A DESPATCH from Spring Hill, N. S., on the 1st inst., reports that William McDonald, who worked in a boat in the north slope with his father, was so badly crushed by a fall of roof coal that he died after four hours of intense suffering. The piece of coal which fell upon him would be about seven feet long and three feet wide. It struck him about the middle of the body and rolled over his thighs, which were frightfully mangled. McDonald was a universal favorite and most exemplary young man, and his death is deeply deplored. His death was purely accidental, and no one is in any way blameable.

Vice-President—John J. Davies.

Chaplain—Rev. Jas. Carruthers.

A CORRESPONDENT writing from Manners Sutton, under date of February 1st, says: An old soldier, Harrison by name, belonging to Brockway, (where he has been married and settled since the American war in 1834), got himself severely frozen about the hands and face in the woods on the Miranichi waters somewhere, when he was engaged as camp cook. Three weeks ago he had to come home suffering as stated. Yesterday he was being brought to Harvey Station on his way to the hospital at St. John, but the day being cold and blustery, he had to be left at the house of his companion-at-arms and brother pensioner, William White, when Dr. Keith was called upon to give him the benefit of his medical skill. The doctor found it necessary to amputate one of the fingers of the right hand, and thinks, under his treatment, that Mr. Harrison will recover without having to be sent to the hospital.—Telegraph.

RED MEN ON THE WAR PATH.

Liberal-Conservatives Elated.

MONTREAL, Feb. 5.

The Compton Liberals have nominated Munro as a fit and proper person to lose his deposit by running against the Hon. J. H. Pope.

The Shefford Grits have split in two, and will let a Conservative in between them certainly.

The Sherbrooke Grits are still vainly seeking a victim. All who have been offered the nomination so far have declined.

No sensible man will run against Mr. Hall, the Conservative candidate.

The Minister of the Interior was campaigning in Ontario all last week. He expresses the opinion that the Government majority in the Province will be maintained.

The Grit lie about Sir John and Ritchie is denied in to-day by Mr. Ritchie in a letter over his own signature.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.

Great consternation exists among the Ontario Grits at the withdrawal of many prominent members from their ranks, and their joining the Liberal-Conservative Party.

Sylvester Neelon, ex-M. P. P., for Lincoln, has been a long-time Reformer. During last session he was an ardent supporter of Mr. Mowat. Yesterday at a large convention he was nominated as the Conservative Candidate for Haldimand County.

Mr. Ferguson, another long time Reformer, has accepted the Conservative nomination for South Renfrew, and no doubts are entertained that he will carry the constituency.

Mr. Neslett, a leading barrister in Hamilton, and hitherto a staunch Reformer, has publicly thrown off his allegiance to that party and has been elected President of the Young Men's Conservative Association of that city.

In Manitoba A. W. Ross, who ran in the Reform interest at the previous Dominion election for Lisgar, has severed his connection with the Grit Party, and is now contesting that constituency in the Conservative interest.

W. F. McLellan, of the World, has been offered the Independent nomination for West Toronto.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.

The canvass of the leading politicians leaves no doubt whatever of a big Conservative victory in Quebec Province.

Hon. Mr. Bryson, Legislative Councilor, says that Mercier offered him a seat in the new Cabinet, but he would not accept it. Although Mr. Bryson has been a Liberal all his life he is not a Rielite Liberal.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at La Prairie last night in favor of Mr. Tasse, the Conservative candidate. Chief Jackson, a clever young lawyer, made a rousing speech. Grits now feel exceedingly sorry that they called the noble red man "dirty," "ignorant," etc., when the Franchise Bill was debated in Parliament. In this section the Indian is far too intelligent to vote Grit under any circumstances.

Father LaBelle, of colonization fame, is giving Wilson, the Conservative candidate, his hearty support, and he (Wilson) will without doubt have an easy victory.

All the politicians here are highly elated over the reports showing how Hon. Michael Adams laid out Hon. Peter Mitchell.

The Montreal Mayoralty

MONTREAL, Feb. 5.

Alderman Rainville, the Grit Candidate for the Mayoralty, held a meeting last night at which he identified himself with the anti-vaccination mob. His friends thought the English people had no right to have a Mayor, while two-thirds of the people were French. Ex-Alderman Roy, who asked that fair play be given the English was hissed off the stage. If he is elected, Rainville cannot take his seat without a two-third vote of the Council permitting his resignation as an Alderman.

Compared with the month of January, 1885, the death rate is equal, with January, 1886, there is an increase of three.

MR. CHARLES H. YEO, who returned from Winnipeg recently, has mysteriously disappeared. The last seen of him was about New Years, when he was at the Rocklin House. While there his behaviour was somewhat peculiar. A man from Rustico says that on Friday week he met a tall man, wearing a long coat, on the Rustico road, and walked with him about three-quarters of a mile. The man, he said, was extremely reticent, and during the walk but few words were exchanged. The man was unacquainted with Yeo, so it is not known whether or not it was he who was seen on the road. Yeo had some relatives at Cavendish, and it was at first thought that he had gone there, but enquiry elicited the information that the people there had not seen him. Telegrams and verbal messages have been sent to all quarters of the Island and advertisements have been inserted in the newspapers, but nothing has yet been heard of him. As it is understood that he had a large amount of money on his person, it is feared that he has been foully dealt with.
