ERRATA.—Frederick James Curtis' name was omitted in the list of prizes given to the pupils in Mr. A. A. McKenzie's Department. This was for "General Proficiency and Industry."

WE call the attention of intending excursionists on Dominion Day to the great inducements offered by the Manager of the steamer "Southport." See advertisement in another column.

THE Halifax Herald says: "If Dr. McIntyre obtains a colleague, it is to be hoped he will get one able to write his speeches for him in a good hand, so that he can read them easily."

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, James Smith was fined $3 and costs, or 14 days, for being drunk and incapable; Donald McPhee, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 and costs, or 8 days.

A CORRESPONDENT at Mount Stewart writes: Typhoid fever has again broken out at Mount Stewart. There were some 150 cases of it here last summer. Provided we have an early winter it is expected the Board of Health will make their annual inspection of premises about New Year. They always wait until severe frost sets in.

THE Patriot says that Mr. Colby advocates a thirty per cent tariff. The Patriot is mistaken. Mr. Colby condemns the Government for their hypocrisy and dishonesty in affording 60 per cent protection to petroleum oil refiners, while they give only 17 1/2 per cent protection to other industries. Mr. Colby points out that these specially favored oil refiners are the constituents of McKenzie and Mills!

A MEETING of the City School Board was held last evening. The chief business was the award of a contract to put heating apparatus in the new School Building to Messrs. McDonald & Co., of Halifax. If what we have heard respecting certain manipulations and misrepresentations be correct, there is a real cause for protest against the award. The contract price is $2,190—only about a hundred dollars less than the tender of a prominent city firm.

SUPREME COURT.—The case of the Queen at the prosecution of Patrick Shea, policeman, vs. H. B. Smith, for libel, has been occupying the time of the Court to-day. Messrs. Hodgson and Peters appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Palmer for defendant. In the case of the Queen at the prosecution of J. S. Carvell vs. Frederick Davy, the Jury returned a verdict of guilty. In the case of the Queen at the prosecution of John R. Hooper vs. John O'Brine, for larceny; the prisoner being arraigned, pleaded guilty.

THE summer meeting at Upton Park, which will be held on Dominion Day, promises to pass off pleasantly. Already there are three entries for the 2.55 class, three for the ladies' purse, four for the green race and a match for the four-year-olds. These are enough to warrant a splendid day's racing. As on the 25th inst., the steamer Elfin will make a pleasant excursion to North River Bridge, arriving in time for the first race. The managers are determined to use all means in their power to preserve order during the races, and give those who compete a fair trial.

WE were shown on Kent Street to-day a furniture van, which is to be used by the Salvage Company of this city, for the conveyance of goods, etc., from fires. This van is similar to the vans used for the same purpose in Montreal, Halifax, and other cities. The body is very large, elaborately painted, topped with high rails, and set in handsome running gear, which is furnished with Platform Springs, in order to prevent breakage, when the van is turned short or quick. Although large, and built in the most substantial manner, it presents a very neat and ornamental appearance. It was built by Mr. P. H. Trainor to the satisfaction of the Chief Engineer of the fire Department and Captain of the Salvage Company. The Captain deserves great credit for adding to our already efficient fire department such a useful and handsome piece of machinery.

HEALY'S HIBERNIAN COMBINATION exhibited to a much overcrowded house in the Market Hall last evening. The performance was, from beginning to end, carried through in a manner which reflects credit on the management of Mr. Healy. Messrs. McGann and O'Lynn in their jig, special ties and comicalities, acquitted themselves splendidly, and from "entry to exit" kept the house in one continual roar of laughter. "The Happy Irish Emigrants," by the Morrissy's, was excellent. They fully sustained the reputation they have attained abroad as "Irish comedians." Mr. M's clog dance was well executed. Miss Ten-Broeck and Miss Morrissy rendered excellent pieces of vocal music during the evening, and won golden opinions from the audience. Mr. Henshaw as a "negro comedian" can scarcely be surpassed. He is also a successful "Dutch comedian," as was seen by his rendition of "Farewell to Faderland," in which he was accompanied by Miss Ten-Broeck. Mr. Graham's description of the scenery was rather brief. This was, no doubt, owing to the late hour at which the entertainment commenced. The performance was brought to a close by a truly side-splitting farce, entitled "Innocence, Crime, and Justice," which was a thorough representation of an occasional scene in the lower courts of New York. The Company will again appear this evening in the same Hall, and on Monday evening they will play in aid of the Sons of Temperance. Reserved Seat Tickets for sale at Dodd's Medical Hall.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.)

BERLIN, June 28.

The sitting of the Congress to-day lasted three hours. Gortschakoff was present.

It was decided, in accordance with the proposal of the British plenipotentiary, to entrust to Austria the task of occupying Bosnia and Herzegovina in the interest of the peace of Europe.

The duration of the occupation was not fixed, and full liberty is left with Austria in regard to the organization of the provinces. It is believed, however, she will follow the plan drawn up by the Constanti-nople Congress.

Congress unanimously adopted the proposal of the French plenipotentiary that Europe should refuse to recognize the independence of Servia unless Servian Jews were relieved from their present disabilities.

Congress decided to appoint a Commission to examine into the question of the aggrandisement of Servia.

The aggrandisement of Montenegro will probably also be referred to a Commission.

On Saturday, Congress will hear the views of the Greek plenipotentiaries who, yesterday, received the necessary credentials.

The general impression in high Russian circles is, that Congress will result in a temporary relief, but not in the real settlement of the peace of Europe.

VIENNA, June 28.

A despatch to the Politische Correspondenz says: "The Roumanian delegates in Berlin, have abandoned all hopes, and are about to return to Bucharest."

LONDON, June 29.

The Morning Post announces that the Duke of Cumberland, son of the late King George of Hanover, has not abandoned his right to the throne, and that no arrangement has been made between him and the Prussian Government.

DOMINION DAY.

Hail the day of happy sign,—
Canada's own holiday—
When her peoples, scattered wide,
Celebrate her cause allied,
Cast their jealousies away,
And their loves combine!

Honored be the statesmen bold—
Write their names with patriot hands—
Who, bewailing discord's blight,
Hoped in union's healing might,
Linked these far-divided lands
Firmier than with gold!

Let each race our country wards
Cast old hatreds to the sea
That 'twixt them and homeland yawns;
Till in this new land there dawn
National pride and sympathy,—
These are Heaven's guards.

Names and Nick-names.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
SIR,—In reading the interesting accounts of the various school examinations in your paper, I was sorry to see one thing which I hope you will agree with me) needs amendment. Some time ago Lord Dufferin, in one of his genial, common-sense speeches, spoke very forcibly against the growing habit of nick-naming children in school registers. "Fannie," and "Hattie," and "Jennie," are names not out of place in the play ground or at home, but exceedingly vulgar and offensive to good taste when paraded in newspapers or seen in school registers. I wish you would look over your files (it was in your columns I read the speech) and print again what Lord Dufferin said on this subject. It is one of those things done with a good intention, without much thought. As soon as attention is called to it, nearly everyone would say it is in bad taste. It would be a good thing if the School Board would order the register to contain the names, and not the nicknames, of the children.

The matter may seem a small one, but these little things tell a good deal.
Yours, etc.,
CRITIC.
