PERSONAL.

Mrs W J O'Reilly left this morning on a visit to relatives and friends in New Brunswick.

Miss Helen Perkins went to Charlottetown yesterday, to visit friends.—St. John Telegraph.

Dr. and Mrs. McPhail and family are among the Montreals who have taken up their residence at Tadoussac for the season.—Montreal Star.

The members of the Ministerial Association are requested to attend the funeral services of the departed member, Rev. D. Sutherland, tomorrow afternoon.

Mme. Marie Harrison was engaged to sing with Dan Godfrey's band in Montreal last week. After three days of concerts there, she accompanied the band to New York.

Mr. John Macleod, of the Chicago Branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and formerly of the Summerside Branch of the same bank, is spending a short holiday with friends in this Province.

Archbishop O'Brien and his sister left by the I. C. E. maritime express yesterday on a trip to Montreal and Ottawa. On his return the reverend gentleman will come by way of P. E. Island.—Moncton Transcript.

The Prince and Princess of Wales are promoting the restoration of the interesting parish church of Sherborne, a village not far from Sandringham, which is reputed to be the second Christian Church founded in East Anglia.

Father Elliott, the celebrated Paolist preacher, arrived from New York last night to conduct a retreat for the clergy of this diocese. He will address the congregation of St. Dunstan's Cathedral at High Mass tomorrow. The retreat begins on Monday.

Mr. R. Barry Smith, formerly of Moncton and latterly of New York, has given up law, after practising it for twenty-three years, and is going to become a preacher in the Baptist denomination. He has a license which permits him to preach, and as soon as he receives a church he will be ordained.

Mr. H. H. Hagerman of the Fredericton N. B., high school teaching staff, and Miss Bessie, the youngest daughter of Conductor Hagerman, of the C. P. R. service, were united in marriage last Wednesday at the residence of the bride's father. Their wedding tour will include a visit to Prince Edward Island.

At the Queen: James E. McCurdy, Halifax; Miss A. J. Palmer, DeSable; T. F. Simpson, Brantford; Aubrey E. Smith, Trent; A. Hart, Yarmouth; E. W. Oakes, F. H. Oakes, New York; A. McLean, C. A. Campbell, Minnie McDonald, Eunice McCormack, Boston; Stewart Burns, Summerside.

At the Hotel Davies: H. A. Price, Halifax; C. F. Allison, London, Eng; B. C. Cox, Souris; R. F. McDonald, de F. D. Scott, Montreal; E. A. Grabin, Guelph; W. P. Farrand, St. John; A. W. Clark, Boston; W. Elliot, New York; H. D. Simmons, Montreal; Wm Richards, Bideford; M. B. Harris, Providence; I. Edmundson, Montreal; R. O. Coors, Trourc; W. A. Titlow, Moncheate.

ODDFELLOWSHIP.—At the regular meeting of Wildey Lodge last evening the following officers were installed for the ensuing term by Philip Bridges, D. D. G. M., assisted by grand officers Lane, P. G. G. C. Acorn, P. G.; J. J. McKinnon, P. G.; D. R. McLellan, P. G.; R. Battry, P. G.; A. J. Hoale, P. G.; N. G. John McLaughlin; V. G. Ed. Jenkin; R. S. W. R. Forbes; P. S. L. F. Mancey; Treas, W. Brehant; Warder, E. Waller, Conductor, P. Bridges; O. G. A. H. Clements; I. G. A. W. Mitchell; R. S. N. G. Geo Waller; L. S. N. G. G. C. Acorn; R. S. S. H. Gordon; L. S. S. E. W. Martin, Chaplain, W. D. Waye, I. P. G. D. D. Morrison. After the lodge closed the Noble Grand invited the officers and members over to W. F. Carter's ice cream parlors where ample justice was done to strawberries and ice cream.

THEATRICAL.—"What Happened to Jones," with which the W. S. Harkins Co. will open the week's engagement here on Monday next, has made wherever presented the greatest hit of any comedy ever presented in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Broadhurst, the author of the play, was, till last September, practically unknown to the public, but in a night the success of his farce brought him into the very front rank of American playwrights. It is said that for constructive ingenuity this play would do credit to a Bennequin, a Fuydan or a Bisson. The scheme of the farce admirably worked out and the manner in which one comic situation follows another is productive of almost constant laughter. Its tone is clean and the dialogue is crisp and sparkling. Many people who saw this comedy during its long run in New York last winter declare most emphatically that its presentation by the Harkins Co. is superior in many respects to that given by the New York Company. The advance sale of seats is now on at the usual places.

