"ARE YOU READY?"—Read Beer Bros. ad. I. O. O. F.—Wildey Lodge tonight election of officers. I. O. O. F.—A special meeting of St. Lawrence Lodge tonight at 7:30 to make arrangements for the funeral of our late brother, T. L. Chappelle.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NEW PERCH DRYING COMPANY will be held at the factory on Tuesday, the 15th inst., at 2 p.m.—John Hamilton, Secretary. w 21

L. O. L.—Boyer Lodge, No. 614, will meet tonight for the purpose of receiving officers' reports and the election of officers. All members are requested to be present.

SCOTT ACT.—Two Scott Act sentences were issued yesterday. One is for a second offence against Fred. E. Rowe, and the other for a first offence against Catherine Collins. They are returnable on Wednesday next.

BASKET SOCIAL.—The ladies of St. Vincent de Paul sewing circle purpose holding a basket social next month, the money realized at which will go towards the purchase of clothing and material to make clothing for the poor.

FOR THE POOR.—The fourth of the series of entertainments under the auspices of St. Vincent de Paul Society will be given in St. Patrick's Hall on the evening of January 17th next. A choice programme will be presented, and a large audience is expected to attend.

WAS MORE THAN THOUGHTFUL.—Editors, as a rule, are kind-hearted and liberal. An exchange tells of a subscriber who died and left fourteen years' subscription unpaid. The editor of the paper appeared just as the undertaker was screwing down the coffin lid, put in a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm leaf fan and a recipe for making ice.

IN MEMORIAM.—A largely attended meeting of the Sons and Daughters of the Maritime Provinces was held in the hall of Sir John Thompson. Addresses were made dealing with the career of the late lamented statesman and the session in which he was held on both sides of the border, after which resolutions appropriate to the occasion were adopted.

CROPS IN MANITOBA.—The final Manitoba crop bulletin of the year has been issued. The total yield of wheat is placed at 17,172,282 bushels. The oat crop was 12,000,000 bushels, and barley, 3,000,000. The potato crop was 2,000,000 bushels. The export of live stock were 11,000 cattle and 5,000 hogs. The increase in poultry raising was 2,516,200 pounds. There is an increase in poultry raising.

SUBSCRIPTIONS COMING IN.—Subscriptions to the Daily Examiner testimonial fund in the city of Ottawa are coming in in a very encouraging manner. D. O'Connor, Q. C., started a list and in a few days managed to collect over $5,000. This list includes the following: Hon. M. Cowell, Sir A. P. Caron, Sir C. H. Tupper, Hon. J. C. Patterson, Hon. J. A. O'Brien, Hon. Mr. Anger, Sir John A. Macdonald, $500 each; Hon. John Haggart, $250; Hon. John Costigan, $200.

NOR A CARLE FARE.—The Montreal Gazette says: A noticeable demand that the Temperance Company of Toronto should separate and keep distinct the earnings and profits of the territorial and the general section, brought out the statement that the losses of the company have been heaviest among the dry members. This is not what the instigators of the demand expected, and the wiser members see the little custom of taking something for the stomach's sake has had an unexpected little vindication.

THE FORESTERS.—At the last meeting of Court Avondale, the following officers were elected: F. S. Jost, C. R. (re-elected); Donald Fraser, P. C. B. (re-elected); W. E. Scott, V. C. B.; Geo. Worthy, R. S.; Geo. McKenzie, F. S. (re-elected); J. A. Lawson, Treas. (re-elected); R. Corbett, Chap. (re-elected); T. L. Atken, S. W.; Geo. Davidson, S. E.; Chas. McLane, J. B.; Dr. H. D. Johnson, Court Physician (re-elected); Nelson Armour and J. B. McKee, Trustees; Chas. McFarlane and J. B. McKee, Representatives to the High Court; Geo. Davidson and Ewen Stewart, Finance Committee.

MASONS.—The following officers were last evening installed into their respective chairs, Most Worshipful Grand Master Thomas A. McLane officiating. St. John's Lodge, No. 1, W. M., Hector C. McDonald; S. W., F. H. Herr; J. W. Chas. Webster; Treas., Adam Murray; Sec'y., John G. J. Waldron; Chap., Thomas J. Leeming; S. D., William F. Edmarsh; J. D., Daniel Stewart; S. S., Charles H. Chandler; J. S., Joshua White; Marshal, S. W. Macle; J. G., Horace McKewen; Tyler, John Hobbs. Victoria Lodge No. 2: W. M., Bro. Fred Beer; S. W., Chas. I. Morrison; J. W., Ronald McMillan; Treas., John W. Morrison; Sec'y., James R. Davidson; Chap., John A. Lawson; S. D., James D. Taylor; J. D., W. H. F. Gill; Marshal, Walter P. Donl; S. S., Richard McK. Johnson; S. M., W. Nelson; Organist, W. W. Stanley; J. G. C. Battery; Tyler, John Hobbs; Trustee, Harry R. Boyd.

