

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW HUMPHREY

Couple Pledge Vows At Double Ring Ceremony

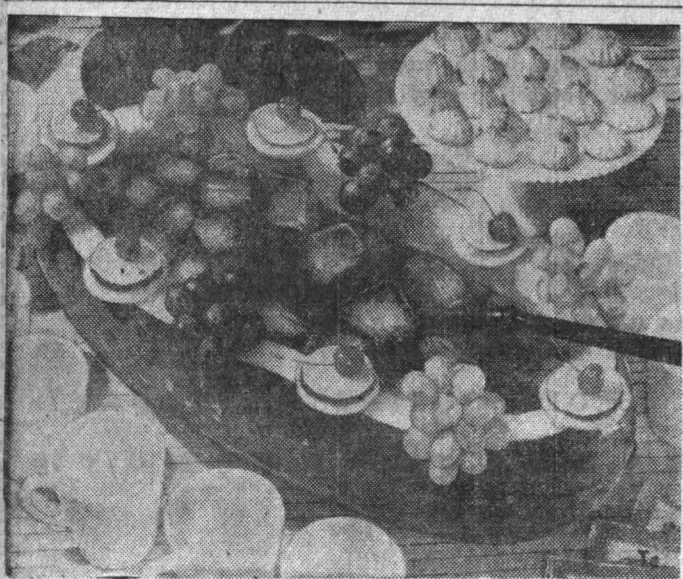

Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, was the setting on June 10th at 2:30 o'clock for the marriage of Beatrice Amelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F.L. Jenkins, Winsloe, and Andrew W. Humphrey, Kensington. The Rev. G. Howard Christie performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Suzanne Breton, Lic. Mus. played the wedding music. The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of multi-colored gladioli and summer flowers. The bride looked lovely as she entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She chose for her wedding a portrait gown in the new "Scalloped-Row" pattern lace. The gown had a Sabrina neckline, an all lace bodice and delicately scalloped-out sleeves. The bouffant fine skirt simulated the tiered effect by clever hand-clipping and hand applications of "Scalloped-Row" lace. Her chapel length veil of bridal illusion was held by a scallop-styled pill-box headdress of lace studded with seed pearls and sequins. Her only jewellery was a single strand of pearls and matching ear-rings, gift of the groom. The bride carried a white Bible and corsage of sweetheart roses. Miss Alice Jenkins, as her sister's matron of honor, wore a mint green ballerina length gown of nylon over taffeta and net with matching shoes and head-dress. She carried a nosegay of white and yellow carnations. The groom was attended by W. Chester S. MacDonald, Summerside. The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon dress of rose lace with large picture hat of navy lace and white accessories. Her corsage was pink and white garnishes. The groom's mother was attired in an afternoon dress and jacket of Bombay blue shantung with pink hat and mink neck-piece. Her corsage was pink carnations. An honored guest was Mrs. A.W. Humphrey, grandmother of the groom, who wore a mauve crystalline dress with matching accessories, mink furs and corsage of white carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel. The bride's table was decorated with vases of mixed flowers and was centered with three tier wedding cake which was topped by a traditional wedding setting. The toast to the bride was proposed by W. Chester S. MacDonald to which the groom responded. Congratulatory telegrams to bride and groom were read by the best man from Miss Joan Rogerson, Ottawa; Mr. Leith Thompson, New York; Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Moore, Sydney, N.S.; the bride's sisters, Miss Evelyn Jenkins, R.N. London, Ontario, and Miss Doris Jenkins, R.N., Edmonton, Alta; the bride's brothers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jenkins, London, Ontario, and Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Jenkins, London, Ont. Amid showers of confetti the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to the Catskill Mts., N.Y., Atlantic City, N.J. and London, Ont. For travelling the bride wore a two-piece suit of orange-ice boucle with orange-ice and white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations. The bride is a registered X-ray technician and is on the staff of the Prince Edward Island Hospital. The groom is a graduate of Acadia University, and is employed at the Experimental Farm. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Humphrey will reside at 8 Brighton Road, Charlottetown. Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at numerous miscellaneous showers and teas by her friends in Charlottetown and the community of Winsloe entertained at a miscellaneous shower in the Winsloe Hall. On all occasions she was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts. On Sunday afternoon, prior to the wedding, Mrs. Jenkins, mother of the bride, held a trousseau tea at her home in Winsloe for friends and relatives of the bride. Photo by Robert B. Hambly.

