clansman grasped
Thee, Brooch of Lorne.

Down the silent stream of time
The centuries have passed,
And each succeeding cycle seems
Brighter than the last.
No more on Scotia's purple hills,
Or in the silent glen,
Is heard the murderous battle shout
Or tramp of armed men;
Peace and plenty o'er her plains
On every breeze is borne;
Once more by Royal fingers pressed,
Gleams on Victoria's Queenly breast,
The Brooch of Lorne.

SCOTSMAN.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADIAN.

MONTREAL, Nov. 20.

Hon. Mr. Robertson has been elected by six hundred and fifty, Hon. Mr. Lynch by three hundred and thirty-two, and Hon. Mr. Paquet by seven hundred and four, majority.

OTTAWA, Nov. 20.

Cablegrams received here indicate the British feeling to be intense against Russia. It is deemed probable that the result of the present difficulties will be the formation of alliances between Britain, Germany and Austria, vs. Russia, France and Italy.

The Citizen this morning states authoritatively the visit of the Princess is not in the interest of any company.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.

A cablegram announces the burning, at Singapore, of the British steamer Bremer Castle, while completing loading a cargo for New York. Seven hundred tons of teas, silks, spices and tin, taken aboard at Japan and Chinese ports, were destroyed, and seven hundred tons were saved. The whole cargo was valued at three-quarters of a million of dollars and falls on the New York underwriters.

IRELAND.

LONDON, Nov. 19.

Michael Davitt and James Bryce Killen have been arrested in Dublin, charged with having used language in public speeches calculated to incite a breach of the peace, and James Daly, editor of the Connaught Telegraph, has been arrested in Castlebar for a similar cause.

DUBLIN, Nov. 19.

The Irish Times states that the arrests of Davitt, Killen and Daly were effected very quickly. Davitt and Killen arrived at Sligo this afternoon. At several stations along the railway extra policemen were on duty. The prisoners will be brought before a resident magistrate and formally remanded to Sligo jail pending a special magisterial sitting in a few days, when one of the Crown law officers will conduct the prosecution. Killen asserts that he cannot understand his arrest, as he considered his speech entirely within the bounds of the law.

LONDON, Nov. 19.

The Home Rule Executive Committee at a meeting in London to-day, O'Connor Power presiding, passed a resolution protesting against the arrest of Davitt, Daly and Killen, while defending the rights of the Irish tenantry. The meeting also resolved to call upon Irishmen in Great Britain to establish local defence committees to collect funds to secure a fair trial for the prisoners.

LATER.

DUBLIN, Nov. 19.

The prisoners have been remanded until Monday to await the production of important witnesses. Bail was refused. Representatives of the press were excluded from the preliminary magisterial inquiry. It is anticipated that the Solicitor General or Law Adviser to the Crown will conduct the prosecution on Monday.

LONDON, Nov. 19.

A public meeting to denounce the arrests of the Irish prisoners will be held in Dublin on Friday. Edmund Dwyer Gray, Liberal Home Rule member of Parliament for Tipperary, will preside. Mr. Charles Stewart Parnell and several other members of Parliament will attend. The central news agency says that seventeen warrants have been issued for the arrest of other persons charged with seditious conduct, including several clergymen.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

The Hanlan-Courtney race has fizzled again. The Queen likes the cold weather of Scotland.

The czar returns to St. Petersburg on the 4th of December.

The union of the various Irish Societies of Montreal is being discussed.

Since General Grant landed at San Francisco he has made eighteen speeches.

The report that yellow fever had reappeared at Memphis is officially denied.

All Russian officers on leave have been ordered to join their regiments immediately.

The mother of Ex-Empress Eugene of France is seriously ill, and the ex-Empress has started for Madrid.

The Pope and Papal Secretary censure the attacks of the Belgian Bishops on the constitution of Belgium.

Some swindlers in Montreal have altered one dollar Dominion notes into fours, and are passing them off on unsuspecting people.

Mr. Theodore Martin has postponed the publication of his last volume of the "Life of the Prince Consort," until next year.

All London morning journals approve of the arrests in Ireland, except the News, which makes them the occasion of violent attacks.

Messrs. Moody and Sankey will begin revival work at St. Louis in two weeks, and will continue it there through the winter.

Professor Baird, the federal fish commissioner, intends to establish a station for the scientific investigation of fishes at Belfast, Me.

Miss Josephine Meeker, daughter of the late Indian agent who was killed by the Utes, has been offered a clerkship in the Interior Department by Secretary Schurz.

Mr. Dwight Whiting, a citizen of Boston, has gone to South Africa to purchase one hundred ostriches for his farm in the San Joaquin Valley in California.

The Governor-General has presented two medals, one gold and the other silver, to be competed for by the students of McGill College.

On the farm of Isaac Emerson, in Winthrop, Me., has been found what may prove quite a valuable gold mine. Specimens analysed are rich in the metal.

The total number of emigrants from the Ottawa city section of the Ottawa Valley to Manitoba and Western States, during the past season, was 1,834.

Owing to the prevalence of highway robberies, the people of Edgewood, N. Y., have established picket guards on every road in the place for night duty.

As existing treaties between the United States and several nations guarantee trade mark protection, the legislation on the subject will be free from constitutional objections.

The frigate Egeria has been ashore near Pahlhoi, where she was sent to protect British interests. A considerable portion of the false keel was wrenched off, and she will have to be docked.

Thomas Martin, news dealer, Market street, Brantford, Ont., committed suicide by shooting himself through the head on Tuesday. Business cares are said to have been the cause.

There are 500 cases of diarrhoea in the Kentucky penitentiary, and a large number of hands have knocked off work in the hemp department. The physicians are unable to determine the immediate cause of the disease.

The London "Sportsman" has received news from Canada that Hanlan has definitely decided to visit England during the winter if he can be assured of a match. He will be in England in January and would prefer to row in March.

The English Colonial Office, replying to a memorial against the exclusion of missionaries from Zululand, has promised to inform Sir Garnet Wolseley, that it is desirable that any interference with missionary operations must be avoided.

A Philadelphia despatch states that the survivors of Farragut's fleet have organized a Farragut Association. The object is to secure a flag for the capture of New Orleans in April, 1862, and decreed to them by the U. S. Supreme Court.

U. S. Postmaster General Key estimates that his department will need an appropriation of $10,000,000 for the next fiscal year owing to the increase of business. He recommends the passage of a law providing a penalty for persons assaulting or maltreating a postmaster while in the discharge of his duty.

Mr. McTavish, the Hudson Bay Company's agents at Winnipeg, says it is expected that 40,000 people will emigrate to the North West next year. The Hudson's Bay Company are making strong efforts to further the cause of settlement, and half a million acres of their land have been surveyed in the townships laid out by the Dominion Government.

The Spanish Cabinet Council, presided over by King Alfonso, have determined that the marriage of the King with the Arch-Duchess Marie Christine will be solemnized on the 29th of the present month. The court festivities will be on a splendid scale, including receptions, gala performances at public places of amusements, banquets, bull-fights and national dances.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says that the Government have been placed in possession of much information by landlords in connection with the rent agitation in Ireland which, for obvious reasons, the landlords cannot make public. These statements show that many tenants who are willing to pay are kept from doing so by fear of outrage from others who cannot or will not pay.
