Carols In The Kirk By Candlelight

As the sun was sinking into the scarlet west of a perfect winter's day a large congregation gathered yesterday in the old Kirk of St. James to sing the carols of Christmas and join in the homage of the Vespers of the Saviour's Nativity. The walls of the nave were circled with festoons of spruce and in the chancel stood sentinels of tall fir trees unadorned. The tiny white lights of the chancel rail formed a striking contrast to the sombre green as a warm amber glow played on the Holy Table made beautiful with tapers in golden sconces flanking the snow-white mums. The Rev. T. H. B. Somers, M.A., S.T.M., Minister, led the congregation in the worship and the church organist, Miss E. Lillian McKenzie, Mus. Bac., F.M.C.M., directed the special music for the service.

Following the organ prelude, "Hollis" "Christmas Cradle Song," a choir of boys and girls sang carols from the gallery thus forming a perfect setting for the service which opened with the procession led by the Chancel Choir and congregation. "While shepherds watched their flocks by night." The Christmas Lesson was read from the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Christmas Presentation At The Baptist Church

"Come to the Manger", by Dorothy L. Sumeray, a Christmas Story and Song Service with Scenes and Characters and a Congregational Candle-lighting Service was the Christmas presentation given by the Charlottetown United Baptist Church last evening. The Pastor, conducted the impressive service. The very fine production was a prelude to the offering of White Gifts given by representatives of over thirty of the Church's organizations.

In five brief scenes the story of the Nativity was portrayed: Mary and Joseph in Nazareth preparing for the Bethlehem Journey; Doorway of the Bethlehem Inn with Joseph and the Inn-keeper. The Inn-keeper was not unimpressed by King David's prayer "Lord, keep Thou guard over the Stranger"; The Shepherd's in the Fields; At the Manger. Coming of the Wise Men.

This meaningful and beautiful scriptural drama was exceptionally well enacted. The lighting effects and setting created the pastoral and Bethlehem atmosphere. The costumes were most authentic, having been copied from well-known Biblical paintings. The Senior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. G. Elliott Full provided the musical background. The Carols sung were in keeping with the scenes as they were enacted. Those taking part in order of appearance were: Mary—Maylene Manning; Joseph—Layton Stone; A Voice—Aetha Runtz; Inn-keeper—Percy Ripley; Inn Boy—Robert Scranton; Angel—Iris Lewis; Shepherds—Richard Walton, Ralph Manning, Mark Ladner and Cleveland MacLean; Bethlehem Children—Donna Lea and Dianne MacInnis and Carol Ann Whitcay; Three Wise Men—Ross Aflack, Edwin Cook and Walter MacMurtry.
