Liberals Retain Seats In Quebec By-Elections

Candidates Elected With Large Majorities

MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—(CP)—Liberal candidates won Federal by-elections in the two Montreal district ridings of Outremont-St. Jean and Richelieu-Vercheres today.

Both seats are traditionally Liberal and the candidates won easily. With a steady rain falling, voting was light.

In Outremont-St. Jean, Romuald Bourque built up a two-to-one vote lead over his nearest opponent, Claude Nolin, Progressive Conservative, and left three other candidates far in the rear. Mr. Bourque is mayor of the Montreal suburban municipality of Outremont.

In Richelieu-Vercheres, Lucien Cardin stepped into an impressive four-to-one lead over Alberic Tremblay, Progressive Conservative and his only opponent, Mr. Cardin is a nephew of the late Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, a former Liberal cabinet minister.

Here is the new standing in the House of Commons:

Liberals 184; Progressive Conservatives 49; C.C.F. 13; Social Credit 10; Independent Liberal two; Independent four; total 262.

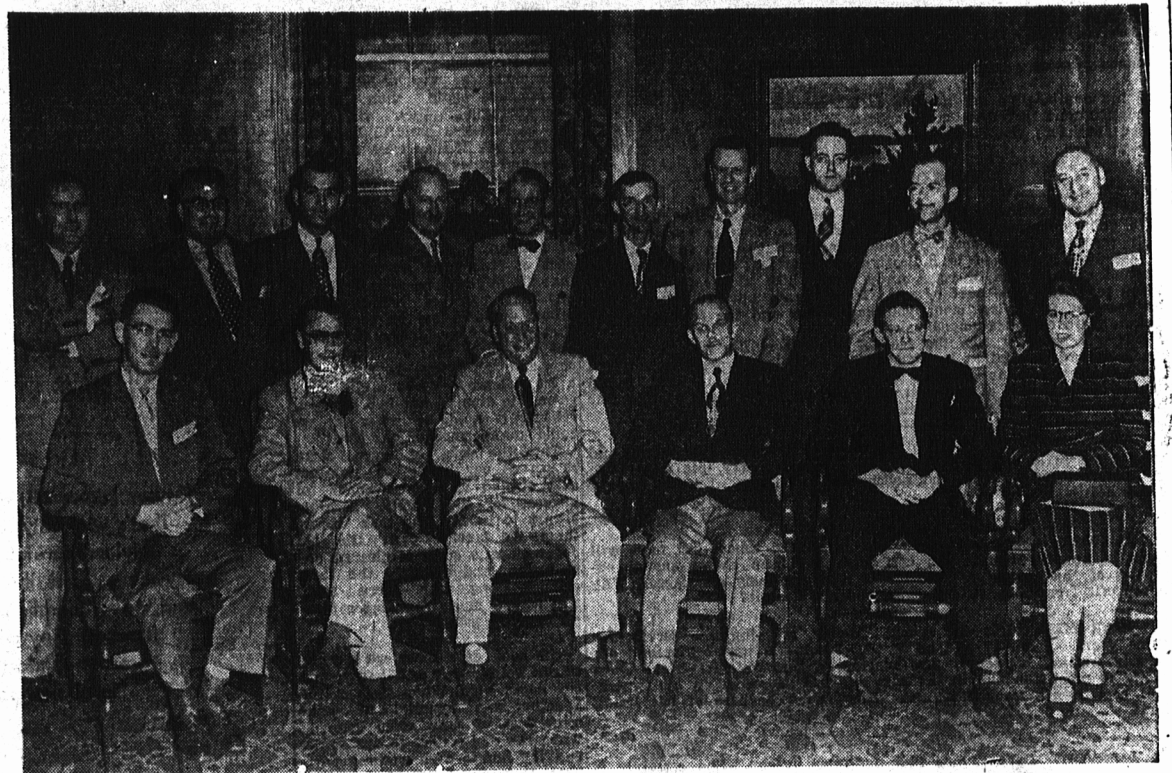

Mme. Therese Casgrain, Quebec C.C.F. leader, was among the defeated candidates in Outremont-St. Jean. She was making her second bid for election to the Commons. She ran some years ago in a Montreal district riding on

