HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lorne Finley, Armdale, Halifax, and their two children Priscilla and Karen, were recent visitors to Charlottetown seeing their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Finley, Felling Street, and Mrs. Helen Griffith, Rochford Street.

Dr. and Mrs. I. Rachmel and their son David left on Saturday morning by plane on an extended trip to Europe and the Middle East.

Mr. Kenneth Jenkins of W. R. Jenkins, Ltd.; left Sunday by plane for Toronto, where he will be a guest for ten days of Volkswagen, Canada, Ltd.

Through the years one of the most popular spring events has proved to be the Spring Bonnet Tea which is sponsored by the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital held at the Community Centre on Saturday, April 26th.

In addition to the many interesting booths, of course, the hats are a never-ending source of delight. This year an added feature is the fact that the attractive Junior Leaguers will model the hats provided for the occasion by Adella's.

There will be hats for many occasions but perhaps not quite so many or of the same characteristics as those described by Hazel M. Kulik in her story for children called "Mrs. McFuddle and Her Hats."

Here is a quote from Hazel Kulik: "If there was anything Mrs. McFuddle liked it was hats. She had hats for shopping and hats for mopping. Hats for hiking and hats for biking. Riding-on-the-train hats and walking-in-the-rain hats. She even had a hat made of lace which she wore to bed to keep her hair in place."

Mrs. McFuddle's hats were very beautiful. They were trimmed with lots of flowers and cherries and ribbons and veils and feathers and buckles and pins." So ends Hazel Kulik's description.

After this bit of excusable nonsense in connection with anything so lovely as the Spring Bonnet Tea, everyone is planning more than ever to turn out to view the decidedly NON — Mrs. McFuddle hats. They will also have the pleasure of seeing all their friends this Saturday at the Community Centre when the Junior Leaguers of the Charlottetown Hospital are hostesses at their annual Spring Bonnet Tea.

45th Wedding Anniversary Observed By M. H. Couple

Captain and Mrs. J. Wallace White, Murray Harbor, were pleasantly surprised on April 2nd, when members of their family and friends honored them on the happy occasions of their forty-fifth wedding anniversary. A gift from the family was presented by Joanne and Janice White, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy White, Montague.

At the supper hour, two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Leroy White and Mrs. Hubert White, served. The table was decorated with a lovely lace cloth and centered with a beautifully decorated anniversary cake which was cut and served with ice cream. The flat silverware which was used had been received as a wedding gift forty five years ago.

Mrs. White was the former Marion Cohoon of Murray Harbor. They have two sons and two daughters and thirteen grandchildren. The sons are Leroy at Montague, and Hubert at Murray Harbor, and the daughters are Ethel, Mrs. (Dr.) Riddell, Monton, Ontario; and Cathie, Mrs. George Davidson, Westmount, Ontario. Miss Sandra White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert White, rendered a number of favorite organ selections during the evening. Their many friends extend best wishes to Captain and Mrs. White on their anniversary.

TEN MILE HOUSE W. I.

The monthly meeting of the Ten Mile House W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Bernard McQuaid with an attendance of eleven members. The meeting was opened with the Ode followed by the creed in unison. Roll call was answered by paying a penny for each letter in each one's name which amounted to $1.41.

The Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read. Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved and seconded that one dollar be sent for membership fee to C. A. D. also one-dollar for the yearly subscription for the Polio Post.

Mrs. Bernard McQuaid received payment of two - dollars for the monthly cleaning of the school.

Three members were appointed to clean the school windows as follows: Mrs. George Corrigan, Mrs. Alphonus Peters and Mrs. George Hennessy.

Sick Committee reported one call and school committee purchased supplies. These committees are to be the same for April. Roll call for May meeting is to be answered by an exchange of flower seeds or plants. Next meeting to be held at Mrs. Bernard McQuaid's.

Programme followed, led by Mrs. B. McQuaid and won by Mrs. Leo Mullen which was enjoyed by all.

