Awards Presented At Jaycee Luncheon

The awards luncheon of the Atlantic Provinces Junior Chamber of Commerce convention was held at The Charlottetown Hotel, Saturday afternoon.

The main award of the day was the winner of the effective speaking contest run Friday night of which the winner will be the Atlantic Provinces representative to the national convention being held in Kelowna, B.C. June 28 to July 1.

Norman Pinhorn, Dalhousie, N.B., was the unanimous winner in the prepared speech and a split-decision winner in the impromptu speech assignen by the judges. He was presented the effective speaker trophy by head judge, Rev. James Kelly, of Charlottetown. The other judge was Fernando Vidal, also of Charlottetown.

The three other speakers were James Langille, Halifax, John G. Finn, Corner Brook, Nfld., and Fred Hyndman, Summerside, P.E.I.

DARTMOUTH WINNERS

Awards committee chairman Jim Mitchell of Sydney, N.S. announced the various other trophy winners of the Atlantic Provinces Jaycees Dartmouth, N.S. Jaycees won the membership increase trophy, having an increase of 70 per cent over last year. This presentation was made by Fred West, national president from New Westminster, B.C.

The Dartmouth unit also won the Outstanding Unit in the Atlantic Provinces award which was presented by Doug Kirby of Atlantic Bridge Co. which donated the trophy. President elect Rick Richards accepted both trophys on behalf of the club.

The winner of the Outstanding Atlantic Provinces Jaycee award, donated by Eastern Provincial Airways, was made by Don Simmons of EPA to Jim Wright of the Dartmouth Jaycees unit.

The Halifax Jaycee unit captured two awards; the "man mile" award for the greatest number of miles travelled by one unit, to attend the convention, and the brotherhood award for the Atlantic Provinces. The "man mile" award was presented by Don LeBlanc, past national president.

CHAIRMAN AWARD

The award for outstanding commission chairman of the 10 commissions in the Atlantic Provinces was presented to Jim Mitchell, Sydney. This new trophy, donated by the Bank of Montreal, was presented by assistant manager of the Charlottetown branch, Blaine Cready. A desk set, which was donated by Jack Manton of Halifax Jaycees as a permanent trophy, was also presented to Mr. Mitchell.

In his remarks on the effective speaking contest, Father Kelly noted that the topic "Biculturalism in Canada" was very timely and well planned, and that plans for the speak-off were well laid. He noted also there were some very good impromptu speeches when the contestants were asked to speak on whether French culture, other than in Quebec, should deserve any special consideration with the position o other cultural groups in Canad

Winner Norman Pinhorn, in his acceptance said, he would go on and "endeavor to bring the national trophy to the Atlantic Provinces."

The rest of the afternoon was taken up with training sessions.

Child Riding In Truck Cab Before Accident

In an accident Friday which took the life of four-year-old Patricia Marie McIver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair McIver of Newton, it was learned the child was riding in the cab of the truck. Apparently she fell unnoticed by the driver and a front wheel of the backing vehicle went over her chest. The Guardian in a story Saturday said in error she had been riding on the rear of the truck.

Yesterday, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. McIver at the Charlottetown Hospital. She has been named Patricia Marie.

The same day the funeral for the little girl killed was held from St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora.

97th Baptist Ass'n Closes At East Point

With the observance of the Lord's Supper the 97th annual meeting of the P.E.I. United Baptist Association meeting in East Point came to an end. The service was under the leadership of Rev. Ross Howard, Protestant chaplain of the P.E.I. Hospital. Deacons from a number of Baptist Churches served at the table.

The three day association, which started Friday at 10 a.m., was chaired by the moderator, Rev. T. W. Howard of North River.

The first highlight of the service was the devotional addresses given by Rev. A. G. J. Steeves of Montague entitled "Live the Four-Square Life," "Rightly Divide the Word of Truth", "Let Every Christian Do the Work of An Evangelist".

Secondly was a discussion of daily vacation Bible school materials, chaired by Rev. K. R. Hobson, Summerside. This was followed by a message on the theme of the Association by Rev. M. F. Harlow, Charlottetown, entitled "Christian Education and Evangelism."

The next highlight was on Friday evening when Rev. Donald Thomas, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of New Glasgow, N.S. spoke on "Atlantic Baptists and the Negro Race." Mr. Thomas informed the delegates of the racial discrimination present in the Atlantic Provinces.

Rev. Harry Taylor, Saint John, N.B., spoke on the newly revised Canadian Baptist Sunday School materials, giving a full description of the material and urging the Baptist people to use the material in their Sunday School.

Saturday afternoon the Men's Association and the Woman's Missionary Societies met separately. Rev. Harry Taylor, revision editor of the Baptist Sunday school supplies spoke to the men and Miss Winnifred Eaton, missionary nurse in India for 41 years, spoke to the ladies.

The Baptist young people had charge of the Saturday evening program. The devotional was led by the North River society and Milton Ward, newly elected president of the Island Baptist Young People's Fellowship brought the devotional message. Miss Lucy Anne Jelly presided over the Saturday evening service. Charles Ballem, Summerside, introduced the oratorical contestants, Miss Pam Partridge, Charlottetown, and Blair Nickerson, Summerside. Miss Partridge was chosen to represent Island Baptist Youth at the Baptist Convention which meets in Wolfville on August 20.

CRUSADE SPEAKER

The guest speaker for the youth meeting was Dr. Basil Brown, Australia, who is on P.E.I. in preparation of the Crusade being held in Charlottetown on June 7-14 and in Summerside on June 8-21. Dr. Joseph Blinko and Dr. Billy Graham will be the evangelists.

Two other highlights were the association sermon given by Rev. M. Nesbit, O'Leary, who spoke on "Christian Education and Evangelism", and the welcoming of the new moderator, Earl Jenkins, Hazelbrook, by Rev. T. W. Howard, the retiring moderator.

There were 197 registered delegates at this annual Baptist Association.

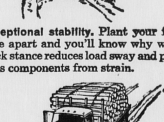
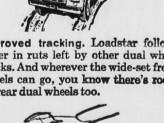
Why do you see so many LOADSTARS—?

WIDE TRACK FRONT AXLE is just one important reason

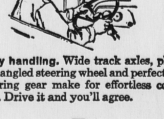
40° Wheel turn for more maneuverability. Turning radius is up to 14% shorter than trucks of similar size.



Exceptional stability. Plant your feet wide apart and you'll know why wide track stance reduces load sway and protects components from strain.



Improved tracking. Loadstar follows easier in ruts left by other dual wheel trucks. And wherever the wide-set front wheels can go, you know there's room for rear dual wheels too.



Easy handling. Wide track axles, plus flat-angled steering wheel and perfected steering gear make for effortless control. Drive it and you'll agree.
