THE WESLEYAN BAZAAR.

We regret we were unable to attend this Bazaar, owing to absence from town. It commenced on Wednesday and closed on Friday evening. Judging by the amount realized from the sale of the fancy articles, £475, it must have been a very successful and interesting gathering. It is proposed to devote this sum towards the erection of a new Mission House on the site of the old Wesleyan Chapel in Charlottetown. Every one who attended the Bazaar speaks in the highest terms of the attractions it presented. All those elegant trifles which female taste and ingenuity so well know how to devise, filled the stalls of the fair amateur shop-keepers; and few were the customers who staid to examine but were blandished into buying. All who did not go to this Bazaar must go to the one for next year. They lost a great treat and stupendous bargains. To be sure, they would certainly have lost a portion of their superfluous cash, but then, there is no time when a person "of the male persuasion" feels more pleasure in being victimised than he does at those fancy stalls, where the presiding genii are a thousand times more attractive than their fancy wares.

PUBLIC TEA AT ST. PETER'S.

A public Tea, in aid of the funds of the Presbyterain Church at St. Peter's, was given on Wednesday last. The place selected was a beautiful field on rising ground, nearly opposite the Presbyterian Church. The day turned out very fine, and although the road was quite wet from the early morning showers, there was a very large concourse of people on the ground at an early hour—some of them having come long distances in various directions. Ample provision was made for the entertainment of all. The cake was of the choicest quality, and in great abundance. The ladies were indefatigable in their exertions in serving tea, and the Managing Committee manifested great efficiency and zeal in their labors to promote the comfort and happiness of their numerous guests. We understand that about a thousand persons sat down to tea —(there was considerably more than that number on the ground,) and the amount realized was about ninety pounds. After the Tea, and before the sale of the Cake, addresses were delivered by the Rev. Henry Crawford—(the popular and esteemed pastor of the Church at St. Peter's,) by the Rev. Mr. McLean, Rev. Mr. Cameron, and several other gentlemen. It was, indeed, a very pleasant social gathering. The Catholics of Morell and St. Peter's attended in considerable force; and their friends of other denominations were rejoiced to welcome them, and they mingled with each other, as we hope they always will, in terms of fraternal regard.

THE TWELFTH JULY.

The Orangemen of this Island celebrated the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, by walking in procession through the streets of Charlottetown, on Friday last. They had their customary flags, whatever they symbolise, and they had the irrepressible Johnny Maloney and Mister Kilpatrick, with their "yaller" cotton handkerchiefs, sticking out of their tails, to grace the procession. Orangemen say there were five hundred souls in the procession; others say there were scarcely four hundred. However, let us take the highest number, and it will be granted that five hundred miserably represent the Protestant population of the country, which now does not count under fifty thousand souls. What good object there can be in having a procession of this kind, we do not understand. The Orangemen well know that such displays are extremely offensive to the Catholic community, and the Catholics have done nothing, are doing nothing, to provoke such offence. Unfortunately, it was not in the power of the Provincial or the Civic authorities to prevent such a procession; such foolish displays can only be frowned out of fashion by a healthy, honest and indignant public opinion. The procession was remarkable for one thing—the total absence of every person of high character and influence. The Tenant Leaguers, in the hey-day of their power, made a far better display. The object of the Tenant Leaguers was quite comprehensible, and although they pushed their views somewhat extravagantly, they had generally common sense on their side. What is the object of the Orange Walk? The Protestant religion, for which Orangemen affect so much zeal, is in the safest of keeping,—the Catholics, of whom they pretend to have such a horror, are very far from being aggressive. The display, therefore, of Friday, was simply ridiculous and gratuitously offensive. The time for such foolery has long since passed away; and it was gratifying to observe that very few intelligent and really respectable men compromised their characters by countenancing the procession of Friday last. It was a thing laughed at all overtown,—the Orangemen themselves felt that they were making fools of themselves; they walked with a downcast, sullen, air, as if they knew they were doing a thing they ought to be ashamed of. They afforded a little laughter for an hour, and then they passed, like all such rubbish, into a contemptuous oblivion. So let them rest.

PASS THE RASCAL ROUND.

"A paragraph has been going the rounds of the City papers to the effect that a certain Mr. McGillivary, of King's County, had recently a barn burned; the whole story turns out to be a hoax, and has been used by the scoundrel as a means of raising money in the way of charity. The fountains of charity—which never flow too freely in cases of real need—will very soon get dried up unless some means is devised of punishing those vagabonds who deceive the public as to their real state, or who employ the money they obtain by begging to debase themselves with strong drink."

