HOCKEY.—A full attendance of the club tonight at 8 o'clock. Good ice.

REMEMBER the Gospel Union Meeting in Boston Street Hall every Tuesday evening.

PLEASE remember the lecture in St. Paul's Schoolroom on Tuesday evening, 23rd inst., by Dr. Anderson. See ad.

AT THE CAPES.—Crossing both ways today. The mail arrived in the city about twenty minutes past one this afternoon.

THERMOMETER READINGS.—The coldest recorded during last night was 6 above zero; at noon to day 17 above was marked.

THE ANNEKING MANIA.—An exchange points out that King Teberurimo wants to be annexed, too. Why not marry him off to Liliuokalani?

A THIRD CABLE.—It is announced that a third cable is to be laid by the Mackay-Bennett Company and paid for out of the earnings of the existing cables.

POTATOES.—One day last week 3,000 barrels of potatoes were hauled to Houlton market, and the average for the week was 2,000 barrels per day.—St. John Telegraph.

CARD OF THANKS.—The Commandant of the C. J. C. tenders the sincere thanks of the Club to the lady in Georgetown for her delicious and toothsome offering of malleable Scotch cake.

UNION MEETINGS.—There was another splendid meeting in St. Paul's Schoolroom last night, at which Rev. D. Sutherland delivered an address. The after meetings were led by Rev. W. W. Brewer.

RECITAL.—The attendance at the organ recital in St. James' Church on Monday evening next promises to be very large. The programme prepared is a good one. Make arrangements to attend.

THE CORNWALL CONCERT.—It appears that the paragraph furnished THE EXAMINER yesterday regarding the Cornwall concert was not quite in accordance with the facts. The party did not take four hours to perform the journey and their return was not marked by any uncommon incidents.

KNOWN IT ALL.—Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, in a long letter to the Ottawa Journal, accounts for the excessively cold weather by the conjunction of Mars and Jupiter, and says he could have predicted the recent earthquakes in Zante and the floods in Australia to the very hour, but did not do so owing to the hostility of the press.

A PECULIAR CASE.—Scarlet fever and whooping cough are raging in the vicinity of Jacques River, Restigouche County. A child of Paul Firlotte's was supposed to have died from scarlet fever there last week, but as they were putting it in its coffin it moved. Medical aid was summoned and the child was restored to consciousness and lived for two days.—Fraserston Gleaner.

Y. M. C. A.—Young men's meeting in Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Matthews will give a brief address on "Praise." A special service of praise has been arranged, which will include a solo from Mr. Davison, a duet from Mrs. McLean and Miss Lewis, a mixed quartette, and hearty chorus singing of old and familiar hymns. All men are most cordially invited.

ANOTHER BIGAMY CASE.—Halifax furnishes another bigamy case. On January 25, 1893, Martha McLeod and William Stakin were married by Rev. Mr. Mellor, Episcopal clergyman of Dartmouth. Mrs. Stakin admits that she has two husbands. No. 1 she married some years ago and he is still living at Musquodoboit. All parties concerned know the facts of the case. Mrs. Stakin says she is very happy with No. 2 and thinks No. 1 will not disturb her peace. Her reason for leaving husband No. 1, she says, was because of his neglect of herself and her two children.

SCOTT ACT ENFORCEMENT.—The initiative step in the more thorough enforcement of the Scott Act has been taken by the Temperance committee of the Amherst City Council. At a recent meeting of the Board the following resolution was passed: That C. R. Casey be continued as Scott Act Inspector for the town of Amherst at the same salary ($200) as heretofore and that the council strongly urge upon him the advisability: 1st, of imposing the second and third offences as the law intends where a conviction for a first offence has been obtained; 2d, that he endeavor to secure a more reliable class of men for witnesses than has been done in the past; 3rd, that all violators of the act so far as possible be dealt with alike.

Y. M. C. A. CONCERT.—The following excellent talent has been secured by the entertainment committee of the Y. M. C. A. for their concert to be held on Thursday, March 9th:

Vocal Solos—Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. J. M. McLeod, Miss Minnie Moore, Rev. E. E. J. Lloyd, Mr. F. H. Beer.

Elocution—Miss Gertrude Davies, Miss Beatrice Hall.

Chorus—First Methodist Church Choir, male chorus by members of the Y. M. C. A.

Orchestra—Prof. Vinnicoube, with new and choice selections; male quartette by four of "our boys."

Violin—Miss McDonnell.

Tennis Drill—By sixteen young ladies.

Tableaux—By very little ones.

Dumbbell drill—By Y. M. C. A. gymnasium boys.

A properly arranged programme will appear in all the different papers in a few days.

IN HONOR OF BISHOP BROOKS.—There as embodied in Carnegie Hall, New York, on Thursday last, the greatest and most diversified gathering of human beings that building has ever held. The meeting was in memory of the late Bishop Brooks, of Massachusetts, and comprised men and women, rich and poor, Catholics and Methodists, Presbyterians and Jews, Episcopals and infidels, as well as Episcopalians. The speakers were Cornelius Vanderbilt II, Rabbi Gottlieb, Rev. Dr. Greer, Rev. Joseph H. Choate, Dr. R. Charles Stewart, Rev. J. B. D. Y. (Methodist), Rev. Father Dusey, of St. Louis Roman Catholic Church, and Dr. Lyman Abbott. In his address Father Dusey said: "I am glad to do this evening that which it is not my custom to do. It is an honor to any man in church or state when he is asked to say a few words in memory of one who, according to the best light he has received from God, has labored with head and heart for God's honor and glory and the happiness of his fellow-men. Such a man was Phillips Brooks."

Local and Other Items.

TRON!—The regular monthly meeting of the Volunteers' Association takes place tonight in their hall at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.—E. H. Duchemin, sec'y.

THE CAMERON CASE.—Advices from Annapolis are to the effect that the Cameron poisoning investigation has been adjourned until the 1st of March, when it is expected the analysis will be completed. Mrs. Cameron is confident that her innocence will be established. Unless poison is found the case will be dropped.

SOMETHING NEW.—An Ottawa despatch says: The postoffice department has issued a large postal card (one cent) and a three-cent letter card, perforated and gummed, both most useful and what the public have been wanting. There is also an issue of twenty-cent and fifty-cent stamps. These stamps bear the Queen's head in her widowhood. The first supply was sent out this week.

SHEEP AND WOOL.—The Journal of Fabrics estimates the number of sheep in Canada at 3,800,000, and the annual clip of Canadian wool at 16,035,000 pounds. There were 10,224,086 pounds of wool imported and entered for home consumption, and 916,390 pounds exported last year. This would make the annual consumption of wool in Canada something over 25,000,000 pounds, or 5 pounds per head.