Seeking Armed Poles For Quebec Shotgun-Slaying

SOREL, Que., Oct. 6.—(CP)—Two youthful Poles, wanted by police in connection with the shotgun-slaying Sept. 25 of a restaurateur, were arrested for a series of thefts at Sept. 15, Que., Feb. 29 last and were sentenced to three months in prison.

Following completion of their sentences they were transferred to the custody of immigration officials at Quebec.

Aurelian Houle, 32, was shot to death last week as he attempted to prevent two men from robbing his restaurant at nearby Yamaska East.

Theft of a 303 rifle, two 12-gauge shotguns and 120 rounds of ammunition from a Sorel store was reported by police as they pressed their search for Maksymilian Cieleska, 21, and Ryszard Cisowsky, 20.

Provincial Police detachments searching the area have been joined by the R.C.M.P., who want the two men for deportation proceedings.

By-Election Results Cause Little Reaction At Ottawa; Liberal Wins Expected

OTTAWA, Oct. 6.—(CP)—Liberal victories today in two federal by-elections in Quebec aroused little reaction in the capital's political circles.

Long before the votes were counted, the Liberals were confident of retaining the traditionally Liberal seats of Outremont-St. Jean and Richelieu-Vercheres.

The Progressive Conservatives were predicting privately that the best they could hope for was an increase over the number of votes obtained by their candidates in the 1949 general election. The by-election results showed their candidates did get a larger percentage of the vote cast.

In Richelieu-Vercheres, Lucien Cardin, a lawyer from Ste. Anne de Sorel, won over Alberic Tremblay, Progressive Conservative, in a two-man fight. The last time a Conservative was elected in the area was in the 1890s.

In Outremont-St. Jean, Romuald Bourque won for the party over four opponents. The Progressive Conservative, Claude Nolin, placed second; Mme. Therese Casgrain, Quebec C. C. F. leader, third; Raymond Bourque, fourth.

Suggests 60,000 U. N. Volunteer Reserve Army

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Creation of a United Nations volunteer reserve army of up to 60,000 men, to fight under the U.N. flag against future aggression, was recommended today as something the U.N. should think about.

The proposal for further study of Secretary-General Trygve Lie's idea was made by an eight-country sub-committee to the 14-country U.N. Committee on Collective Measures.

The sub-committee, dealing with military affairs, ruled out the idea of a standing U.N. legion with its own command and equipment as too costly and impractical.

The volunteer reserve would be made up of men "willing to serve the principles of the U.N.," trained in advance on a part-time basis by the armies of their own countries, and ready to go into battle alongside any international force mustered by the U.N. to meet any future aggression.

Seymour MacLean Passes Away In P. E. I. Hospital

Mr. Seymour MacLean, 69-year-old farmer from St. Catherines was fatally injured by a bull at his farm last evening. He died shortly after 10 o'clock in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Mr. MacLean, a bachelor, operated a farm with his brother, Gordon MacLean, also unmarried. Last evening about dusk he took a Shorthorn bull, which had always been docile previously, to water. His brother, working nearby, heard cries and running to assist found the animal had pinned his brother against a fence and was going him.

He drove the animal off and hurriedly summoned medical aid.

The injured man was removed by ambulance to Charlottetown, but he passed away a short time after being admitted to hospital. It was understood he suffered severe chest injuries.

Coroner Dr. L. E. Prowse decided an inquest was not necessary. Royal Canadian Mounted Police were notified of the accident and visited the scene. The funeral arrangements were not decided.