We clip the above from the last Patriot. Andrew McGillivary called at our office with a written petition, representing the great loss he had sustained by fire, and sympathising with him on his supposed loss, we gave him a few shillings. We have reason to believe the unprincipled scamp imposed on many others in this City. We warn the public to beware of the impostor.—Islander.

The fellow whose name is above gibbetted came to us with his petition. We told him we believed it was not genuine; for while the document itself was quite fresh—evidently not many hours old—the names, which were pasted on it, and not in a single instance written upon it, were much soiled, dilapidated, apparently very old, and we felt that they were torn from some old document merely to serve M'Gillivray's dishonest purpose. We told him to get a certificate from the Minister of the District, or from his representatives, and if it could be shown that he was really a sufferer, he would no doubt be relieved. Will not the honest people in that part of the country wherein the rascal exists, and which he disgraces by his presence, punish his rascality in any and every way which the law will allow them to do it? M'Gillivary represented himself as coming from some settlement near Montague.

The Prince of Wales College Examination took place at that Institution on Thursday last. It was well attended, we understand, by ladies and gentlemen of the City, and the various classes underwent a searching and successful examination. The Patriot of Saturday night contains a detailed account of this interesting event. It came too late to us to be made available for our present No., but we will cheerfully transfer the whole account to our columns for our next issue.

Theatre—Market Hall.—Mr. M. W. Fiske, the popular manager and Comedian, will give his first entertainment here on Tuesday evening, July 16th. His corps of Dramatic Artists are the best in the profession—Ladies and gentlemen of talent and ability. His first play will be the thrilling Temperance Drama in 4 acts by T. S. Arthur, entitled, "Ten nights in a Bar Room." This really beautiful play will be produced with appropriate scenery, music, &c. Mr. Fiske has gone to an immense expense in getting up the Hall for the great moral drama, and he hopes his efforts to please the ladies and gentlemen of this city will be remunerative.

Get the Best Value for your Money. —We would recommend all those who are desirous of securing the best value for their money to call upon Robert Young. See advertisement. His motto is, all goods marked in plain figures, and no second price.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

FIRES IN NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI.

[From the Miramichi Gleaner.]

The fire in Newcastle, on Thursday afternoon, was of the most serious character—laying waste all that block of buildings lying north of the public square and bounded by Water street and Castle street. The fire originated in a building occupied by Mrs. Sullivan, and no doubt was the result of intemperance, as the woman was lying in the house in a state of intoxication, and the room on fire around her.

From this house it soon communicated to the adjacent buildings, until the whole triangular range was on fire. It was thought for some time that the large brick building on the corner, owned by Hon. Edward Williston, would escape, but the intense heat melted the lead on the roof, loosened the tiles and communicated with the wood-work of the frame, it also was soon in one mass of flame. Every exertion was made by the fire department and the people generally; all worked energetically, but the long draught had parched everything to tinder, the flames despite every effort, made rapid progress. It was by the most determined and continuous efforts that the buildings on the opposite sides of the streets, facing two sides of the triangle, were saved. They were frequently on fire, but fortunately by extraordinary efforts and the greatest vigilance, all escaped with no other injury than having the fronts much scorched. Several houses north of Water street, and two back in rear of the front range, were on fire several times from the falling cinders. The Mechanics' Institute and the old Methodist Chapel had a narrow escape from the same cause, and it was only by manning these buildings, and quenching the cinders as they fell, that prevented a general conflagration of the town.

The following is a list of the buildings burnt: Dwelling house occupied by Mrs. Sullivan; dwelling house owned by the Harkins estate, occupied by Mr. McKirnan; dwelling house owned and occupied by Mrs. Flannigan; dwelling house owned and occupied by Francis Carter; saddlers' shop owned by Mr. King, occupied by Casey; dwelling house and store owned by Mrs. Begnall; large dry good store occupied by Joseph Hays; Harkin's dwelling house and store, occupied by McIntyre; dwelling house owned and occupied by P. Morrison: brick store and office owned by Hon. Edward Williston; three barns.

I understand that with the exception of Hon. E. Williston's brick building all these houses are insured. I have not learned the amount on each or any, but outside of the insurance there will be a large loss in the destruction of property, which, in the confusion, was strewn in all directions, tumbled over the wharves on the mud flat, &c., &c., for unfortunately the tide was very low at the time.