Tributes Are Paid To Woman In Proper Sphere

"Woman's sphere is the home, and the home too is the sphere of man", Helen Keller, a most discerning American lady and talented, though blind and deaf from the age of two, wrote in "Out of the Dark." "The home embraces everything we strive for in this world. To get and maintain a decent home is the object of all our best endeavours." Her words came to mind this evening when work rested we waited on the old sandstone doorstep for James to return from the wedding at Rob's. Anglers were along the stream below, enjoying an interval of quiet there as Mother Nature's guests. Presently, dusk brought the folding of rods, the echo of closing car-doors, and then lights cut a bright path on the old mill-road and up over the hill. And silence enclosed us. Now the fireflies were flitting down among the alders, and excursioning to visit the garden. The sight reminded us of a verse we had picked up somewhere back through the years: "Down the dark pathways in the twilight hours A little spark goes flashing to and fro; A light too dainty for this world of ours; Maybe in this old garden long ago Titania lost her crown among the flowers. And lamp in hand, flits searching high and low." Yes, woman's sphere was the home, we mused, though not entirely. It was wherever Fate ordained she would best fit, we decided. Yet in a home there with loved ones she could find every happiness of earth, no matter how modestly or grandly adorned and equipped her rooms might be. "We're just planning for the

The regular monthly meeting of the Indian River-Kensington subdivision of the C.W.L. was held recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Glover with a good attendance. bare necessities at first" we chanced to overhear one, obviously a bride, chat with a friend in a store one day last spring. "We will have to have a stove, kitchen and bedroom furniture; living-room too and..." "But the clerk brought us then our purchase of aluminum paint to decorate anew the dented stove-pipes James, takes care to keep clean, and we had no excuse to linger longer there. But as we came away we thought, "It's not the gear, little bride—it's the heart that makes the home! It's the 'fruits of the spirit' you'll have to drag in to make it a loved place and remembered." The shades of your great-grand mother could tell you that. She found happiness and much comfort too in her pioneer house with its sooty furnishings, its fire-sticks from a chopping-block at the door and water in a pail from some precious and versatile brook or spring. And along the countryside, today women were at their Saturday's rites: making a company cake, or perhaps a pie from the last tin of blue berries... or maybe preserving first strawberries, the aroma warm and sweet in the kitchen... cleaning, dusting, making the rooms spic and span for Sunday. Complaining at woman's humble and often tedious lot? On the contrary remembering proudly when the duties pressed that they talk about a woman's sphere, as though there is a limit. There's not a place in earth or heaven. There's not a task to mankind given. There's not a blessing or a woe. There's not a whispered 'Yes' or 'no'. There's not a life, or death, or birth. That has a feather's weight of worth. Without a woman in it!" Until Monday — — — Diary Good-night.

This column is intended only for readers who still admit having birthdays. If you're a woman, let's you out. But otherwise, cast your eye down the mystical signs of the Zodiac, pick your birth period, and heed carefully the advice which follows:

TAURUS
(Apr. 20-May 20): Avoid gambling. But if you get taken to the cleaners, make sure it's us.

GEMINI (June 21-July 21): Dangerous period. Don't take chances with home cleaning preparations. Let us give your garments expert care.

LEO (July 22-Aug 21): Don't procrastinate. If you spill something or your clothes, rush them in to us.

VIRGO (Aug. 22-Sept. 21): Industrious period. Sort out clothes which need cleaning, phone us.

LIBRA (Sept. 22-Oct. 23): A creature of habit, you would find it convenient and economical to have a regular schedule for getting each of your garments cleaned.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Unlike the scorpion, you are kindly, fond of people. Send your dry cleaning to us—we're people!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Sagittarius is The Crab, but you won't be a crab about your wardrobe if you let us clean and press it for you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20): A bright period for you—just as bright and clean as your clothes after we've cleaned them for you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19): You are patient type (having looked this far down the list). You deserve the best in dry cleaning service, and we'll give it to you.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20): Don't be alarmed at being at the bottom of the list. If you're a customer of ours, you're "tops" with us.
