Slater's Hockey Boots

Have to be seen to be appreciated. Last year they were made a little too light. This year they are made heavier, of black vestal calf or tan oil grain leather, with good heavy soles, sewn on by the good year method. The large brass eyelets and their glove-like fit give them an artistic touch.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Great Jacket sale.—Beer Bros.

CHANGED HANDS—Mr. Owen Hughes, of Montague, has sold his trotting mare, Bye and Bye, 2253, by Administrator Right, to Mr. W. B. Blyva, Woodstock, N. B., and she was shipped to her destination yesterday morning.

ADVANCE IN PRICE—Potatoes are rapidly advancing in price. The Nova Scotia and New Brunswick supply is almost exhausted, and P. E. Island stocks are in great demand. Several large shipments were made to Boston last week.—Halifax Herald.

ADDRESS OF CONDOLENCE—The officers and members of Tanton Loyal Orange Lodge, recently presented Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Brookfield, with an address of condolence in the loss of her husband. The many good qualities of the deceased and his value as a brother are set forth in the address.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAMME—The Salvation Army will hold special "Thanksgiving Services" on Thursday 25th as follows: Open air at 2.30, a grand "Praise Service" at 3 p. m., in the Barracks at 8 p. m. The children will give a very interesting program. Songs, solos, recitations, and action drills. Proceed for the winter's coal. Admission 10c, children 5c.

PRESBYTERIAL—The Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island will meet with the congregation of Covehead, Thursday, Nov. 25th; Brackley Point Road and St. Peter's Road as follows: Covehead, 3 p. m. St. Peter's Road 7 p. m.; and with the congregation of T'you, Hampton and Bonshaw, at Bonshaw on Monday, Nov. 29th, at 2 p. m.—Thos F Fullerton, Clerk of Presbytery.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

ANOTHER GOLD STRIKE—The Rawlin, Wyo., Journal says: "The Murphy-Ready Company own a claim in Encampment—the Annie Templeton—which has a vein of quartz 25 feet wide. The shaft is only down three or four feet, but returns from an assay of the ore received yesterday shows $17.54 in gold per ton. They are pushing work on the claim and will continue to do so all winter." The two men mentioned above are natives of Prince Edward Island—Mr. P. Murphy, who hails from Miminegash and Mr. T. A. Ready, son of Richard Ready, J. P., Irishtown. They went to Rawlin six years ago, where they conducted a tailoring and gents' furnishing establishment.

THE ISLANDERS AHEAD—The Canada Militia Gazette publishes the efficiency returns of rural corps. The figures of merit are as follows:—
Dist. No. 12, 82nd Batt.....164.56
" " 3, 45th " .....132.52
" " 9, 69th " .....129.27
" " 9, 78th " .....123.97
" " 9, 75th " .....121.00
" " 3, 47th " .....119.25
" " 9, 93rd " .....114.26
" " 9, 58th " .....113.45
" " 4, 56th " .....103.78
" " 9, 72nd " .....103.67

It will thus be seen that the 82nd Battalion has a good lead over all competitors. Congratulations are in order.

WEDDINGS THIS MORNING

Mr. J. H. Mackenzie, a prominent resident of Picton, and Miss May Farquharson, daughter of Hon. D. Farquharson, of this city, were united in marriage this morning. The interesting ceremony was performed in Zion Church at a quarter of seven by Rev. D. Sutherland. The church was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns. The bridesmaids were Miss Etta Farquharson and Miss Annie Mackenzie, and the groom was supported by Mr. Carl McKenzie, of Picton. The bride's dress was of cream cloth, with cut steel buttons and trimmings to match. The large collection of elegant wedding offerings received by the bride evidenced the regard in which the happy couple are held by all who know them. The groom's present to the bride consisted of a valuable sealskin sacque, and to the bridesmaids he presented elegant opal and diamond rings. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie left on an extended wedding trip which will include the principal cities of Canada and the United States. They have THE EXAMINER'S best wishes.

The marriage of Mr. Charles Leigh, jr., and Miss Laura Brecken was solemnized in St. Paul's Church at half past six this morning, the rector Rev. J. T. Bryan, tying the nuptial knot. The bride is a daughter of the late John Brecken, Esq., and the groom is a son of Mr. Charles Leigh, R. N. Miss Amy Brecken was bridesmaid, and Mr. Arthur Peake groomsmen. The bride wore a dark green costume skirt and corduroy coat edged with mink and mink tails. Her hat was of dark green velvet trimmed with white velvet and white birds. The bridesmaid's costume was of stock green braided with black, and her hat was trimmed with white osprey and purple violets. The popularity of the young couple was shown by the many wedding presents received by the bride. The groom was last evening presented with a gold-headed cane, by a committee representing the choir of St. Paul's church, of which he has been a member since he was a boy. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Leigh left on a wedding trip to Boston, New York and other cities of the United States. THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.

PREPARED FOR ACCIDENTS.

It is always well to be prepared for accidents, for we don't know when they will happen. Everyone should keep "Quick-cure" at hand. In cases of burns, scalds, cuts, toothache or any pain, it gives instant relief, and cures more quickly than any other preparations on the market.