The meeting closed with the Island Couple Are Married In Wolfville

St. James United Church, Wolfville, N.S. was the scene of a pretty marriage on Saturday, April 5 when Mary Penelope MacGougan, R.N. became the bride of James Melville Campbell, The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacGougan and the groom's parents are Chief Justice and Mrs. Thane Campbell, — all of Summerside.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Douglas Archibald, pastor of the church. Mr. Douglas Archibald presided at the organ and accompanied Mr. Ian Forrest, as he sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Till Walk Beside You."

The matron of honor was Mrs. Clive Macdonald and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr.

Alexander B. Campbell. The guests were ushered to their seats by Mr. Clive Macdonald.

The beautiful church was attractively decorated with Easter lilies and spring flowers. After the ceremony a reception was held at Paramount Inn, following which Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left on a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia points.

Among the out-of-town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Neill Price of Lawrencetown; Mr. Gordon B. Kinsman of Truro; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. MacEwen of Summerside; and Mrs. James M. Campbell of Graham's Road.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Housecleaning Time — Yes, We're At It Again!

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the sun." Spring cannot be hurried. All in good time, she will reclothe the countryside in marvellous shades. But not all at once. As a child learns to walk, at first creeping, then on faltering steps and at length confidently so the season comes. Not in lingering winter-drills. If it is d magically and in their stead green carpets quickly laid. But progressively. Commencing with a warning wind against a cheek... and a spray of silvery pussy willows along a quiet country road. There is a season too for the house-cleaning washes. True, even before the springtime is ready, we may catch certain pet days overlaid with the sunlight and breeze we need for them. Yet if we wait in patience we do not have to seek them. They come to us — as did today, to be a gem of a washday. Sun and wind and sky, how well these combined to further the housewife's hopes.

How enjoyable to spread the washed pieces... no pinched fingers now, no cold drifts under-foot.

We came to the clothesline this morning by way of the rose-trellis, pausing to take stock of the leaf-buds, wondering if perhaps in the light of rank growth of vines there, "the best time to prune is whenever the shears are sharp" as some gardeners declare.

We pinned towels, a pair blue like the sky before us above the treetops down the river, squared them to keep lines true for ironing... and noted how attractive are the ranks of snowdrops in the flower-border, now that they are in full bloom. And there in a trim line, tulips gave fine promise if... we smiled wryly recalling James' comment at the breakfast.

"It won't be too long now, Ellen, before we'll have to bring home the rest of the flock from that other barn. Then" he smiled "the lambing will be on in earnest! Well" he nodded, "we've had good luck with the early ones. They've done well. And those that are to come won't require so much care. They'll soon get out around in the sunshine" he had said. Yes, an ideal washday this was. And tonight, who again by way of an open window enjoy the dream-song which comes to our pillow from the fall of water through the spillways in the milldam, think also of another we also shall enjoy: an especial "Lullaby for Monday" in a verse which applies aptly though it is written of still summer days.

"Right on the lines Go the sheets to the beds: Tonight, my loves We'll rest our heads On scent of wind And golden sun, Glad that the long Hot day is done! We'll dream like kittens With delight On rose-blown air Stretched smother and white." Until tomorrow — — Diary — Goodnight.

LAKE VERDE W. I.

Mrs. William Shea entertained the members of the Lake Verde Women's Institute at her home on Wednesday night, April 9, 1958. Mrs. Joseph Shea, president opened the meeting with the reading of the creed.

Roll call was answered by a contest and won by Mrs. Raymond Wood. Minutes of the previous meeting were read, approved and signed.

Money was voted for the Easter Seal Campaign. Two sick calls were reported. Mrs. Raymond Wood and Mrs. William Shea were re-appointed on the committee. Auction sale amounted to $3.40.

Mrs. Raymond Wood kindly invited the members to her home for the May meeting. Roll call-exchange of flower - slips. The meeting then adjourned. Collection amounted to $1.25.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. A game of cards was enjoyed, Mrs. Harry Kelly winning the prize.

SPRING SAILOR

Amid all the turban and flower hat excitement, we mustn't forget the sailor hat. Year after year it makes its way into the spring hat scene. This year's version has a taller crown, as demonstrated by this example. Lilly Dache does it as one of a series for store departments that cater to the young, budget-minded customer. This hat is of toast brown Milan straw with beige and orange accents. Its lines provide perfect balance for the loose-fitting chemise silhouette.
