Reverses of Fortune.

SINCE the defeat of Sir Vernon Harcourt, the new Government of Great Britain have already sustained two additional reverses. McLaren, Lord Advocate for Scotland, sought, on acceptance of office, re-election in Wigton, Scotland, and was defeated by a Conservative candidate. Mr. Knatchbull-Hugessen, Liberal member for Sandwich, was elevated to the House of Lords to compensate him for the want of a seat in the new Government; and the vacant seat in the Commons has just been filled by a Conservative candidate. It is said that other constituencies will be opened before long, and other reverses will probably be experienced. The lesson that it is one thing to declaim against an Opposition in office and another thing to perform the duties of a high official position with satisfaction to the public, is being repeated for the benefit of Mr. Gladstone. Mr. Gladstone's speeches were much admired. His acts do not seem to be received with so much favor.

Gladstone's Appointments.

The London correspondent of the New York Herald says that Gladstone's letter, defending the appointment of Lord Ripon as Viceroy of India is considered in Conservative circles as certain to prejudice the Nonconformists, especially those of Scotland, against him, "but in the eyes of the world it is the most statesmanlike document he has yet issued." The British Reformation Society objected to the Marquis of Ripon's appointment:—

First—Because though not contrary to the letter, it is contrary to the spirit of the laws, which preclude a Roman Catholic from occupying the throne of these realms and from filling the position of Her Majesty's representative in Ireland.

Second—Because the Queen, having been created Empress of India, it is evident by implication that the same restrictions exist with regard to the appointment of Her Imperial Majesty's representative to rule over her 200,000,000 Eastern subjects.

Third—Because the appointment is a precedent changing these laws which preclude Roman Catholics from the throne of this country, which laws were found necessary to preserve the independence of the throne as well as our civil and religious liberties.

Fourth—Because it has been so ably shown by the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone in certain pamphlets that more than ever since the decrees of the Vatican Council of 1870, no one can now become a convert to Romanism without renouncing his moral and mental freedom, and placing his loyalty, civil and mental, at the mercy of another; and because the spirit of a neophyte is expressed in the words, "a Catholic first and an Englishman after," which we take to mean that the convert intends, in the case of any conflict between the Queen and the Pope, to follow the Pope and not the Queen, and because the Marquis of Ripon, being in this position, it is, according to this showing, unbecoming to the dignity of the Empress of India and to the well being of her subjects that he should fill this very important position.

Fifth—Because it is evidenced by the fact that not a single Roman Catholic representative has been returned to Parliament by the constituencies of Great Britain, and this appointment is in direct opposition to their views.

MR. GLADSTONE'S REPLY.

My Lord—In reply to your letter enclosing a memorial from the British Reformation Society relating to the appointments held by Lord Ripon and Lord Kenmare I am directed by Mr. Gladstone to inform you that the qualifications of Lord Ripon for the high office of Viceroy of India had been carefully considered by Her Majesty's Government; that Her Majesty's Government repose particular confidence in the honor, integrity and impartiality of Lord Ripon, and are convinced from long experience of his personal qualities that he would never allow his religious leanings or professions to interfere in any case with the perfect equity of his conduct in any case where religious interests might be concerned. I am desired to add that the office of Viceroy is one detached in a remarkable degree from all direct contact with religious or ecclesiastical interests, and that is the case of the Lord Chamberlain's office. Lord Kenmare, as has been publicly stated, has by voluntary arrangement divested himself of all functions bearing upon ecclesiastical matters. I am to add further that the citation in your memorial from the work entitled "Rome and the Newest Fashions of Religion" is verbally accurate, but presents, when taken alone, an incomplete and misleading view of Mr. Gladstone's opinions, which are developed in the same book.
J. A. GODLEY.

To object to a man in advance because he is a Roman Catholic is not a reasonable proceeding. The Society should have waited until the Marquis of Ripon gave it something to work upon.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

LONDON, May 21.

In the House of Commons to-day Sir Charles Dilke, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in reply to Mr. Brown, said government would lay upon the table the whole correspondence between the government of the United States and Canada.

Hartington, in reply to Mr. Gourley, stated that troops in Afghanistan would gradually be withdrawn as soon as a ruler was placed there whose authority was likely to be permanent. Hartington confirmed the announcement of a deficit of £4,000,000 sterling in Indian budget. Grant Duff, Under Secretary for the Colonies, in reply to Mr. Dielny, stated that Sir Bartle Frere would remain at the Cape. On the debate on the report of address, Mr. Forster, chief Secretary for Ireland, said he had no reason to believe the landlords in Ireland would enforce their powers until they knew the result of the harvest. The report of the address was then agreed to.

Gratifying Increase in Nova Scotia Coal Sales.

We learn, on enquiry, that the amount of sales of coal and coke in this Province, during the first quarter of the present year, as compared with the same quarter of 1869, were as follows:—

COKE.
First quarter of 1879, 3,366 tons.
" 1880, 3,994 tons.

COAL.
First quarter of 1879, 58,123 tons.
" 1880, 76,544 tons.

This shows a most gratifying increase of 18,500 tons for the first three months of the present year, making the amount much the largest ever sold during those months of the year since our mines were opened. The increase in the sales during the first quarter of the year is particularly gratifying, since it is altogether due to the increased home demand. In 1867 the sales for the first three months only amounted to 7,452 tons, or less than one tenth their present amount. In 1876 they only amounted to 31,783 tons, or scarcely two fifths of what they have reached in 1880.—Tr. Herald.

The Supreme Court General Term, New York, has unanimously decided on the appeal against the burial of David Copper in Calvary Cemetery, N. Y., in favor of the Roman Catholic Church. The authorities wanted to exclude Copper's remains, on the ground that he was a Freemason and a Protestant, and the General term decision upholds the right of those who control cemeteries to make conditions as to the persons who shall be buried within the grounds. It appears that defendant was not bound by either contract or law to bury Copper in Calvary Cemetery, and further, that the plaintiffs had no status, being neither legal representatives, next of kin, nor assignees of deceased.

THE GOLD "BOOM."—Mr. A. Walton brought to town yesterday two bars of gold from the Mines at Cariboo, Moose River. One bar weighed 9 ounces and 7 drachms, the result of twelve days labor, from 2 tons 9 cwt. quartz, taken from the recently discovered lead. The other bar weighed 14 ounces 17 pennyweights, and was the result of 13 tons crushing. The two bars were valued at $400. The mines are owned by Mr. Walton, who intends prosecuting enterprise vigorously this season. The gold, it is thought will average at least 4 oz to the ton of quartz. The best paying lead is eight inches thick.—Tr. Herald.

WILKES' "Spirit of the Times" says that Courtney has proved himself the champion failure of the world—a man in appearance and a baby in action, with the physique of a Hercules and the heart of a sheep—a cold blooded coward without a prototype. He must be either a coward or a thief, and in either case, the aquatic world will cheerfully endure his prompt and permanent retirement.

MR. JOHN POPE HENNESSY, Governor of Hong Kong, has been made a Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. In a very short time Mr. Hennessy will be entitled to his retiring pension and will return to take possession of a charming residence, which was once inhabited by Sir Walter Raleigh, in the neighborhood of Voughal, Ireland.

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own household work for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."
"JOHN WILKES, Butler, N. Y."