About eleven o'clock at night, some fiend (for one can't call him by any other name) attempted to fire the new Store occupied by Messrs. Tozer & Watt; fortunately the fire was discovered before it made much headway. Three scoundrals were also seen breaking in the windows of the store, but made their escape in the darkness before being recognized. Two or three others were sent to gaol by the authorities during the fire. In consequence of a new cable being laid across the river and the work not fully completed, there was no telegraphic communication to Chatham, and therefore we were deprived of the assistance of the fire company in that town. The Douglastown Engine was sent up as promptly as possible, Mr. Hutchinson being in Newcastle when the fire broke out, but the fire had made such progress before it arrived, that it was impossible to do more than to save the houses on the opposite side of the streets.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, two dwelling houses and barns, owned by Messrs. W. M'Masters and W. Taylor, were burnt to the ground. We have not heard whether the buildings were insured.—St John Telegarph, July 9.

A Melancholy Occurrence.—On Friday the 8th June a schooner from Arichat laden with coal struck on a rock along the Eastern Shore. She immediately hoisted a flag of distress, and put into Ecum Secum, County Guysborough, in a leaking condition. Three young men at once set off with a boat to render some assistance. Upon reaching the vessel one of the young men leaped on board, leaving the other two in the boat and fastening her with a long rope. There being a pretty heavy sea at the time, and the vessel sailing very fast, the boat was upset and two men jumped into the Schrs. boat. She immediately filled with water and the two were washed over. After struggling for a time to rescue themselves, and no aid reaching them, they went down embraced in each other's arms, and met with a watery grave. One of these men has left a widow and three children to mourn his sad loss. The other, a young man of promise, was the stay and support of the family, sank in front of his father's house. Diligent search was immediately made for the bodies, but they were not found until the following Sabbath, and were buried on Monday.—Halifax Sun.

The great Reform Convention at Toronto came off on 27th ult. It was held in the Music Hall, and comprised about 600 delegates of Liberals, consisting of Reform members of Parliament, Reform candidates for the General and Local Legislatures, office-bearers of Reform Associations, Editors of Reform journals, and delegates from municipalities throughtout the Province of Ontario, assembled in response to a call from the Executive Committee of the Reform Association of Upper Canada.—Ib.

It is rumored that one of the Judges who presides in the Supreme Court, Montreal, has petitioned the Government to be permitted to forsake the bench and assume some other office under the new order of things.

The price of flour has again fallen some 25 per cent, within the last few days, and the price of bread 10 per cent., which will admit of a still further and speedy reduction.

Religious Madness.—Mr. Dow has just informed us, that a whole family by the name of Smith, living on the Nashwaak road, have been seized with a religious madness. He says, from the father down to the youngest boy, they are all mad, and all tell the same story, that they heard the last trumpet sounding some days ago, and they are now in the first, second and third heaven. The neighbors say they have eaten nothing for nearly a week, and have neglected all matters of farming and household work, declaring that they have no further need for sublunary arrangements. Evidently they require the application of straight-jackets or hickory switches, the sooner our authorities apply the one or the other the better.—Fredericton Reporter.

Personal.—We are informed that Rev. G. A. Macnutt, of this city, has received a unanimous call from the Alexander Street Church of Toronto, Ontario, to become their pastor, at a salary of $1,200 per annum. This church was organized a short time ago; but it has just completed a most elegant chapel, and its onward course indicates intense earnestness in the Master's work. Our Brother Macnutt is impressed with the idea that as the call was unsought for on his part, that it must be Providential; and, therefore, that it is his duty to accept it.—St. John Visitor.

The Colonial Treasurer has kindly favored us with the following particulars relative to the state of the Savings Bank established in 1864. The sum remaining on deposit on 30th June was £11,750 18s. The deposits since the 1st January amounted to £4,153 9s. 7d., of which £3791 9s. were withdrawn in the same period. Total number of depostors 557, which gives an average to each of over £21 bearing interest. The Savings Bank has proved to be both a useful and successful institution. Last year the one per cent which the Government charge for managing it, nearly paid its whole working expenses. Days of Deposit—Tuesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 3 o'clock, p.m.—Pat.