Communists In Biggest Operation In Recent Months

SEOUL, Oct. 7.—(Tuesday)—(AP)—More than 12,000 Communist troops attacked Allied positions across two-thirds of the Korean battle front Monday night and early today in the biggest coordinated operation in months.

In the greatest of the attacks, 4,000 Chinese Reds assaulted two hills northwest of Chorwon on the western front after opening floodgates of a reservoir to the north.

Water in a river coursing around the hills mounted only two feet, but the Chinese stormed up the slopes and fought it out at hand-to-hand range with fists, stones and grenades.

Intense fighting carried on into the daylight hours for three or four minor hills in the extreme west.

At the same time, the Reds punched at the U. S. marine line at 13 points on the extreme western front near Korangpo and Panmunjon. The Communists seized a new hill north of Korangpo, swelling their captured outpost prizes of the past few days of intense fighting.

The two major assaults hit strongpoints on the Allied line east of Old Baldy. Nearly 2,000 Red troops were thrown into each action.

Urge Efforts To Provide $1,000 Down Homes

STE. ADELE, Que., Oct. 6.—(CP)—Canada's building-supply industry was urged today to take the lead in trying to provide a $10,000 home with a $1,000 down payment for the average Canadian family.

Henry R. Bastien of Montreal, president of the Canadian Builders Supply Association, told the association's annual convention this standard is Canada's average housing requirement.

He said homes should be available for every part of Canada on the $10,000 — $1,000 terms and should be mortgaged in such a way that payments including taxes do not exceed $65 a month. This was based on an average income of $2,500 per family.

Creation of such a housing program, he said, is not the sole responsibility of governments. All segments of the community should share in it.

Potato Pickers Heading For P.E.I.

SYDNEY, Oct. 6.—(CP)—The annual migration of farm workers to help harvest the Prince Edward Island potato crop started this weekend. Ninety pickers left from New Waterford, Sydney and Glace Bay and other busloads are scheduled to leave next week.

Contamination Overcome In Halifax Drinking Water

HALIFAX, Oct. 6.—(CP)—An order that residents of this port city boil all drinking water was lifted late today.

Dr. A. R. Morton city health commissioner, said contamination in the water supply has been overcome and boiling is no longer necessary.

Dr. Morton said the cause of the contamination, first discovered more than a week ago, has not yet been proved and a careful check on the water supply will continue. "This is most important," he said, "as the amount of chlorine is being reduced."

Chlorination was stepped up to 10 times normal when pollution was discovered Sept. 26, although the first public announcement of the trouble did not come until five days later when results of initial tests became known.

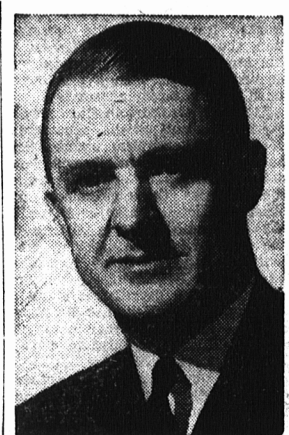

Public drinking fountains were immediately shut off and taverns and soft drink manufacturers watched sales soar.

Naval personnel were given antityphoid shots as a safeguard but Dr. Morton spiked early rumors of a typhoid outbreak. He said there was only one case under treatment at the time and it was not traceable to the water supply.

Further checks showed a high bacillus count in the water had infiltrated through the many miles of underground mains and that

Stresses Need Of Maritime Vigilance In Transportation

Finance Minister Now In Charlottetown

Hon. Douglas C. Abbott, Federal Minister of Finance, who will be the main speaker tonight at The Charlottetown at the annual dinner of the Maritime Provinces Board of Trade meeting held in this city.

Mr. Abbott arrived by Maritime Central Airways on the regular flight shortly before the supper hour. He was met at the airport by Premier J. Walter Jones who drove him to the city and spent several hours discussing matters of interest.

The Charlottetown Board of Trade will be the hosts at the dinner to the visiting delegates tonight.

