Sport Echoes From Prince County

It was beginning to look as if Ken Walker, Holman's catcher, had a season's return ticket from dug-out to home plate...

Now we'd like to find the guy we had the argument with about Ken. We said Walker was a long-ball hitter when he got around to it...

Al Boylan was robbed of a base-hit Monday evening by an umpire's miscall. Boylan sent a dribbler along the chalk-line to third base...

We've seen quite a number of umpires, not big-league umpires, just umpires, call those shots too soon...

Now the question arises: If the ump has called it foul and then realizes his mistake, should he change his decision?

Today is a big day in Summerside sporting circles. The annual Prince County elimination swimming meet will be held at Government Wharf...

What was once a runaway race in the Summerside League has developed into a very close race between Bob Barlow and Gord MacKay...
