

Montague Provide Tools For Curlers

MONTAGUE — Souvenirs and greetings are to be forwarded to the mayors of Regina and Edmonton by the town of Montague when the schoolboy curlers and the Ladies Silver curling teams visit there later this month. The decision to send greetings was reached Monday night at the regular meeting of the town council.

The council also will supply half the curling pins for the boys of the town members of both teams. These trophies will be engraved with the name of the curler and will also carry the word "centennial" year.

The Montague Branch, Royal Canadian Legion will supply the other half of the pins for the curling pins for the boys of the town members of both teams. These trophies will be engraved with the name of the curler and will also carry the word "centennial" year.

A letter from John Mullaly, MP for Kings was read in which he advised he had written to the minister in regard to the office and that he would take it up in person on the first opportunity.

On the tax arrears question it was decided to continue with the program started early last year to collect such taxes if necessary by court action.

The tax assessors are to be asked to have the assessment completed by May 1 to give the town clerk a chance to get the new bills out early this year.

The chairman of the building committee, Coun. Beck advised that due to the number of breaks in the area arrangements have been made for a night patrol of the town.

Committee To Study Montague Rink Plans

MONTAGUE — Approximately 120 residents of Montague and surrounding communities attended a meeting to determine the feasibility of an artificial outdoor rink for the area. The meeting was called by the executive of the central committee of the community, and was held last night in such a room.

The central committee will outline briefly the reason for the meeting before turning the matter over to the rink project committee, headed by J. J. Jett chairman, Roddy Martin.

WINTER WORKS

John Mullaly, MP, was present and advised that the only assistance available that could be made at the moment was the winter works program which would defray 50 per cent of the labor costs with the work having to be done during the winter months but that he would investigate further and advise the committee of a final finding.

Ernest Juffin, manager of Langley Fruit Packers Ltd. said that the reason for selling the rink was primarily its own position and the possibility of procuring funds from ARDA to erect a new one. The rink and ice was purchased by Irving Oil Ltd., which made it available this winter for free.

School Library Standards Committee Has First Session

A school library standards committee set up in this province, met Monday evening for the first time in Queen Charlotte High School library. This committee meeting, described by Dr. K.A. Parker as "one of the most exciting events in connection with the development of school libraries", was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frances Lethian, chief librarian of Charlotteville schools.

Members of the committee present were: J.A.S. Williams, director of curriculum for the province; Dr. K.A. Parker, superintendent of Charlotteville schools; Miss Dorothy Cullen, provincial librarian for Prince Edward Island Libraries; Miss Isabel Matheson, principal of Charlotteville High; W. Horton principal of Queen Charlotte High; Mrs. Edna Murphy, member of Charlotteville School Board; Mrs. Winifred Stevenson, teacher at Queen Charlotte; Mrs. Margaret Taylor, former librarian at Birchwood; and the chairman, Mrs. Wilson Ross, principal, Central Queens Regional High School, was unavoidably absent.

TO THE ELECTORS OF WARD THREE

One of Col. MacDonald's suggestions was that the Charlotteville school libraries could be useful to groups of interested people, teachers, prospective teachers, librarians, supervisors and trustees, for first-hand observation of the library programs within these schools.

In some special fields of schooling in this and other provinces there are itinerant teachers who visit certain schools in an area. Miss Cullen made the suggestion that by having visiting school librarians and centralized library services much could be accomplished.
