THIS WEEK IN SPORTS

 (Jackie Doran, Bernie 2)

"RAIN, RAIN GO AWAY
 COME AGAIN WHEN WE DON'T HAVE TO PLAY"
 This little nursery rhyme was frequently heard throughout second floor Bernadine last week. However, the rain never stopped Bernie 1! No Way! With a full force (six players and then Angela) they took to the field - alone! This default allowed Bernie 1 to catch up on some basic skills taught by Coach V. Mulligan. Bernie 1 now have mastered the basic softball skills; they can catch, throw, and swear!

Blanchard Hall, what can I say! When you have a girl pitching for you who's turned down a contract with the Red Sox, then you know the other team's in trouble. Donna Gaudet and her bionic arm led Blanchard Hall to a 42-2 victory over Day Students (now referred to as DAZE STUDENTS We knew we were watching a softball game but when the final score is 42-2, you kind of wonder?

It looks like Blanchard Hall is the team to watch for in future games. But don't despair! When Parloo comes out to help them along, they'll do just as well as Bernie 1 with the twins!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK:

"Vince said if it's raining we don't have to play!" - J. Doran, Bernie 2.

PREDICTION OF THE WEEK:

Lee-Ann M (Daze Students) to break Donna Gaudet's arm (Blanchard Hall).

JOKE OF THE WEEK:

Chinaman to coach looking for missing softballs: "Looke, lookie, Balls on hookie!" (For a full derivation of this joke, Contact Cynthia King, Bernie 1).