The Irish Volunteers held their annual Pic Nic on Wednesday last, near Hickey's Wharf, East River, where Captain Kelly's Company and other friends joined them. The Amateur Band and the Heather Belle were secured for the occasion, the latter carrying over 630 excursionists from the city. In the evening the Irish Volunteers had a large party in the Drill Shed.—Pat.

A Cricket Match was played between the Confederates and Anti-Confederates on Saturday last. The latter, who were the challenged party, had the first Innings and scored 91. Their opponents then took the bats, and in their first innings made 26, and in the second 21, which gave the Confederates an easy victory. The return match was to have been played on the following Thursday, but the Confederates, somehow or other, were not ready.—Pat.

We regret to learn by Telegraph from Summerside that two young men, named Donald Patterson, son of the Rev. R. S. Patterson, and Mr. Ramsay, clerk at Mr. R. T. Holman's, were drowned last night at ten o'clock. They were upset from a small flat. Several others were with them in the boat, but they were saved. All the shops in Summerside are closed to-day. —Ib.

A frightful accident recently occurred at Tola, an Austrian seaport on the Adriatic, in experimenting with nitro-glycerince for military purposes. The first shell, filled with this substance burst in the gun, destroying it, and blowing two men to pieces who were loading it. It frightfully disfigured the face of the corvette captain, Count Von Kielmansegge, fractured the leg of a captain, and rendered the colonel and another official deaf.

Every Man his own Fire Brigade.

"A little fire is quickly put out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench"—Vide Mr. Cardwell in the British House of Commons.

L'EXTINCTEUR,

A new Portable, self-acting Fire Engine, for the Extinguishing of fires in their early stages.

This little Engine can be carried on the back to any desired spot; throws a small stream of water, impregnated with eight times its volume of carbonic acid gas, which is the most simple and most effective means yet known to science for destroying fire. They have the advantage of being always ready for use. All that is necessary in applying them is to turn the tap with one hand and with the other direct the stream upon the flame. The cost of them is but trifling, ranging from $18 to $35. They are also made in copper, up to $60. They are indispensable for houses, stores, warehouses, factories, public offices, halls, &c., &c.

Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Notice is HERBY GIVEN, that in pursuance of Resolutions passed by the Committee of this Society, the Rules and Regulations for the Building and Classification of Wood Ships have been amended, as under, viz:—

Section 39 has been amended, as regards the fitting of diagonal iron plates on the frames of Ships constructed with long and short armed floors, and in this respect will be altered as follows:—

Ships of great length in proportion to their breadth or depth.

All Ships, the length of which (measured from the fore part of the stem to the aft part of the stern-post on the range of upper-deck) shall exceed five times their extreme breadth, or eight times and under nine times their depth, shall have diagonal iron plates closely inserted outside the frame.* The said plates to extend from the upper side of upper tier of beams to the lower part of chocks at first foothook heads amidships, and to the same perpendicular height forward and aft, measured from the lower part of the keel. When Ships are constructed with long and short armed floors, the said plates are to extend to half way between long floor heads and first foothook heads; the size of the plates not to be less than as follows, viz:—

In Ships of 100 tons and under 200 tons, 3¼ by seven-sixteenths inch.

In Ships of 200 tons and under 400 tons 4 by ½ inch.

In ships of 400 tons and under 700 tons, 4½ by ½ in.

In Ships of 700 tons and under 1000 tons 5 by ⅝ in.

In Ships of 1000 tons and under 1500 tons 5¼ by thirteen-sixteenths,

In Ships of 1500 tons and under 2000 tons 6 by ⅞.

In Ships of 2000 tons and above, 6½ by ⅞ in.

and to be fastened with bolts, one at each alternate timber, not less in diameter than the size given for "through butt bolts" in table D. The plates to be well protected by proper coating, likewise the timbers to be coated in the scores which are to receive the said plates.

Section 62 has been also altered in accordance with the above.

Section 46 has been amended, as regards treenails, by requiring that in all cases they shall be "efficiently caulked or wedged."

Table A has been amended by reducing the period of classification of White Cedar for third foothooks and top timbers, to the five years' grade, and omitting this material altogether for main pieces of rudder and windlass.

* Parties objecting to fit the iron plates on frames, as prescribed above, are at liberty to submit through the resident Surveyor, for the Committee's consideration and approval, such compensation as will, in their opinion, render the introduction of the iron plates unnecessary.

By order of the Committee,
GEORGE B. SEYFANG, Sec'y.
