

make

you

We are here to help you in your time of need; to offer guidance and assistance. Follow our suggestions and there will be no trouble. You will recognize the advisors we have sent by their freedom-inspiring attire. You have nothing to fear, as long as you agree with us and do not discuss, think, or write about what we are doing. We may even persuade OUR advisors to send up Coca-Cola, in case you forget what real freedom is.