That there is currently in the Maritime Provinces a growing feeling of complacency stemming from the "umbrella" sales of recent years was markedly pointed out yesterday by Mr. Rand H. Matheson, executive manager of the Maritime Transportation Commission. Mr. Matheson was guest speaker at a luncheon at The Charlottetown held by the Secretarial Conference of the Maritime Board of Trade.

The guest speaker called to the attention of the gathering that it was necessary to be vigilant at all times and to keep in constant contact with the changing needs of the community in order to give efficient service.

There was an interesting side-light yesterday afternoon when Mr. H. N. Soley, past president of the Springhill Board of Trade, asked the local club president, Mr. Gordon MacDonald, if he were a relative of the late Mr. S. A. MacDonald. It transpired that Mr. Soley on his first and only previous visit to this Province attended a meeting of the Board of Trade and met the then president who was Mr. MacDonald's father.

Morning Sessions

During the morning sessions the secretaries of the various Boards in the Maritimes were extended a welcome by Mr. Frank W. Curtis, president of the Maritime Board, and Mr. J. Gordon MacDonald, president of the Charlottetown Board.

Later Mr. A. E. Eagles, secretary of the Moncton Board, led a discussion on the subject of "Serving Your Members and Community." When the discussion period ended there was an open session for talks on membership and finance problems followed by a short series of remarks by Mr. Kenneth A. Ross, session chairman, on bulletins and informative releases.

At the noon hour the secretaries and other Board members were guests of the Summerside Board

U. S. Policy In Korea Major Election Issue

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(CP)—The history and future of United States action in Korea has become the centre of the slam-bang debate on foreign policy in the U. S. election campaign.

The campaign's increasing tempo, made more hectic by President Truman's attacks on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, has brought out the bitterness over the issue which lay somewhat dormant in the early stages.

Now Republican candidate Eisenhower has put forward what is apparently at least part of his plan for solving the Korean problem. He charged that the Democrats have no plan to end the list of U. S. casualties in Korea and then said "We must make certain that those South Koreans can be prepared to defend their own front lines."

"If there must be war (in Korea), let it be Asians against Asians with our support on the side of freedom."

Eisenhower, however, did not make clear when the South Koreans should "defend their own front lines." The New York Times, which supports Eisenhower, said editorially he should make it clear that there would be no withdrawal of U. S. troops from Korea until the South Koreans are able to defend themselves.

Governor Adlai Stevenson, Democratic candidate, has emphasized that he sees no easy way out in Korea and that "We must keep it up as long as we have to and we will."

Mrs. Pitre was the third person convicted in the plot that resulted in the mid-air explosion of an airliner and death of its 23 occupants.

The others convicted, J. Albert Guay and Genevieve Ruest, were hanged for their part in the bombing.

Reports Nazi "Frame-Up" Which Helped Start War

COLOGNE, Germany, Oct. 6.—(Reuters)—A Nazi "frame-up" which helped start the Second World War was described in a German court today by former Nazi S. S. general, Emanuel Schaefler.

He said the Nazis set fire to a German customs border police shed on Aug. 31, 1939, and then made it look as though "Polish border troops" had violated the German territory. German troops invaded Poland the next day.

Schaefler who was commander of the S. S. security service in Serbia, Yugoslavia, during the war, is on trial charged with having played a leading role in the killing of at least 6,000 Jews, in Serbia. The Jews, all women and children, were murdered between 1942 and 1944.

Schaefler has pleaded innocent, claiming he had acted on an order of Hitler.

Schaefler testified that Gen. Reinhard Heydrich had come to Upper Silesia and told Schaefler, then head of the state police there, "We need a reason to start war."

On the evening of Aug. 31 he continued, S. S. (Nazi Elite) men set fire to the border police shed, then started "shooting wildly."

Several murdered concentration camp inmates were dressed in Polish uniforms and laid around the shed Schaefler said. The bodies then were photographed to "prove" that the Poles had violated the border.
