WILL every member of the "Y" please remember the practice in the Baptist Church to-night at 9 o'clock?

TEMPERANCE.—A public temperance meeting will be held in the Baptist Church on Thursday, 18th inst. Mrs. Archibald will speak. Silver collection.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Gates will leave her late residence to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at three o'clock, by carriage to Sherwood Cemetery.

A PUBLIC TEA will be held at Hunter River on Dominion Day. Proceeds will be devoted to paying off the debt on the Methodist Church. Full particulars will be announced in due time.

FAST EXPRESS.—The C. P. R. is running two fast express trains daily between Montreal and Chicago, to which are attached tri-weekly super-lit up tourist cars for which $1.50 only is charged for those desiring berths. This arrangement will be very convenient for those visiting the World's Fair.

P. E. ISLAND FISHERIES.—Good lotter fishing is reported from West Point to North Cape, but poor from that point to Alberton. Fair catches are being made at Malpeque. Herring have been so plentiful at northern stations on the Island that fishermen have abandoned that fishery as the markets are overstocked and fishermen cannot sell surplus stock. Fair catches were made yesterday at Malpeque.

LECTURE.—On his return from Chicago, where he is viewing the splendors of the World's Fair, Mr. J. Heber Haslam, of the C. P. R., will deliver a series of lectures throughout the Island on our western resources. Mr. Haslam has recently added a large number of views to his already excellent collection, and his lecture will doubtless be more interesting than ever.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.—Richard Harding Davis's series of Mediterranean articles will be begun in the next number of Harper's Weekly, published May 17th. The first paper will be entitled "The Rock of Gibraltar," and will be profusely illustrated. The same number of the Weekly will contain, among other notable features, an article entitled "Characteristic Sketches of the German Army," written by an American officer and illustrated by Remington; "Across the Divide," an article on the Niagara Canal, by W. Nephew King, illustrated; illustrations of the Sunday crowd in Chicago, of the German Village, and of the Swedish Building at the World's Fair; a view of the proposed Williamsburg Bridge across the East River; a story by Mrs. Eva Wilder McGlasson, entitled "A Kentucky Wild Flower"; and the usual variety of valuable articles on subjects of current interest.

AN audience that filled the Walnut Street Theatre to the doors greeted Mr. John S. Murphy last evening with a roand of hearty applause when, as Larry Donovan in Shaun Rhoe, he entered the door of the Donovan cottage. There are plays that are eagerly patronized from season to season, whose popularity appears to be never-ending, and the Shaun Rhoe is one of these. The play tells the old, old story of poverty and virtue triumphant over wealth and villainy; but it is so permeated with a rollicking Irish wit that breaks forth spontaneously that the audience never doubts but that eventually the clouds will be cleared away. In the second act, when the heart-broken Larry hangers beside the grave of his mother before leaving the country, Mr. Murphy sings his celebrated song "A Handful of Earth," with touching effect. Mr. Murphy is supported by an excellent company.—Ex. At the Lyceum to-night.

THE MAN WOMAN ADMIRER.—An English magazine lately offered a prize to the best answer to the question "What kind of man does a woman most admire?" The answers vary widely. The one which took the prize has among the requisites of the ideal the following: "The man must interest by uncommonness, either in appearance or manner; or he must have the indescribable quality called charm. He must know his own mind and steadily work thereto, even to masterfulness. He disregards 'they say,' and is not one of a herd. His friends are men—not women. He is only once deceived by the same person. His perhaps heavy temper never runs to unkindness. He has not the abiding peace of common-places. He needs sympathy and solace in a sometimes divine discontent. He abides under no failure, but goes on. His occasional want of success only attaches and rivets his determination."

Cows Had No Water or Food.

THE TERRIBLE CONDITION OF A CARGO OF CATTLE AT NORWALK.

A recent despatch from Norwalk, Ct., reads as follows: State Humane Agent Thralls' attention has been directed to the terrible and most pitiable condition of a cargo of cows which arrived at South Norwalk from Canada this afternoon. They were brought here by a Norwalk farmer and cattle dealer of means, who, it is alleged, packed them all, forty-two in number, into one box car, and so far as can be learned gave them nothing to eat or drink, although they had been several days en route.

The farmer opened the car door himself when the train rolled into the South Norwalk depot. Everyone of the cows was completely exhausted. At least a dozen were dying under the feet of others, being unable to stand, and two were dead. Several were bleeding from many wounds caused by being trodden upon, and in many cases the hair had been almost wholly scraped from their hides.

All were emaciated, their bones almost protruding through the skin, in mute evidence of the great suffering they had been subjected to. The car emitted a horrible stench, and the floor was covered several inches deep with most nauseating filth.

When released the cows ate and drank ravenously. Less than half of the cattle can live. All have been quarantined for fear they may spread contagious diseases.

PREACHING.—Mr. Daniel McLean will preach (D. V.) at North River on Sabbath, 21st inst., at 10.30 a. m., New Glasgow Road 2.30 p. m., and at Hunter River, if the Church is not occupied, at 6.30 p. m.

ANOTHER FACTORY.—Amherst is to have still another factory, Christie Bros. & Co. having decided to start a trunk factory. The contract for the building has already been let.