Local and Other Items.

ST. JAMES PICNIC.—Remember St James' Picnic North Wiltshire on Wednesday, July 13th.

HEARTZ'S HALL.—Rev. Theophilus McLeod will preach at Hertz's Hall tomorrow at three o'clock.

FROM MONTREAL.—The steamer Campana called here yesterday and will make another call on Monday.

OFFICIAL ENQUIRY.—The official enquiry into the recent steamship disaster off Cape Sable will be begun at Halifax on Tuesday.

I. O. O. F.—Members of St. Lawrence and Wildey Lodges are requested to meet at Oddfellows Hall this evening at nine o'clock. All Oddfellows are urgently requested to attend.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The annual Sunday School Picnic of St. Paul's Church is taking place at Middel today. There is a large attendance of scholars and others. The special train took a great many people from Charlottetown.

PICNIC.—Pleasure seekers can't do better than take a trip on the William Aitken, which leaves the Ferry Wharf on Monday at 2 p. m., for the beautiful grounds of J. McEachern, Esq, at Red Point, with the Crusaders in their annual basket picnic. Adults 25c, children 15c, return.

W. C. T. U.—The convention closed last evening with a lecture on "Rome" given in the Baptist Church by Miss Phelps. The lecturer treated largely of the churches, catacombs, etc., in the historic city, and the discourse is described as "the best ever given in Charlottetown." Mrs. Strong, president of the W. C. T. U. presided.

PICNIC ROTTE.—Steamer Princess having been detained on marine slip, through strong wind, there was no return steamer from Picton yesterday afternoon. Steamer Wm. Aitken was despatched this morning with mails and passengers and will reach there in time for train. It is expected that both steamers will return here this evening.

MASONIC.—A Masonic picnic is in progress at Crapaud today, under the auspices of True Brothers Lodge. The dedication of the new Masonic Hall at Crapaud Corner is to form part of the proceedings. The weather is highly favorable for the outing, and there is a large attendance. The excursion from Charlottetown in the Jacques Cartier was well patronized.

REV. MR. SUTHERLAND'S FUNERAL.—The funeral service of the late Rev. D. Sutherland will be conducted at Zion Church tomorrow afternoon. The body will be removed to the Church at 1 o'clock and will remain on view to those desiring to take a last look until three o'clock, when the services will begin. The city ministers and members of Presbytery are expected to be present and take part. The interment will be at the People's Cemetery.

MARITIME MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—The Maritime Medical Association held two sessions at Halifax on Thursday, at which papers were read and discussed. In the afternoon they went on an excursion to the harbor, and in the evening dined at the Florence Hotel, Bedford Basin. The following officers have been elected: President, R. McNoll, P. E. I.; vice president, for P. E. I., S. R. Jenkin, Charlottetown; for Nova Scotia, W. T. Moore, Kentville; for New Brunswick, Geo. Adly, St. John; secretary, G. M. Campbell, Halifax; treasurer, T. D. Walker, St. John.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The friends of the Prince Edward Island Hospital did not turn out as largely as was expected last evening and therefore the "hospital benefit" was not the financial success anticipated. Those who did attend, however, witnessed an excellent performance and every one came away satisfied. The beautiful play of "Damon and Pythias" was put upon the boards in a splendid manner, and all the characters were cleverly sustained. Mr. Butler as "Damon" and Mr. John E. Miles as "Pythias" were exceptionally good, and brought out the strong points in the respective characters very skillfully. The specialty bill included an entertaining sketch by Mr. Culhane and Miss St. Felix. Tonight the Crescents have their benefit, and it is expected that the attendance will be large. "New Mexico," a sensational comedy drama, is the bill, and a splendid rendering is promised. The entertainment will begin at the usual time, and before the curtain rises on the play a choice variety programme will be disposed of. This part of the programme will not be over until about nine o'clock and then the play will begin. This will afford those who are engaged in stores or who wish to do some shopping an opportunity of witnessing the drama.
