CARD OF THANKS

We the parents, wife and children of the late Edward Gallant wish to express sincerest thanks to Curran and Briggs Co. and employees for their financial help. To the doctors and nurses and staff of the Prince County Hospital who were so kind to our dear one during his long sojourn there. To the many Clergy for their numerous visits all who visited and took treats, all those who made it possible for his wife and mother to visit him so often, to the undertaker all those who sent floral tributes, Mass cards, spiritual bouquets, sympathy cards and telegrams all neighbors who helped in any way. To one and all many thanks. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Gallant and family.

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullen wishes to thank the visiters, Doctors, Nurses and Staff of the Charlottetown Hospital. Relatives and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and deaths of their Parents.

Howe Likes His Retired Life

MONTREAL (CP)—Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, trade minister in the last Liberal government, says retirement from politics is "pleasant".

"You read about these troubles and you say 'thank God, I don't have to solve that one," he said with a smile.

Mr. Howe made the statement in a brief interview while in Montreal in his capacity as a new director of the Bank of Montreal.

Asked what he thought of the Progressive Conservative government's handling of trade problems, Mr. Howe said:

"I don't know anything about that. I've retired from politics."

No Comment On Hush-Up Stories

LONDON (Reuters) — Britain's atomic energy authority Wednesday refused comment on a report by the Manchester Guardian scientific correspondent that Britain's latest success in thermonuclear research is being hushed up in response to American requests.

The report concerned "Zeeta," a research rig resembling a huge steel-plate doughnut at the authority's main research centre at Harwell.

Zeeta went into the operation in the middle of August. The purpose of the machine is to raise the temperature of hydrogen bomb gases sufficiently to set off a controlled release of nuclear energy. At stake is the possibility of taming the H-bomb blast for peaceful purposes.

It is being suggested that the United States atomic energy commission is unwilling to stomach publicity for a resounding British achievement at a time when its own reputation in the United States is steadily declining" the report adds.

Clamp Down On Soccer Pools

OTTAWA (CP) — Instructions will be sent to Canada's 12,000 postmasters this month ordering them to refuse to handle mail or money orders to or from a British company conducting soccer pools. Some Toronto postmasters already have received their instructions.

A post office official said Wednesday that postal clerks will refuse to make out money orders addressed to the overseas manager of Vermail House, Ormskirk Road, Liverpool, or Vernons Pools at the same address.

An official said the company apparently was conducting pools on soccer games in England and using the Canadian mails in contravention to the Canadian Criminal Code.

Xmas Packages Nothing Inside

TORONTO (CP)—Ontario Liberal Leader Farquhar Oliver said Monday night the federal-provincial conference in Ottawa last week proved that Prime Minister Diefenbaker's election promises were "without substance as far as Ontario is concerned."

He said the prime minister had been trying to appear as a Santa Claus by "dangling tentative proposals for fringe benefits before the provinces."

"Close examination, however, indicates that the Diefenbaker Santa Claus will give the provinces no presents this Christmas. They will get brightly tinselled packages that have colorful wrappings but nothing inside."

Mr. Oliver spoke on a CBC television broadcast.

BAN CONTINUED

NICOSIA, Cyprus (Reuters)—Emergency orders outlawing the Cyprus Communist party and three other left-wing organizations were renewed today for a further period of 12 months. Also outlawed for a further one-year period were five left-wing newspapers and periodicals, including the Communist party official organ and a Turkish-language daily.

Quebec Closes Known Illegal Liquor Outlets

QUEBEC (CP) — Premier Duplessis said Wednesday it is possible there are unlicenced liquor —selling establishments operating in the province but they are closed down as soon as they become known.

Mr. Duplessis made the statement in the legislative assembly in answer to a question from Dr. Alphonse Couturier, Liberal member for Riviere du Loup, who said an announcement by Solicitor-General Rivard Tuesday "implied" the existence of such unlicenced establishments.

Mr. Rivard's announcement said sale of beer and wine with meals would be allowed on Christmas Day, New Year's Day and on the Feast of the Epiphany on Jan. 6 between 1 p.m. and 9 p.m.

On Christmas Eve all establishments would be required to cease the sale of liquor at 9 p.m. and on New Year's Eve at 10 p.m.

STATEMENT PUZZLING

Then Mr. Rivard added: "It is clear that all unlicenced establishments will also be subjected to a close surveillance."

The reference to unlicenced establishments puzzled legislature circles.

Mr. Duplessis said Wednesday no provincial government in Canada enforces liquor-selling regulations as fully as his government does.

Government members recently protested a statement in the legislature by Oscar Parent, Liberal from Hull, who said some Union Nationale members benefit from government toleration of liquor law violations and the operation of unlicenced drinking establishments. He later said he was referring to Union Nationale party organizers.

Says Margaret's Picture Is Sexy

TORONTO (CP) — One of the few people to report on Pietro Annigoni's new portrait of Princess Margaret says the picture is sexy.

British photographer Alex Sterling, in town with Annigoni en route to the opening of the painter's first North American exhibition, told a reporter Monday night the painting portrays sexy eyes and lips on the princess.

Annigoni, commissioned by Queen Mother Elizabeth to do the painting, says it is not sexy.

"It shows her in a simple white gown with a modest neckline," he said. "She wears no jewelry—only a wide black stole around her shoulders."

Anyway, the princess likes the picture, Annigoni said.

Annigoni's first United States exhibition opens Dec. 10 in New York but the Margaret painting will not be in the exhibition. It will go on public display for the first time in a London, England, art gallery in January.

Arms Shipments Threat To War

LONDON (Reuters) — American Historian George F. Kennan said Sunday night that delivering tactical nuclear weapons to NATO powers might make a Russian withdrawal from Central and Eastern Europe "unthinkable for once and for all."

The former United States ambassador to the Soviet Union told a radio audience here:

"To place these weapons in the hands of a number of further countries is practically to assure that there can in future be no minor difficulty in Europe that does not at once develop into a major one."

Kennan, history professor at the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, N.J., made his assertions in the fourth of this year's Reith Lectures for the BBC.

The former diplomat urged that instead of nuclear weapons, Western European countries maintain only para - military forces on the Swiss pattern to guard against internal Communist coups.

He appealed for an end to the "obsession" that the Russians are yearning to occupy Western Europe.

He said continental Europe should stop building its defences around atomic-weapons while American, Soviet and British armed power should withdraw from the heart of Europe.

Such action, he asserted, would provide "at least a chance that Europe's fortunes might be worked out."

Want All Costs Included In NHP

HALIFAX (CP)—Two Halifax hospitals asked Tuesday that all hospital costs be included in the projected national hospital insurance plan.

The Children's Hospital and Halifax Infirmary made the requests in submissions to the Nova Scotia hospital services planning commission at a public hearing.

The Infirmary said all costs including depreciation and interest on borrowings, should be included as shareable costs in the scheme.

R. McD. Black, commission chairman, said the province intends making submissions to Ottawa dealing with these points. There might be "some relaxation" expected in this point, he added.

The Children's Hospital also sought special consideration because it is a teaching hospital.