CHRISTMAS IN INDIAN RIVER.—A correspondent writes: In few places was the feast of Christmas celebrated more enthusiastically than in St. Mary's, Indian River. Rev. Mgr. Gillis celebrated mass, and preached an eloquent, impressive and instructive sermon from the gospel of the day. The performance of the choir eclipsed all previous attempts. Battman's opera in C was rendered in a manner that would do honor to professors. The soloists—Messrs. Donahoe and Marco, and Miss McDonald—sang their parts with grand effect. The choir was assisted by an orchestra made up as follows: Violins, J. F. McLellan and M. D. Beady; Clarinet and horn, Professors R. E. Hughes and J. A. Beady; of St. Dunstan's College respectively; organ, Miss Lizzie McDonald. All parts blended into one harmonious whole. The instrumental trio, composed of clarinet, baritone and organ, executed a selection in a very effective manner. Throughout, the ceremony was most impressive. The sacred walls of St. Mary's never resounded sweeter melody. Never were the hearts of the congregation filled with loftier sentiments. Many thanks are due to Miss McDonald, the popular organist, for bringing the choir to such a high degree of perfection; also to Professors Beady and Hughes, who kindly volunteered their assistance. With such a treasure of musical talent as this choir possess, their concert on the evening following New Year's Day cannot fail to be a success.

DEATH OF MR. THEOPHILUS CHAPPELLE.

Sympathy for His Wife and Children.

THAN Mr. Theophilus L. Chappelle few men in Charlottetown were better known. His sudden and unexpected death which occurred shortly after six o'clock last evening at his residence of Mr. Booth Carnegy, Sydney Street, is deeply regretted. The sad occurrence was the main topic of conversation about the streets last evening and much sympathy is expressed for his wife and family of small children so unexpectedly bereft of a fond husband and father.

"Mr. Chappelle came into my place about half past four yesterday afternoon," said Mr. Carnegy to-day. "Seemingly in his usual health and spirits. He asked me what time it was and I told him it was about half past four. He then said he was going home to tea and left the place at once. Just after going out he fell on the sidewalk and hurt his chin. Upon arising he returned to the house. When he came in he looked very pale, and complained of feeling unwell, and asked for an oyster or two. My daughter Maggie gave him an oyster, and I opened four or five more for him, but he only took the one my daughter offered him. There were three other men in my place when Mr. Chappelle came back after falling. A few minutes after taking the oyster he again remarked that he felt bad and his arms stiffened, and he fell to the floor unconscious. I lifted him up and put him upon the chair. He was conscious when I lifted him, and said he would be all right soon and would leave for home. Very soon, however, he took another turn the same as the first and fell off the chair. He soon recovered, but as he was being taken along the hall to the dining-room to lie down on the lounge, he took another turn. After getting him into the dining-room and placing him upon the lounge, I went for Dr. McLeod, and arrived about half past five. The Doctor remained about half an hour, and Mr. Chappelle seemed quite rational. About six o'clock the Doctor left to order some medicine, and Mr. Chappelle was seemingly all right. A short time after the Doctor left, however, he took another bad turn, and I rushed out after the Doctor. When I returned he was dead. While I was away my daughter and three men who were in the house did all in their power for Mr. Chappelle."

The sad news of Mr. Chappelle's death was broken to his wife by Rev. Mr. Sutherland and Dr. McLeod. It was a great blow to her. The body was removed to Mr. Chappelle's late residence, about ten o'clock last night. The funeral will take place at the People's Cemetery on Sunday afternoon at 3.15 o'clock, and will be under the auspices of the Oddfellows.

An inquest will be held before Dr. Canoy, coroner, this evening at 7 o'clock. The jury will be composed as follows: D. A. Bruce, foreman, Walter Lowe, James Waddell, B. C. Prose, John S. Nelson, A. Dawn, Robert Cadell.

Mr. Chappelle was for years engaged in the book and stationery business in Charlottetown, and was the publisher of Chappelle's Almanac. He was also at one time a member of the City Council, representing Ward 4 for several years. He was also a prominent Oddfellow, being for a term Grand Master for the Maritime Provinces. Since Mr. Chappelle retired from shop-keeping last year he has been doing a general insurance and agency business. He was unwell for some time during the autumn, but lately seemed all right. Yesterday he was about town apparently in good health and spirits.

He was a brother of Rev. B. Chappelle, of Tokyo, Japan, and Mr. J. J. Chappelle, of the Railway Department.

SHIPPING AT GEORGETOWN.—The schr. Orion arrived at Georgetown Christmas night with flour for Horace Hazard and Esq. who made a very quick trip from Boston. Schr. Jubilee arrived same day. She also had flour for Horace Hazard.

DIED. Suddenly in this city, Dec. 27th, Theophilus L. Chappelle, in the 46th year of his age.

[Funeral on Sunday afternoon at 3.15 to First Methodist Church, thence to People's Cemetery. Relatives and friends will accept this intimation.]
