THIS EVENING.—The prizes at St. Peter's Schools will be distributed by Bishop Courtney this evening.

SCOTT ACT.—Six new summonses were served yesterday. They are all returnable on Tuesday next.

THE WEATHER.—The weather has been somewhat chilly the past few evenings, and overcoats have been in demand.

Y. M. C. A.—There will be preaching in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening at the usual hours.

MCLEOD'S HALL.—The lesson at the Railway Gospel Meeting to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, will be Luke 12.16. The Worldly Rich Man. Strangers always welcome.

HOP BEER.—Judging from the number of casks labeled "Hop Beer," that have been imported from Halifax and elsewhere lately, that beverage must be the favorite drink just now.

ARRIVED.—The stone for the new sidewalks on Queen Street, referred to a few days ago, have arrived, and the work of placing them in position will be commenced as soon as possible.

NOTICE.—Truck license, horse and carriage tax and dog tax for this year (1888) must be paid by the 30th June inst., or will be sued for without further notice. Signed, F. S. CHANDLER, City Collector. June 22

LOUISIANA LOTTERY.—The story is current in St. John that at a recent drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, Mrs. Corbett, wife of keeper John Corbett, of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum, won a $10,000 prize.

SANITARY.—The policemen have about completed their tour of inspection of yards, water-closets, etc., and have handed in the names of a large number of citizens whose premises are not in as clean a condition as the law prescribes.

THE TURF.—A match race has been arranged between H. J. Kennedy's mare Nellie T., and Andrew Doyle's black mare, to take place at Upton Park on or about the 4th July next. The race is for $25 a side, and each man has deposited $10 forfeit with Dr. S. R. Jenkins.

A CORRECTION.—We were slightly in error about the horses shipped on the Peeres to Bermuda: 2 were shipped by A. Horne & Co., 2 by H. C. Outerbridge; 2 by J. S. Bagnall, and 1 by H. J. Kennedy, seven in all, and said by competent judges to be the finest lot ever sent from here to that market.

END OF THE SMITH SUIT.—The arbitrators in the Smith Chancery suit gave their decision this morning, awarding to the plaintiff two hundred and seventy five dollars. The Water Commissioners had offered $50. This amount was refused, and proceedings were then taken in chancery with the above result.

REVIVAL SERVICES.—Dr. Burr will conduct special services to-morrow morning at 10.30 at the Christian Church, Upper Great George Street, subject: "Worship God; and in the evening at 6.30, subject: "The True Secret of Beauty." In the afternoon he will conduct special services at Lot 48 at 3 o'clock.

MISS MCGARRY.—Speaking of a recent recital of this popular reader, in Boston the Herald of that city says: "The rendering of Tennyson's 'Rizpah' was one of the finest, if not the best ever given here, the pitiful and awful story being given with much dramatic power. The lady, while giving evidence of careful study and thorough training, has yet reserved a naturalness and charm in her art which in these days of varied schools of elocutionary training, is indeed rare, and of irresistible charm. Miss McGarry gives one of her choicest recitals in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Friday evening, 29th inst."

BAD BESSIE.—Some time ago a Pictou girl named Bessie McKenzie was sent to Rock-head prison, Halifax, for six months, for stealing a silk dress from Mrs. Holland. She escaped in a few days and went to service with a Mrs. Fraser, in Dartmouth, from whom she stole another supply of clothing and decamped. Then she went to a Mrs. Bisset's, in the same town, worked there for a short time and then left with $50 worth of Mrs. B.'s best clothes. This time Bessie walked to Bedford, boarded a train there and repaired to the home of her childhood in Pictou for a vacation. She returned to Halifax on Monday, was captured by Detective Power and returned to her home at Rock-head.

A VERY SAD CASE.—Says the Halifax Herald: "Last fall John Beamer, a young man residing at Herring Cove, married a young woman of the same place. Towards the spring symptoms of consumption showed themselves in the young wife, and a short time afterwards the disease proved fatal. Her husband during her sickness could hardly be consoled and when his young partner breathed her last he acted like a mad man. For a little while he was soothed by the kind words of friends, but finally he completely gave way to his feelings and became a lunatic. He has now to be watched day and night by his friends and no hopes are entertained of his recovery. It is the intention of his relatives to make application for his admission to Mount Hope Asylum."

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION, SUMMARY OF PROCEEDINGS.

CHICAGO, June 22. The Convention was called to order at 11.05.

The convention has reached a stage at which interest in the proceedings culminates. What the first ballot will disclose is already known. The absorbing curiosity is to know what the third, fourth or fifth ballots will show.

The men who pull the wires have been up nearly all night, and the air of the convention hall, as it begins to fill, is full of rumors, theories and blind guesses.

The first ballot, official: Alger, 84; Allison, 72; Depew, 99; Fittler, 24; Gresham, 114; Harrison, 79; Hawley, 13; Ingalls, 28; Phelps, 25; Rusk, 25; Sherman, 229; Blaine, 33; Lincoln, 3.

Second ballot: Sherman, 229; Rusk, 20; Ingalls, 16; Phelps, 18; Harrison, 91; Gresham, 108; Blaine, 33; Depew, 99; Allison, 75; Alger, 106; McKinley, 3; Lincoln, 3.

At 2 p. m. Miller moved to adjourn till 7 o'clock. The motion was carried.

In the evening the proceedings began at 7.24. Mr. Depew took the platform amid great applause. He says he came here as a delegate, neither expecting or desiring to appear in any other capacity.

At 7.55 R. G. Ingersoll took the platform amid great applause. He began by making a speech in favor of Protection.

At 8.10 p. m., there is great confusion. The delegates are leaving the hall.

NEW YORK, June 22. The World's Washington correspondent says:—President Cleveland has expressed the belief that Senator Allison will receive the nomination for President by the Chicago Convention.

G. W. Smalley cables to the Tribune as follows from London: "Blaine telegraphs to-day from Edinburgh, that several American correspondents are following him, but that any attempt to represent that he has modified the position he has taken in the Florence-Paris letter, is groundless. This I cable at his request."

CHICAGO, June 22. The Times says the contest is narrowing down to Blaine and Sherman. The chances are in favor of Blaine, with Foraker as vice-president.

Dillon Again Imprisoned.

LONDON, June 22. In the Commons this evening, the Chairman announced the imprisonment of John Dillon, M. P., for violation of the Crimes Act.

John Morley gave notice that he would introduce a resolution declaring the operation of the administration of the Crimes Act would undermine respect for law, estrange the minds of the people of Ireland, and deeply injure the common interests of the Kingdom.

Gladstone gave notice that on Monday next he would ask the Government to appoint a day for the discussion of Morley's motion.

Smith said the Government had listened with the greatest attention to Morley's notice. Feeling it was a challenge of the Government's conduct in every respect, they would forthwith place Monday at Mr. Morley's disposal. (Loud Opposition cheers.)
